

WEATHER
Cloudy and colder tonight; unsettled Sunday.

THE DAILY POST ESTABLISHED 1883
EVENING CRESCENT ESTABLISHED 1899

EIGHTEEN PAGES

APPLETON, WISCONSIN, SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1939

PRICE FOUR CENTS

FINAL EDITION

FULL LEASED WIRE SERVICE
OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Leaders Hoping For Quick Vote In Upper House On Defense Bill

Cheered by House
Speed in Approving Army Funds
PLANES ISSUE

Limit on Air Corps Chief Debate Topic in
U. S. Senate

Washington—(AP)—President Roosevelt asked congress today to provide money immediately for a $110,000,000 program for the purchase of "critical items" of equipment for the army, including anti-aircraft artillery, semi-automatic rifles, anti-tank guns, tanks, artillery, ammunition and gas masks.

The president also asked $5,339,287 for strengthening the nation's coast defenses and $7,500,000 for training of 20,000 civilian airplane pilots by the civil aeronautics authority.

Mr. Roosevelt sent his request to Speaker Bankhead in a letter. The $123,839,287 total is part of his plan for expanding the army and providing it with necessary equipment. It supplements the $499,000,000 military appropriation bill which the house passed and sent to the senate yesterday.

The president requested $7,038,287 in immediate appropriations plus authority for the war department to enter into contracts up to $46,000,000 to be met by additional appropriations later.

The bulk of the funds would go to the ordnance department for expenditure on guns, tanks and ammunition. For that department, the president proposed $55,366,362 in appropriations and $44,000,000 in contract authorizations.

For seacoast defenses, the chief executive suggested $3,295,631 be appropriated for continental defense, $786,284 for insular possessions and $1,416,372 for the Panama Canal zone. The total of $5,478,287 would be supplemented by $1,061,000 contract authorization.

Washington—(AP)—The speed with which the house approved the $499,857,000 army appropriation bill heightened hopes of administration leaders today that the program for increased armaments would sweep through the senate shortly despite the furious debate it has provoked there.

Without a record vote or a single amendment, the huge appropriation was passed by the house yesterday. Senatorial disagreement over the army expansion bill centered, meanwhile, on whether 6,000 or 5,500 planes should be set as a limit for the air corps. There appeared little opposition to other parts of this measure, passed previously by the house, which authorized the increased army outlays proposed by the president but leaves their financing to separate appropriation bills.

Senator Borah (R-Idaho), told reporters he believed the senate could demonstrate to the world that it was "not excited and not afraid" if it fixed the maximum air corps strength at 5,500, as approved by the house.

Would Raise Limit
On the other hand, Senator Lee (D-Okl.), supporting the senate military committee's amendment to raise the limit to 6,000, said he believed it would be good psychology, from a world standpoint, to approve the higher figure.

Announcing he would support the movement to hold down the plane limitation, Senator LaFollette (P-Wis.) said he was doubtful the army needed even the 5,500 approved by the house.

Senator Clark (D-Mo.) told the senate yesterday he thought the psychology of fear had played an important part in bringing about the Munich conference in Europe.

He said Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh had been permitted to fly over German airplane factories and had made a report to Prime Minister Chamberlain of England which "scared" Chamberlain into arranging the Munich conference.

On The Other Hand

Hands do much to denote a person's character, according to those who make a study of such things. For instance, soft, dumpling hands could never belong to a woman who pounds a typewriter or sits behind an executive's desk and really does it successfully. Hands that flutter restlessly—arranging strange hairs or pulling ear lobes, denote a lack of dignity and poise. So if you wish to be a success watch those segments of the forelimb and you'll be as attractive as the next one.

And speaking of hands—would you get to "hand" it to Post-Crescent Want Ads for getting results at low cost.

FEEDER PIGS—For sale, Elvina Warner, R. 3, Appleton, Tel. 9613R11.

Sold after second insertion of ad. Then cancelled ad which was inserted for 8 times.

GRANTED PERMIT

Washington—(AP)—Marion Anderson (above), Negro contralto, has received approval to sing in the central high school auditorium on Easter Sunday. The board of education of the District of Columbia reversed a previous action yesterday and voted to suspend the rules governing Washington's white and Negro school system to permit the concert. Previously, the board had refused permission on the ground that the use of school buildings for profit-making enterprises was not permissible.

Hears Motions in Case of 9 Firms And 8 Individuals

Trial Before Federal Judge Lindley Scheduled
Oct. 2 at Madison

Danville, Ill.—(AP)—Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley yesterday heard motions preliminary to the trial of nine major oil companies and eight individuals on charges of violation of the Sherman anti-trust act by allegedly restricting gasoline jobbers' profits.

The trial before Judge Lindley is scheduled to begin in Madison, Wis., Oct. 2. Defendants are those named in the second indictment returned at Madison in the government's anti-trust campaign.

The defense withdrew its motion to quash the indictment and Judge Lindley took under advisement a defense motion to require the government to confine the case to one count of conspiracy. He allowed motions for a bill of particulars and a list of government witnesses.

Twenty-four defendants already have entered pleas declining to fight the charge and have paid fines and costs amounting to $400,000.

Defendants Listed
Defendants to be tried are Gulf Refining company and its vice president, William W. Hartman, Pittsburg, Pa.; the Texas company and W. S. Rogers, New York, president, and H. W. Dodge, New York, vice president, and S. B. Wright, Chicago; Barnsdall Refining Corporation and E. B. Rogers, Tulsa, Okla., president; Three Globe Refining Companies and I. A. O'Shaughnessy, Minneapolis and Chicago, president; National Refining company, Cleveland; the Tidewater Associated Oil Companies and Edward L. Shea, New York, president, and J. W. Warner, Tulsa, Okla., vice president, and the Deep Rock Oil company.

The case growing out of the first indictment returned at Madison still is pending. A jury convicted 46 defendants a year ago of conspiracy to fix prices. Judge Patrick J. Stone sustained the conviction of 17, dismissed 11 and granted new trials to 18.

The United Circuit Court of Appeals recently sustained Judge Stone in his reversal of the jury verdict in the case of the 11.

Michigan Governor,
Pastor in Tiff Over
Gambling Conditions

Detroit—(AP)—Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald, who yesterday called upon the Rev. Amos B. Bogart, of Battle Creek, to "substantiate or retract" charges the clergyman made of gambling connections in the governor's administration, asserted in an interview today that a Detroit man seeking to legalize slot machines was "behind the whole thing."

The governor said: "The Rev. Bogart's charges are, of course, absurd. I have yet to receive a complaint against slot machines from any county of the state."

Attorney General Thomas Read and Captain Laurence A. Lyon of the state police, who were sent to Battle Creek by the governor, conferred with the minister.

"I have learned nothing that was not contained in the Rev. Bogart's letter to the governor," said Read. "As far as I am concerned the whole matter is in the hands of the state police."

The minister, pastor of the Up-ton Avenue Methodist Episcopal church in Battle Creek, demanded in his letter that the governor "clean up the whole rotten gambling mess" in the state or face a "recall movement."

Frozen Chunk of Coal Kills Green Bay Man

Green Bay—(AP)—William L. Keller, 52, was killed last night at the Cleveland Clinic from company's coal dock when he was struck by a chunk of frozen coal that fell from a hopper 40 feet in the air. He moved here four years ago from Soldiers Grove, Wis.

Garner Backs Economy Push In Congress

Vice President Reported
Taking Active Part Behind Scenes

MAKES NO COMMENT

Bloc Not Too Hopeful of Success in War on New Deal Spending

Washington—(AP)—The push for economy by Senator Harrison (D-Miss.) and a group of like-minded legislators has the support and cooperation of Vice President Garner.

Close friends of the vice president said today he was taking an active part in the behind-the-scenes maneuvers of Senator Harrison and other members of the congressional economy group.

But he is not deviating from his long custom of refusing to give interviews on matters of public policy.

His friends said he wished his part in the endeavor to remain buried in the background because the actual work was being done by a group of senate and house members led by such men as Senators Harrison of Mississippi, Byrd and Glass of Virginia, Adams of Colorado and others.

Those engaged in the effort were not too optimistic of success. They recognize they may expect strong opposition.

Willingness of members of congress to cut down on federal spending in their own districts was involved.

Roosevelt's Position
At the bottom of the dispute lies the expressed disagreement of the economy group with the economic theory to which they say President Roosevelt committed himself in his annual message.

President Roosevelt recommended a $9,000,000,000 budget and said the nation must not cut its expenses drastically now if it wished to attain an $80,000,000,000 annual national income. If such a national income were achieved, he indicated, increased collections from present taxes would balance the budget.

Harrison put the view of those who are revolting in these words: "I have no confidence in the economic philosophy we must spend ourselves out of this economic disaster."

Many southern Democrats are back of the economy drive. It also has drawn support from middle western Democrats, and to a lesser degree from eastern and far western ones. Those back of the drive expect most Republicans to lend a hand.

Pleads Guilty of Drunken Driving

Bert McCann, Route 1,
Kaukauna, Fined $50
And Costs

Bert McCann, 58, route 1, Kaukauna, changed his mind a few minutes after he had pleaded not guilty of drunk driving in municipal court of Judge Thomas H. Ryan this morning.

He returned to the court to plead guilty and was fined $50 and costs with an alternative of 60 days in the county detention camp under both the state and city laws.

Judge Ryan revoked his driving license for a year and remitted the state fine upon payment of the city fine and costs in both actions.

McCann was arrested about 8:45 last night on W. College avenue following a minor accident. He was driving west and struck a parked car owned by Morris Belzer, 328 W. College avenue. Police lodged McCann in the city jail overnight.

5
Drunken Drivers
Since
Jan. 1st

The case growing out of the first indictment returned at Madison still is pending. A jury convicted 46 defendants a year ago of conspiracy to fix prices. Judge Patrick J. Stone sustained the conviction of 17, dismissed 11 and granted new trials to 18.

The United Circuit Court of Appeals recently sustained Judge Stone in his reversal of the jury verdict in the case of the 11.

9 Accused of Supplying Faked
Passports to European Spies;
Robinson-Rubens Case Reopened

New York—(AP)—Indictment of nine persons accused of supplying faked passports to a ring of European spies reopened today the mysterious Robinson-Rubens case, an enigma in international intrigue.

GETS MOSCOW POST

Laurence A. Steinhardt (above) has been reported named by President Roosevelt as the new United States ambassador to the Soviet Union. At present ambassador to Peru, Steinhardt replaces Joseph E. Davies, who was transferred to Belgium last June.

Steinhardt, U. S. Envoy to Peru, to Serve at Moscow

Bowers, Ambassador to Spain, Called Home
For Consultation

Washington—(AP)—Laurence A. Steinhardt, now ambassador to Peru, has been named by President Roosevelt as ambassador to the Soviet Union, it was learned from a reliable source today.

Simultaneously, it was announced by the state department that Claude G. Bowers, ambassador to Spain, had been summoned home for consultation and already was en route.

The state department declined comment on the Steinhardt appointment pending dispatch by the president of the nomination to the senate for confirmation.

Steinhardt, who was born in New York city in 1882, was appointed minister to Sweden by the president in 1933 and went to Lima in 1937 where he was active during the recent Pan-American conference.

Replaces Davies
The new ambassador to Moscow replaces Joseph E. Davies, who was transferred to Belgium last June. The Moscow post since has been vacant.

Bowers, a native Indianan, has been ambassador to Spain since 1933 but has had his headquarters in France for most of the time since the Spanish war started in July, 1936.

He established a temporary embassy at St. Jean de Luz, across the border from Spain, and has watched developments on both sides of the battle lines from there.

Bowers' recall for conference follows immediately the action of Great Britain and France in recognizing the government of Generalissimo Francisco Franco as the legal government of Spain. Indications were the president had sent for him before making any decision to follow the French and British lead in recognizing the new government.

Aerial Performer Is Heart Disease Victim

Quincy, Ill.—(AP)—Thomas J. Beckman, 47, famed circus aerial performer of "The Flying Beckmans" troupe, died last night, apparently of heart disease, while conducting practice of aerial performers at a WPA center.

Beckman for years performed under the big tops of leading circuses, including Barnum and Bailey and Ringling Brothers, throughout the United States and in many foreign countries.

A native of Beaver, Mo., Beckman had made his home in Quincy since he was a child. He had been in show business since he was 15.

"The Flying Beckmans" included himself, his brothers, Ed and William, and William's wife Ledore. Tom Beckman retired in 1937 and recently directed the Beckman troupe of girl aerialists.

The other four indicted were identified only as John Blank, believed a key figure, and Ivan Doe, Dimitri Doe and Alexis Doe. The indictment asserted the activities of the ring began Jan. 1, 1934, and that frauds were perpetrated in New York City, Merrill, Wis.; Chicago, Ill.; Quebec, Canada; Stockholm, Sweden; Basle, Switzerland; Zagreb, Yugoslavia; Springfield, Austria; Eger, Germany; Czech, Czechoslovakia and Moscow.

U. S. Will Help Religious and Personal Freedom, Roosevelt Says

'What People Really Want, They Generally
Get,' Hughes Says

LAUDS GOVERNMENT

Finds Checks and Balances Assure 'Deliberate Judgment'

Washington—(AP)—Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, addressing congress which two years ago defeated proposals to reorganize the supreme court, said today that "what the people really want, they generally get."

Praising the American system of government for its division of authority among the executive, legislative and judicial divisions, the chief justice told his audience, including President Roosevelt:

"If our checks and balances sometimes prevent the speedy action which is thought desirable, they also assure in the long run a more deliberate judgment."

"And what the people really want, they generally get. With the ultimate power of change through amendment in their hands, they are always able to obtain whatever a preponderant and abiding sentiment demands."

Reorganization Fight
His statement reminded the assembled legislators and government officials of Mr. Roosevelt's unsuccessful proposal to reorganize the supreme court and other branches of the judiciary in order, as the president said, to get new blood into the judicial system.

The proposal followed the court's action in invalidating several early New Deal laws which drew down upon it much administration criticism. Subsequently, however, the trend of court opinion changed, most later New Deal laws were approved, and the president has been enabled by death and retirements to name three new court members. A fourth vacancy is soon to be filled.

Hughes declared that legislation passed in 1789 establishing the judicial system "made possible the effective functioning of the department of government which is designed to safeguard with judicial

Turn to page 2 col. 4

Plan Hearing on Farm Department

Committees to Hold Joint Hearing Wednesday
On Reorganization

Madison—(AP)—The senate and assembly agriculture committees will hold a joint hearing Wednesday on an administration bill to reorganize the department of agriculture and markets, consolidating with it the state grain and warehouse commission.

With modifications the bill continues the present plan of a seven man, part time policy making board and a single administrative director, but eliminates the three grain and warehouse commissioners who function separately and receive $3,600 a year each.

The commission has headquarters at Superior and operates entirely on revenues it collects.

Under the proposed bill civil service employees of the commission and those in the department of agriculture and markets would be retained but a new plan of administration would be set up.

The bill establishes within the department four divisions: grain and warehousing; dairy and food; markets; and agriculture, with an executive in charge of each. It authorizes appointment of division heads by the director, who would be named by the board.

Board members to be chosen by the governor with the consent of the senate, would have to be experienced farmers. Their pay would have to be $10 a day when they meet, but not more than $500 annually. The director's salary is fixed at $6,000.

Confesses Murder of Child in Pennsylvania

Mifflintown, Pa.—(AP)—In a surprise arraignment before a justice of the peace, Paul W. Barwick, 40-year-old brickyard worker, pleaded guilty today to a murder charge in the death of two-year-old Miriam Wolf. He was held without bail for the next term of court.

The murder charge was read by Corporal Richard Gray of the state police.

"I feel like I would like to see right now," Barwick said.

Described by Gray as a "jealous suitor" of the child's mother, he flinched when informed Miriam died yesterday.

Treasurer Drops Two More State Employees

Madison—(AP)—State Treasurer John M. Smith, announced dismissal today of two more employees of the beverage tax division. They are Manley D. Hinchaw, of Ladysmith, and Clarence Schief, of Dalton, inspectors whose probationary periods expire next week.

Highlights of Address on Congress 150th Anniversary

By the Associated Press
Here are some sentences from President Roosevelt's address commemorating the 150th anniversary of the first session of congress:

Today, with many other democracies, the United States will give no encouragement to the belief that our processes are outworn, or that we will approvingly watch the return of forms of government which for two thousand years have proved their tyranny and their instability alike.

It is . . . in the spirit of our system that our elections are positive in their mandate, rather than passive in their acquiescence.

In that bill of rights lies another vast chasm between our representative democracy and those reversions to personal rule which have characterized these recent years.

Representative democracy will never tolerate suppression of true news at the behest of government.

Where democracy is snuffed out there, too, the right to worship God in one's own way is circumscribed or abrogated.

Our fathers rightly believed that this government which they set up would seek as a whole to act as a whole for the good governing of the nation.

The safety of the system of representative democracy is in the last analysis based on two essentials:
First, that at frequent periods the voters must choose a new congress and a new president; and second,
that this choice must be made freely, that is to say without any undue force against or influence over the voter in the expression of his personal and sincere opinion.

Speaker Bankhead Raps 'Sapping' by Minority Groups

Thinks Nation 'May Have Been Too Tolerant' of 'Sinister Influences'

Washington—(AP)—Speaker Bankhead told a joint session of the house and senate today that "we may have been too tolerant" of recent activities of "sinister influences and minorities" at work in the United States.

Participating in a celebration marking the 150th anniversary of the first American congress, the house leader declared:

"There are evidences of certain sinister influences and minorities now seeking to sap and mine the pillars of this temple of freedom."

"We may have been too generous in our hospitality to them. We have been too tolerant of some of their recent manifestations of subversive treachery."

May 'Go Too Far'
"We have sought with rather grim patience to respect the guarantee of freedom of speech; but it may be only fair to admonish all such groups that they take counsel of their prudence lest by going one step too far, it will be too late to escape the wrath and indignation of all real Americans."

Senator Pittman (D-Nev.) described the difficulties which beset the first meeting of congress in New York in 1789, relating how on the official opening date, March 4, only a handful of members showed up and a quorum did not report until April 21.

This government, he said, "has brought a greater degree of liberty, prosperity and happiness to our people than are enjoyed anywhere else in the world—a government that is at peace with the world and respected by the world."

Confessed Murderer Is Pronounced Sane

Morris, Ill.—(AP)—Elvin Wood, 37, indicted for the killing of a life-long friend, was found sane yesterday by Dr. Marvin Sukov, Chicago alienist.

The doctor gave his opinion to Circuit Judge Frank H. Hayes after examining Wood in the presence of his counsel and State's Attorney S. J. Holderman.

Wood pleaded guilty to murdering Abner Nelson, wealthy bachelor, and Judge Hayes ordered a hearing of the facts before passing sentence. Holderman said Wood previously confessed he had planned to demand ransom from relatives of the victim but lost his nerve.

Judge Hayes adjourned the hearing until Monday.

Grimm Is Re-Appointed Normal School Regent

Madison—(AP)—Governor Hell re-appointed J. H. Grimm, of River Falls, today to the board of normal school regents for a term expiring in 1944.

The governor signed commissions promoting Joseph G. Richter, of Watertown, from first lieutenant to captain, and Paul K. Wiley, of Watertown, from sergeant to second lieutenant in the Wisconsin national guard. Both men were assigned to duty in Troop K of the 108th cavalry.

Week's Weather

Chicago—(AP)—Weather outlook for the period of March 6 to March 11. Great Lakes: Considerable snow or rain during the week, with temperature mostly near normal.

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys and northern and central great plains: Considerable snow in north and rain in south portions during the week; temperature mostly near normal in north, and near or above normal in south portions.

'Tolerance Meeting' Held in New York In Answer to Bund

New York—(AP)—Civic leaders led by Mayor LaGuardia defended America's democratic liberties last night at a "tolerance meeting" held in reply to the Washington birthday rally of the German-American Bund.

The stocky little mayor, who last month granted the bund permission to hold its rally on the ground that all factions were entitled to freedom of speech and assembly, told a crowd of more than 3,000 that overfilled Carnegie hall:

"I believe in exposing the cooties to the sunlight, and we recently had an exhibition of international cooties."

LaGuardia, a wartime flier, said he was not fearful of nazism gaining ground in New York but "the people of the world cannot be safe as long as any country is controlled by irresponsible dictators."

2 Convicted of Extortion Plot

Drews and Wittenberg
Sentences are Deferred
Until Monday

Milwaukee—(AP)—Walter A. Drews, 51, chief investigator for the state board of health, and attorney Michael M. Wittenberg, 41, today faced imprisonment up to two years and fines up to $500 upon their conviction of extortion.

Sentence was deferred until Monday to permit attorneys to argue motions for retrial.

Circuit Judge Schurz, who heard the case without jury, said there was "a common purpose and design by Drews and Wittenberg" to attempt to obtain $2,000 from Dr. Leland Trump, Milwaukee physician.

The two were accused of attempting to obtain the money through suppression of a pending report to the state board of health which purported to show Dr. Trump had agreed to perform illegal operations on two of Drews' women deputies.

Judge Schurz said Drews' testimony was not worth belief, and that Wittenberg completed the extortion by taking a diamond ring and $30 from Dr. Trump "as part payment."

Wittenberg, although pleading innocent, was a state witness.

"The act of one," the judge said, "was the act of the other."

Find Evidence of Gambling, Liquor Traffic in Prison

Columbus, Ohio—(AP)—An investigation of Ohio penitentiaries, which precipitated the suspension last Thursday of Warden James C. Woodward, disclosed evidence of gambling and traffic in liquor and narcotics, welfare department officials asserted today.

Acting Warden W. F. Amrine declined to discuss what information concerning gambling and liquor had been uncovered, but reliable sources indicated convicts had been able to purchase liquor within the walls by the pint bottle, that dice games and poker games were conducted by convicts, and that narcotics were peddled.

Amrine, state superintendent of corrections who took charge of the 105-year-old prison housing 4,200 convicts after a five week inquiry ordered by Welfare Director Charles L. Sherwood, also declared a huge but undetermined number of state records were burned at the penitentiary before former Governor Marvin L. Dwyer left office on Jan. 8.

Sherwood, who launched the investigation the day after Republican Governor John W. Bricker took office, said the suspension was for "disciplinary purposes."

Can't Ignore Perse- cution Abroad, President States

NOT 'PASSIVE'

Declares Nation Ready to Act 'by Every Peaceful Means'

Washington—(AP)—President Roosevelt served notice today the United States would not be passive and silent about the persecution of religion in lands where democracy had been snuffed out.

Instead, he told the congress and a host of representatives of foreign powers, this nation would seek "by every peaceful means" to keep religious and personal freedom alive.

Addressing a joint session of the senate and house in commemoration of the first session of congress 150 years ago, Mr. Roosevelt denounced the return to the world in recent years "of forms of government which for two thousand years have proved their tyranny and their instability."

The United States, with many other democracies, will never approvingly watch this return to "personal rule," he declared, continuing:

Right To Worship
"Where democracy is snuffed out there, too, the right to worship God in one's own way is circumscribed or abrogated. Shall we by our passiveness, by our silence, by assuming the attitude of the Levites who pulled their skirts together and passed by on the other side, lend encouragement to those who today persecute religion or deny it?"

"The answer to that 'No,' just as in the days of the first congress of the United States it was 'No.'"

"Not for freedom of religion alone does this nation contend by every peaceful means. We believe in the other freedoms of the bill of rights, the other freedoms that are inherent in the right of free choice by free men and women."

Diplomats Present
Justices of the supreme court, many high officials of the governments and members of congress listened to the speech in the house chamber, while millions more heard it by radio.

Returning to the capital this morning on the sixth anniversary of his first inaugural, the president was tanned and apparently rested from a Caribbean cruise that enabled him to watch the United States fleet engage in mock battle and defense off the Atlantic coast.

In his speech he called upon the government to "act as a whole" for the good of the country. And,

Congressmen From Wisconsin Ignore House Tradition

All but Johns and Murray Have Taken Floor to Back Measures

Washington—(AP)—The eighth neophyte members of Wisconsin's congressional delegation are displaying a lack of reverence for the aged congressional custom which decrees new congressmen should be seen but not heard on the floor.

A review of the first nine weeks of congress disclosed Wisconsin Republicans have discussed in the house subjects ranging from communism to the fishing in Guam harbors and from the farm problem to fascism.

Only Representatives Joshua L. Johns of Algoma and Reid F. Murray of Waupaca have failed to take the floor to air their grievances or urge support of favored legislation.

The usual custom for a new congressman is to confer with his elders on legislation, write innumerable letters to committee meetings, regularly submit legislation embodying campaign platforms and remain out of the well of the house. More staid members say Wisconsin's contribution to the new congress is apparently in outstanding revolt against that usage.

"Intend to be heard," remarked Congressman Charles Hawkins, Jr. of Horicon, when he first arrived. He proved prophetic.

Hawkins has taken the floor three times. He urged a $300,000 increase over the budget recommendation for the forest products laboratory at Madison. He warned the house against including the great number of German-American citizens not interested in the so-called German "bund" when speaking of that organization. He opposed appropriation of $3,000,000 to improve naval facilities at Guam.

Hawkins carried to the house appropriations committee his suggested increase in the forest laboratory's budget. This week he appeared before the house agriculture committee to urge recommendation of his bill to provide for cost of production for farm produce.

Congressman Frank B. Keefe of Oshkosh spoke twice. He warned Democrats to seek carefully the re-election of the November election and then vote for revision of the farm program, relief administration, and tightening of federal purse strings. He, too, warned against "inflammatory" criticism of German-Americans and suggested investigators turn their attention toward communist activities.

Schafer Busy
Congressman John C. Schafer of Milwaukee is one of Wisconsin's busiest on the house floor. Engaged in constant alterations across the aisle, Schafer enjoys himself most heckling the administration and exposing what he terms communistic activities. Over his fellows he has the advantage of serving previously in congress.

His colleagues call Congressman Stephen Bolles of Janesville the wit of their delegation and quote his speech on the Isle of Guam to prove it. It was a "lesson in geography," according to Bolles and many have clipped it from the record for reference.

Congressman Harry W. Griswold of West Salem, chose a strategic moment to propose that congressmen regulate new business and encourage industry to expand by withholding enforcement of many recently enacted measures. A few days later, administration spokesmen promised full support for his business, crises, shorts, jackets and night clothing. Work on spring garments will be started by the seamstresses April 1. The shoe repairman employed under the project mended 61 pairs of shoes during the period.

Republican leaders have lent every support to the desire of Badger state representatives to be in the thick of things, and Wisconsin congressmen collectively have determined to take advantage of the opportunity.

Make 373 Garments on WPA Sewing Project

Women on the county WPA sewing project at the old post office building completed the making of 373 garments during the last two weeks, according to Mrs. H. J. Driscoll, supervisor. The allotment consisted of pants, dresses, shorts, jackets and night clothing. Work on spring garments will be started by the seamstresses April 1. The shoe repairman employed under the project mended 61 pairs of shoes during the period.

Conservation Clubs Discuss Fund Appropriated by Board

Waupaca—Directors of conservation clubs throughout the county met in the gymnasium of the Waupaca High school Thursday evening to discuss the voter's expenditure of the appropriation of the $2,500 from the county board. More than forty were present.

George Stevens, secretary of the Clintonville Fish and Game club, acted as chairman of the meeting and will continue to act in that capacity at other meetings which will be held during the year. While he group will meet regularly they will not form a permanent organization at the present.

Reports from three conservationists who were in Madison Monday to discuss bills now before the legislature which are of importance to fish and game clubs were heard. The men were Dr. A. M. Christ-

Orders Attorney to Pay $446 Collected In Rents and Profits

Waupaca—Circuit Judge George Leitch in an opinion has found that Giles Putnam, New London attorney and receiver for the Breckstone building, New London, kept loose and unbusinesslike records and ordered him to pay Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herman, Chippewa Falls, who hold a mortgage on the building, $446.15 plus interest from Dec. 2, 1937.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman in circuit court recently asked that Putnam give an accounting of rents and profits on the building and it was found that Putnam was short that amount.

Brotherhood Will Launch Series of Evening Services

Old Hymns, Short Sermons Will Feature Lenten Programs

The first of a series of special Sunday evening services to be sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood of First Baptist church will take place tomorrow night at the church. They will be held weekly during March and April. Services will consist of the singing of old favorite hymns, special musical features and a short message by the Rev. R. H. Spangler, pastor, on subjects suggested through a question box which will be placed in the church for that purpose.

A communion service will take place at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at the Baptist church, and the sermon will be entitled "Jesus Served."

Dr. Thomas S. Kepler, professor of Bible and religion at Lawrence college, will again supply in the pulpit at Memorial Presbyterian church Sunday morning as the pastor, the Rev. Robert K. Belk is convalescing from the flu. Dr. Kepler's subject will be "The Eloquence of Silence."

Candlelight Investiture
Pilgrim Fellowship of First Congregational church will have a candlelight investiture of members and officers at 7 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mumme, 905 Winona way. The program will be on "Eligette in Egypt" and the specific subject will be "The Teen Age and Manners at Home." Dr. Thomas N. Barrows, president of Lawrence college, will lead the discussion on "What is Preparedness for Democracy?" before Dr. John B. Hanna's group on social and economic problems for the University of Life, college organization, Sunday night at First Methodist church.

At the morning service Sunday at the Congregational church, Dr. Hanna will preach on "The Ideal of God."

"The Virtue of Simplicity" is the subject of a sermon to be given by Dr. Harry C. Culver, pastor, at First Methodist church tomorrow morning. The M. S. M. club of young people will have the first of a series of fireside meetings at 8 o'clock Sunday night at the Culver home, 54 Bellvue court.

Zion Lutheran church will celebrate holy communion in both English and German services Sunday morning. The sermon by the Rev. Theodore Marth, pastor, will be "O Woman, Great is Thy Faith." "The True Bread of Life" is the topic to be presented by the Rev. A. Guenther, pastor, at St. John Evangelical and Reformed church Sunday morning.

At Emmanuel Evangelical church Sunday the Rev. G. H. Blum, pastor, will speak on "Tomorrow in Prophecy," while at Trinity English Lutheran church the Rev. D. E. Bosserman, pastor, will talk on "The Sure Foundation." "Qualified Through Suffering" is the subject of the sermon to be given by the Rev. F. C. Reuter at First English Lutheran church.

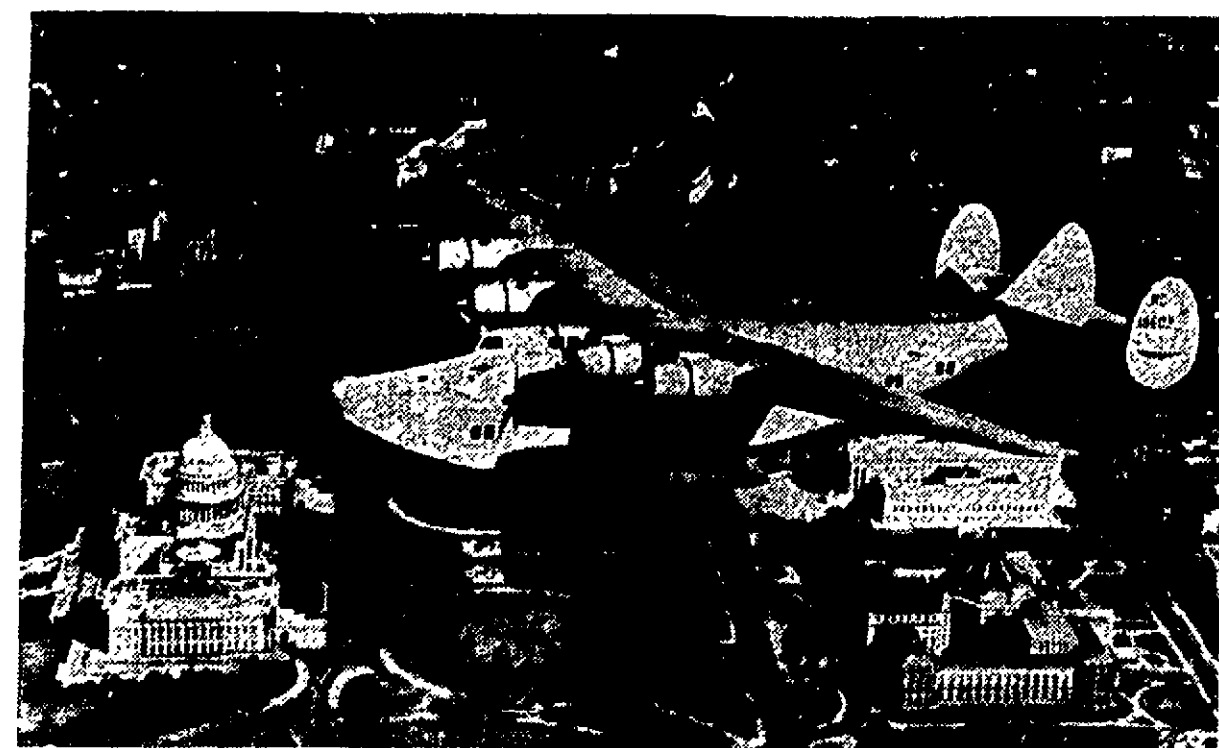

The True Christian Faith Exemplified by the Canaanite Woman" is the subject of the sermon to be given by the Rev. R. E. Ziesemer, pastor of Mt. Olive Lutheran church, Sunday morning. At New Appleton Tabernacle the Rev. G. H. Bauerlein will speak in the afternoon when a communion service and missionary Sunday will be observed, on "Sowing Without Fainting." In the evening he will preach on "The Present Unemployment Situation in the Light of Bible Prophecy."

"Many" is the subject of the lesson-sermon for Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Jacobson Manager of Auto Acceptance Firm

Dave Jacobson has been appointed new local manager of the Auto Acceptance and Loan corporation. The corporation has moved into new offices in Room 1, Specter building.

Mrs. Harry Krueger, route 3, Weyauwega, who underwent an operation at St. Elizabeth hospital, is convalescing at the home of Louis Wolf, 722 W. Winnebago street.

74 PASSENGER "YANKEE CLIPPER" SALUTES CAPITOL

The huge new 74-passenger "Yankee Clipper" is shown in this remarkable aerial picture as it winged its way over the United States Capitol in Washington on its way to the Naval Air Station to be christened by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The clipper being the flagship of America's new merchant marine of the air. This picture was made from a Navy plane which escorted the Clipper on its flight from Baltimore. Capitol is at lower left; Library of Congress, lower right; white marble Supreme Court Building, just above it; Union Station, above wing of clipper; City Post Office, just to left of wing.

Nation Ready to Guard Freedom, Roosevelt Says

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

representative democracy and those reversions to personal rule which have characterized these recent years."

He compared the American right of trial by jury with "some processes of trial and punishment which of late have re-incarnated the 'justice' of the dark ages."

Under democracy, the president continued, Americans enjoy safety against unwarrantable searches and seizures, freedom to assemble and petition the congress, freedom of speech—which he said had never been so widely exercised as now—freedom of the press and freedom of religion.

Because of the mildness of our laws of libel and slander, he said, freedom of speech goes unchecked except by the good sense of the American people.

Right to Criticize
"Any person is constitutionally entitled to criticize and call to account the highest and the lowest in the land—save only in one exception. For it is noted that the Constitution itself protects senators and representatives and provides that for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place." And the immunity is not carefully not extended to either the chief justice or the president."

He said he took it that "no sensible man or woman" believed that freedom of the press had been curtailed or threatened or that it should be.

"Representative democracy will never tolerate suppression of true news at the behest of government."

Horlick Files Claim Of $136,000 Against His Sister's Estate

Racine—(AP)—County court records revealed today that William Horlick, Jr., has filed a claim for $136,380 against the estate of his sister, the late Mrs. Maybelle Horlick Sidley.

Executors of Mrs. Sidley's will filed objections to the claim yesterday.

The Sidley will was attacked in county court recently by the testatrix's son, William Horlick Sidley. While the hearing was underway, an out of court settlement was reached by its terms, W. Perkins Bull, Toronto lawyer, renounced his claim to a one-third share of the residuary estate. Mrs. Sidley's holdings were valued at between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000.

Horlick asks reimbursement for various loans he claims he made to his sister from 1929 to 1938.

The executors object on the ground Horlick's claim does not give sufficient information, is not solid and that items totalling $91,691 are barred by the statute of limitations.

A hearing on the claim is scheduled for March 28.

Commission Will Hear Bus Firm Application

An application for amendment to a common motor carrier certificate of the Fox River Bus company, 1002 W. Summer street, Appleton, will be heard by the state public service commission at the Waupaca county courthouse at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, March 14.

The application is to operate as a common motor carrier of passengers over the following route: Highway 54 from Waupaca to its junction with Highway 51; thence on highway 51 to Stevens Point. No service proposed between Stevens Point and Plover, or between Stevens Point or Plover on the one hand and Junction of United States Highway 51 and Wisconsin state Highway 54 on the other.

Catlin Appointment Lauded by Northern Wisconsin Senators

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison—Unanimous approval of Governor Heil's selection of Mark Catlin, Sr., of Appleton for a berth on the state conservation commission was expressed here yesterday by northeastern Wisconsin members of the Wisconsin state senate. Confirmation of Catlin's appointment will be on the senate calendar some time next week.

It was pointed out that Catlin will be the first member of the conservation commission from the immediate Fox River valley area since Governor Fred R. Zimmerman more than a decade ago chose A. W. Icks of Green Bay for that body.

"I have had quite a lot to do with conservation and I have always admired Mr. Catlin as a sincere conservationist," said Senator Ernest Sauld of Pembine, (D), whose northwestern district has a big stake in the activities of the conservation department.

"He is one of the pioneers, one of the men responsible for the citizens of the state having become as conscious and interested in conservation as they are today."

Senator Mike Mack of Shiocton, (R), characterized Heil's nomination as a "good appointment." He was gratified, he said, to see the valley area represented on the commission.

Senator Mike Kresky said that he does not know the Appleton man personally, but only by reputation. His work in Isaac Walton League circles and elsewhere, he said, qualifies him for the post.

Francis Yindra (D), senator from the lake shore counties, including Manitowish, said that he will approve the selection also. Yindra, however, is known to have felt pressure from his own district on behalf of several candidates for commission jobs.

Conservation commissioners are paid on a per diem basis, and receive their expenses. The six commissioners meet once a month, sometimes in Madison, but usually in other cities of the state. Governor Heil has three more members of the commission to appoint. It has been a traditional policy to name "three members representing northern Wisconsin, and three representing the southern counties."

Fireworks Law Before Council

New Ordinance Would Prohibit Sale and Use Of Fireworks in City

An ordinance prohibiting the sale and use of fireworks within the Appleton city limits will be introduced for passage at a meeting of the common council Wednesday evening, March 15.

The ordinance last week was referred to the ordinance committee and ordered published. The new law stipulates that it shall be unlawful for anyone to sell, loan, barter, deliver or give away fireworks in the city except with a permit. It also stipulates that it shall be unlawful to "use, fire, discharge, set off or ignite fireworks in the city."

However, special permission may be granted, under the law, to persons, firms or corporations for the purchase and use of fireworks at public gatherings provided an application is filed with the city clerk for a permit. The fire chief also must be satisfied the fireworks will be used properly at a public exhibition.

The penalty for shooting or selling fireworks in the city after conviction would be a $100 fine for each offense. The new ordinance repeals all previous ordinances dealing with fireworks.

Ghandi Continues His Hunger Strike During Second Day

Undercover Fight Reported Started Within French Cabinet

By the Associated Press
Clashes of interests and ideals in far-scattered corners of the world today caused a hunger strike, discord in a cabinet and conquest of a city.

In Rajkot, India, frail, ascetic Mahatma K. Ghandi, leader of millions of Indians, entered the second day of his "fast unto death" to persuade the native ruler of Rajkot state to introduce government reforms.

The health minister of the Bombay presidency flew there to watch the health of the little man who, having slept peacefully on a cot in the moonlight outside his hut, showed no ill effects so far.

In Paris, an undercover fight in the French cabinet over what political sources described as a "violent attack by Colonial Minister Georges Mandel on Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet was brought into the open.

Censures Bonnet
Mandel was said to have censured Bonnet sharply for what it was said, he charged was Bonnet's "nothing" diplomacy in handling France's delicate relations with land-hungry Japan and Italy.

Political observers believed it possible the issue might bring to a head often-reported dissension between two blocs in Premier Daladier's cabinet, one supporting and one attacking Bonnet's policies.

A Japanese pilot, it was said in Shanghai, reported capture by Japanese forces of Hainan, last Chinese-held port north of Shanghai and coastal terminus of the great Lunghai railroad. This was the claim of a big Japanese mopping-up drive in Kiangsu province, nominally Japanese-conquered territory.

In Rome, "Vittorio Gayda," fascist chief newspaper spokesman, linked Poland's colonial aspirations with those of Italy and Germany. His comment was seen in some quarters as confirmation of earlier reports that one of the objects of the just-ended visit of Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano to Warsaw was to build a solid front in Italian-German-Polish colonial campaign.

Rumanian's Visit
At the same time, Rumanian Foreign minister Grigore Gafencu arrived in Poland. He was the third foreign minister to go to Warsaw this year to confer with Polish Foreign Minister Colonel Joseph Beck, following Count Ciano and Joachim von Ribbentrop of Germany.

High officers of the Spanish nationalist army arrived in the University City sector where 28-month-old siege lines run through Madrid. Nationalists, reviving "loud-speaker hostilities," warned the republican troops that Madrid would be generalissimo Francisco Franco's whenever he gave the order.

In Vatican City, Pope Pius XII saw members of his hierarchy and began the regular routine of administering the vast affairs of the Holy Roman church to whose throne he was elected Thursday.

The Spanish nationalist government asked French approval of the nomination of Jose Felix Lequerica, mayor of Bilbao, as its first ambassador to Paris. France was expected to approve the nomination promptly.

In the Nazi-dominated Free City of Danzig a senate ordinance made all speeded-up Jewish emigration. An order provided for grouping Danzig's 6,000 Jews under a "joint liability" system by which the wealthier ones would help pay for the emigration of the poorer.

Appleton Senior School Grads Rank High at Colleges

Grades of Appleton High school graduates now studying at colleges and universities indicate that their high school training was a satisfactory one. Reports on former students have been coming to the office from institutions of higher learning throughout the country.

In Wapawan, J. J. Laupha with credit working at Amesbury with credit and distinction. Northwestern university has sent a creditable report on the work of Sansee Courtney, while Kay Rogers has been doing "A" and "B" work at Harvard university.

In a class of 211 Florence Koehler stands fifteenth at Stout institute, and La Vern Krosch's ranking is thirty-third. Twenty-four of the 104 Appleton graduates now studying at Lawrence college received no grade lower than a "B." They are Ruth Barnes, Dorothy Blake, Kenneth Buesing, Karl Cast, Janet Fulinwider, Audrey Galpin, Donald Gerlach, Frank Hammer, Henry Johnson, Ruth Mewaldt, Lawrence Piette, Mona Quell, Judson Rosebush, Marion Rule, Kenneth Sager, Edwin Shannon, Frederick Swanson, Mary Weeks, Betty White, Mary White, Annabelle Wolfe, Dexter Wolfe and Letty Younger.

Grand Chute Extends Time for Paying Taxes

Town of Grand Chute taxpayers may pay their 1938 real estate taxes up to July 1 provided they file an affidavit of inability to pay with the town treasurer on or before March 15, Ray Feuerstein, treasurer, announced today. However, personal property tax must be paid before taking out an affidavit for the extension on the real estate tax. About 75 per cent of the $53,000 tax roll has been collected.

The time extension for the payment of real estate taxes was made possible by a law recently passed by the state legislature.

Pneumonia Is Fatal to Girl With Tack in Lung

Oshkosh—(AP)—Lois Barnard, 19, in whose lung a thumb tack was imbedded for more than 11 years, died yesterday of pneumonia. Presence of the tack was discovered by a physician in December, 1937. The girl was taken to Milwaukee for treatment, but efforts to remove the tack were unsuccessful.

Stanley Warner Elected Head of Gateway Chapter

Board of Directors Have Meeting at Clintonville School

GIRL SLAIN

Hazelina Black (above), 13, a junior high school student, strangled by a cord and brutally clubbed, was found dead in her home in Oklahoma City, Okla. Dr. John Roddy fixed the time of her death at about noon. The girl's stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Seharber, found the body when they returned to their home about 6 p. m.

Clintonville — Stanley Warner was elected president of Gateway chapter of the National Aeronautic association at a meeting of the board of directors at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon at their club room at Hotel Marston. Fred Gansen was chosen vice president, Donald Olen, secretary, and Max Stieg, treasurer. Officers during 1938, the first year of the local chapter, included: Lloyd Bauer, president; Reuben Lendved, vice president; Arthur Rice, secretary; and Fred Gansen, treasurer.

Archie Towle, state governor of the NAA and manager of the Alcoa and airport at Wausau, will be the principal speaker at the regular monthly meeting of Gateway chapter Thursday evening at Hotel Marston.

Under the sponsorship of the local NAA chapter, the Gateway Model Airplane club was recently organized under the direction of William Shivelier. Club members meet twice a week from 7 to 10 o'clock Tuesday and Friday evenings at the club room at Hotel Marston to work on their models. Officers elected last week are: Arthur Drum, president; Jack De Courvin, vice president; Phyllis Boeve, secretary; William Shivelier, treasurer; and Milton Colden, supervisor. Membership in the club is open to both boys and girls and there are no age requirements. It is the aim of the club to build airplane models showing the progress of aviation since the time of the Wright brothers. At present a 1911 model is the oldest one under construction. It is planned to hold a local model airplane contest in May, and another contest in June when Wausau youths will be invited to join in the competition. It is expected that within another week or two the club will have 15 members.

Mrs. Max Stieg and Mrs. James Sorenson were hostesses to their Birthday club Friday afternoon at the Stieg home on N. Main street. The tables of bridge were followed by a luncheon. The decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. High honors at each table went to Mrs. Reuben Lendved, Mrs. William H. Schultz and Mrs. George Spiegel.

The Leisure Hour club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Clarence Topp at the Parkview home. Three tables of bridge were in play, after which a luncheon was served.

About eighty persons were present at a covered supper held Thursday afternoon following a regular meeting of the Dorcas society at the Congregational church. Mrs. H. B. Dodge was chairman of the supper which was open to the public.

At the next meeting of the Dorcas society on April 6 there will be an apron and food sale, according to plans made at the business meeting Thursday.

A son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nehring, who reside on Wausau street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arnold Korb of route 1 are the parents of a daughter born recently at the New London Community hospital. Mrs. Korb was Miss Ruth Yeager before her marriage.

Forensic Contest To Be Held Mar. 10 At Roosevelt School

For the first time in 14 years, a declamation contest will be held for pupils of Roosevelt Junior high school, scheduled, according to Charles Hogue, coach. The winner will receive a loving cup donated by the school dramatic club. The contest will be held Friday, March 10.

Five girls will compete in the contest. The contestants and their subjects are: Shirley Foreman, "The Surgeon," Betty Greb, "The Prize Rouser," Joyce Kessler, "The Clown," Ann Mitchell, "For Valor," and Marjorie Rogers, "Major Joylent." Lesselovog and Jean Randall earned honorable mention for reaching the semi-finals. Fourteen girls entered the preliminary contest and all but five were eliminated in the trials.

Judges for the contest will be Miss Genevieve Kronschnabel and Merwyn Clough. Herzog is coaching the participants.

Make Survey on Use Of Harbor Facilities

The Milwaukee office of the United States War department is making a survey of the number of small craft now using harbor facilities at Oshkosh, on Lake Winnebago and tributary waters as part of a report on desired federal harbor improvements for recreation craft in Miller Bay, Oshkosh.

Appleton boat owners have received a request from the office to supply the data. The proposed improvements of the bay include a breakwater construction and dredging.

Firemen Put Out $75 Roof Fire at House

Damage of about $75 was caused by a roof fire at the home of Henry Nitzband, 515 N. Wood street, at 5:15 yesterday afternoon. The blaze started from chimney sparks. Firemen put out the blaze with 30 gallons of chemical. They spent a half hour on the call.

COMMITTEE TO MEET
Members of the county highway commission will meet Monday morning at the highway office in the courthouse. Usual business will be considered.

Be A Careful Driver

BUICK "80" ALL WEATHER PHAETON

Beautiful "Diana Cream" color. Side Mounts in DeLuxe metal cases, Extra large heater, Radio and every DeLuxe accessory.

THIS BEAUTIFUL CAR LOOKS LIKE BRAND NEW.

This bargain was over $2000.00 new NOW $575.00

Easy terms - - Will Trade

See GEORGE SCHWAB

GIBSON COMPANY Inc.

Appleton, Wis.

Needn't Worry Over Title to River Property

LeFevre Tells Commission That Transfer Waits On Present Dispute

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—Conceding that "there are some restrictions" under the terms of the city of Kaukauna's utility contract with the Green Bay and Mississippi Canal company, Joseph LeFevre, municipal utility attorney, today told the Wisconsin public service commission that "the city cannot generate its own power so long as the Green Bay and Mississippi Canal company can furnish it at a reasonable rate."

LeFevre's statement was made in his written brief to the commission following rehearing in the dispute in Kaukauna over the city's "trade" of lands and water rights with the private utility for purpose of construction of a power dam.

Gerald Clifford, attorney for the protesting Citizens' Protective League, had charged that the restrictive contract gave the canal company virtually a monopoly in the generation of electricity in Kaukauna for the next quarter of a century due to the provision that the city continue to rent power from the company on the 1938 basis for that period of time.

"I am unable to follow the reasoning of the counsel's (Clifford's) brief, and I find that he construes the contract to suit his convenience," the city attorney said.

Need Approval
Moreover, he argued, any power development which the city may make comes under the jurisdiction of the state commission which is required to approve it by the issuance of an order certifying public convenience and necessity.

The commission, he went on, cannot pass on the contract itself, but can pass on its terms. "The contract is merely one of rates, which are adjustable every five years, either by argument between the parties, approved by the commission, or upon the commission's own motion."

Answering charges that the city's title to certain lands figuring in the deal would be faulty, LeFevre said that the canal company is ready to transfer the title, but that it has been waiting for the current dispute to be settled before doing so. "Counsel (Clifford) need not fear that the city will not obtain title to the lands, riparian rights, and flowage rights, in so far as they are needed and useful for power purposes," LeFevre assured the commission.

It is the commission's job, he said, to determine whether the utility contract is fair to the parties, not to say whether it is legal.

Hearing Not Needed
Referring to charges that the city and the commission acted improperly in failing to make public notice of hearing on revised plans for the power dam, LeFevre said that such notice and hearing was not necessary because the new dam site was merely an extension of the old one.

That a referendum was legally required before the city council and the utility commission could proceed with the development plans has been the contention of H. F. McAndrews, attorney for the city council. To this LeFevre replies that the development is not an extension of a plant already owned by the city utility commission, and not a new project, does not require a popular vote.

All rules and regulations were complied with by the city, he concluded, the objectors have not presented any new points of law, problems, or testimony, and the commission's original order of approval should stand.

Kaukauna Churches

TRINITY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH, corner Glickson and Tabor streets, the Rev. Paul Th. Oehlert, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30, English service, 9:15, German service, 10:30.

BROKAW MEMORIAL METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, corner Portier and Catherine streets, the Rev. L. F. Green, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30, morning worship, 10:45. Sermon subject, "The World Is My Parish." Lenten services, 7 o'clock. Sermon subject, "Jesus Divine."

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Crooks avenue, the Rev. L. F. Green, pastor. Morning worship, 9 o'clock. Sunday school, 10:15. Sermon subject, "The World Is My Parish." Tuesday, 7:30, Lenten services at the home of Frank Koehne.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY, clubrooms, public library. Sunday school, 9:45, church services, 10:45. Sermon subject, "Man."

IMMANUEL EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH, corner Sullivan and Sixth streets, the Rev. John Scheib, minister. Mission band Sunday, 9 o'clock. Worship hour, 10 o'clock. Text, Matthew, 7:15, "Beware of false prophets." Theme, "Healthy Skepticism."

KAUKAUNA GOSPEL TABERNACLE, W. Wisconsin avenue, the Rev. L. A. Clevenger, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30, morning worship, 10:45, evening worship, 7:45.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH, corner Seventh street and Hendricks avenue, the Rev. Alphonse Roder, pastor, the Rev. John Haen, assistant. Low mass, 5 o'clock; low mass for children, 7 o'clock; high mass, 9 o'clock, low mass 11:30. Sunday, 3 o'clock, Lenten devotions and benediction.

HOLY CROSS CATHOLIC CHURCH, corner Doly and Devoey streets, the Rev. A. Garthaus, pastor, the Rev. H. Schroeder, assistant. Low masses, 5 and 7 o'clock, low mass for children, 8:30, high mass, 10 o'clock.

WIN MAJOR BOWLING LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Kaukauna—The Hakbarth Tavern bowlers pictured above were crowned Major league champions as the loop wound up its season this week. In the front row are Karl Kuchelmeister and Fred Hakbarth, with Jack Burton, Leo King and Floyd Driessen in back. Burton set the high individual mark for the year with a 713 series. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Kaukauna Masons Will Move Into New Quarters Monday

Kaukauna — Free and Accepted Masons, Kaukauna Lodge No. 233, will move into their new temple on E. Second street Monday evening, and arrange at that time to formally dedicate the new quarters with a program on Thursday, April 13.

An afternoon and evening program will be held on that day, according to Herman A. Baier, master, with officials from the grand lodge attending. Monday evening a 6:30 dinner will precede the meeting. The Master Mason degree will be conferred. The new temple was formerly the Vaudeville theater, purchased in November and renovated the last two months.

The annual thank offering meeting of Women's Foreign Missionary

Bayorgeon Leads Major Pin League

Takes Season Scoring Championship With
Average of 191

Kaukauna — With an average of 191 Amay Bayorgeon takes the individual championship in the Major bowling league, according to final statistics released by Fred Hakbarth, secretary. Following Bayorgeon is Robert Martzahl and Henry Minkebig, both with marks of 187.

Those next in line are Jack Burton, 183; Floyd Driessen, 183; Carl Hilgenberg, 183; E. Sager, 182; Bill Baier, 180; Jack Hilgenberg, 179; E. A. Kalupa, 178; Leo King, 178; Charles Schell, 178; Leo Zarter, 177; Carl Engstrom, 175; B. Cuene, 175; Leo Driessen, 174; Fred Hakbarth, 172; S. Vandersteen, 172; A. Ashauer, 171, and Ray Gertz, 170.

The Schell alley five, which finished in a tie for third place, led all teams with an average of 890, followed by Hakbarth's Tavern, 884; Gertz Tavern, 876; Miller High Life, 869; D and I Sales, 852, and Ritz Tavern, 789.

The Miller High Life collected the high team series with 2,993, with Schell's backing up 1,055 for high singles game. Individually Jack Burton pounded the maples for a record 713 on 245, 245 and 223, and E. Sager collected a 268 line.

Commission Will Go To League Gathering

Kaukauna—Members of the city athletic commission will attend a Northern State basketball league meeting Sunday afternoon at Beaumont hotel, Green Bay. Franchise money of $100 is slated to be deposited. The circuit is an 8-team league, with five of the cities having lights for night games.

Arnold Vander Loop Seeks Aldermanic Job

Kaukauna—Arnold Vander Loop, W. Wisconsin avenue, yesterday announced he would be a candidate for First ward alderman in the April election. Vander Loop, who ran unsuccessfully in 1938, is so far opposed by Chris Kindler, Jr., incumbent.

Holy Cross Play to be Staged at Sanatorium

Kaukauna—Holy Cross CYO will present its 3-act comedy, "Introducing on Horace," at Riverview sanatorium Thursday evening, March 16, and at St. Nicholas church auditorium in Freedom Friday, March 17. James W. Lang is director of the play, presented to a capacity audience here two weeks ago.

RECEIVES MAPS
A supply of new state maps has been received at the county highway office in the courthouse, according to Arnold Krueger, highway commissioner. They may be obtained upon request.

48 New Volumes Added at Library

Circulation During February Drops 305 From January Figure

Kaukauna—Forty-eight new volumes were added to the Kaukauna public library shelves during February, making a total of 7,975 now available, according to Miss Bernice M. Happer, librarian. Circulation for the month was 4,299, a decrease of 305 under January.

Of the books withdrawn 1,433 were juvenile volumes and 2,866 for adults. Fifty-six new readers registered, with the files now listing 2,450.

Included in the February acquisitions are "Photography for Fun and Money," by Collins; "Lighting Ideas in Photography," by Herrschaft; "Standard Postage Stamp Catalog," "Who's Who in America," "How Man Made Music," by Buchanan; "Inside Europe," by Gunther; "Miracle of Haworth," by White; "Book of Opus," by Krehbiel; "Psychology of the Adolescent," by Hollingsworth; "Upper Mississippi," by Havighurst; "Masterpieces of Mystery," by Poe; "Clay Acres,"

Springtime is HOT WATER time!

● Gardening and cleaning time means more baths... when you want them... without waiting for hot water from the old-fashioned heating equipment.

● Housecleaning too, will require extra gallons of truly hot water to help lighten the task.

SPRING IS ON THE WAY!
Get ready now for your spring cleaning jobs by installing Automatic Electric Hot Water Service.

LET a HOTPOINT Electric Water Heater
Put a "Spring Song" in Your Work!

WISCONSIN MICHIGAN
POWER COMPANY
OR YOUR WATER HEATER DEALER

Purchase of Squad Car to be Studied At Joint Meeting

Committee Will Report Action on Proposal To Council

Kaukauna—The fire and police committee of the common council will meet with the fire and police commission at 8 o'clock Monday evening in the council rooms to discuss the feasibility of purchasing a police car.

The committee is slated to report back to the council at its regular meeting Tuesday evening. Aldermen and city officials have been invited by Alderman Al Hartshorn, committee chairman, to attend the meeting and contribute any suggestions that may occur to them.

The car whose purchase is contemplated will not be a regular squad car, but one that will be at the service of the department 24 hours a day. Kaukauna is not yet a "racketeering city" as a councilman said Tuesday, and can get along without steel bodies, bullet proof glass and other squad car appurtenances.

The last time the fire and police commission was asked to recommend a purchase or non-purchase it did not favor the acquisition. Some of the aldermen wished to go over the commission's heads Tuesday and take council action without another recommendation, but on the objections of Aldermen Raymond Nagel, Frank Fernal and Otto M. Ludtke decided to hear the commission's opinion at the next meeting.

Scouts Competing in Contests at Menasha

Kaukauna—Boy scouts of Holy Cross Troop No. 31 are competing today at the Butte Des Morts school, Menasha, in final and semi-final first aid contests for the valley council. In the finals Kaukauna is competing with teams from Kimberly, Appleton and Menasha. The Holy Cross troop won a preliminary contest at Kimberly recently.

Games in Basketball League are Postponed

Kaukauna—City basketball league contests scheduled tonight and tomorrow have been postponed, according to James T. Judd, league president. Final games of the second half slate will be run off next weekend.

NEW GOLD FIELD
Bombay—Gold has been discovered near Godhra and the Indian Government has granted a mining lease over five square miles. A research syndicate is satisfied the deposits are workable.

by Fischer: "Yoke of Stars," by Frost; "Disputed Passage," by Douglas; "Grudge Mountain," by Torburn; "Skin Deep," by Kelland, and "Wuthering Heights," by Bronte.

Sensational
ACTUAL EXPERIENCES
of America's Ace of Aces,
EDDIE RICKENBACKER

Death
IN THE Sky!

Tells You What the Next War May Be Like!
An Exclusive Feature IN THIS SUNDAY'S
CHICAGO SUNDAY TRIBUNE

● Now it can be told! The TRUTH—the actual experiences of a daring airplane pilot fighting death in the sky! How he learned to fly... how he rode miles above the earth in search of the enemy... how he brought down his first plane... how machine gun bullets riddled the cockpit of his plane... his victories over 25 enemy planes and balloons... the danger and T-H-R-I-L-L of it all!

● These actual experiences of America's daring Ace of Aces, Eddie Rickenbacker, now are fully told in an exclusive feature article starting in this Sunday's Chicago Sunday Tribune.

● If you want to know how the next war may be fought, the problems of aerial warfare, all the details of daily fighting up in the clouds, don't miss this sensational TRUE ACCOUNT of America's Ace Pilot—starting in this Sunday's Chicago Sunday Tribune. It's a special feature in the Graphic Section and is accompanied by a full page illustration in full color.

With This Sunday's Chicago
Sunday Tribune
10¢ PAY NO MORE

Democrats Face Crucial Period, Lawrence States

Only Substantial Recovery Will Prevent Political Change

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Washington—Strange are the events which mark the sixth anniversary of the induction into office of President Roosevelt.

On the domestic scene is a movement, almost feverish in its intensity, to bring about a real understanding between government and business. There is no readiness to repeal reform measures, but every readiness to correct them.

On the foreign side is a picture of inexcusable significance. The senate and house are approving the biggest military expenditures since the World War. A determined majority of over-whelming proportions insists that America shall take no step entangling the United States in war. And nobody here wants war.

The president's theory is that adequate armament will prevent war. Those who have been accusing him of cherishing political motives for 1940 by "dragging us into war" will find no corroboration among the Democrats here, most of whom see a bigger political advantage in having kept the peace and having saved the United States from war. If, by 1940, the chances of war have been considerably diminished, the Democrats will be claiming credit for having averted the catastrophe.

World Politics
The world continues to be a powerful force and influence in American policy. The belief that military and naval preparation on our part will bolster up the cause of the democracies is widely held here, notwithstanding the protestations on every side that no intention exists ever to send an army overseas.

But the most significant manifestation came during the last few days when the cardinals at Rome elected a new pope. Ordinarily, the government of the United States has little concern with such an event. There are no diplomatic relations between this government and the Vatican, and no special problems have arisen between them.

Yet the selection of a new pontiff meant more to the foreign policy of the United States than appears on the surface. The assurance that the constructive policies of the late pope would be continued by his successor has a distinct bearing on American efforts to maintain peace. The church at Rome has always been a tremendous force for peace, but at no time has it been more important to the democracies of the world than the great voice which has been speaking from Rome these last few years should not be hushed by the passing of a great statesman. The man who has been elected pope knew every detail of Vatican policy, every influence in the world for and against democratic institutions, and every aspect of the perplexing problems which make Catholics and non-Catholics the world over look with hope to the continuance of the messages of tolerance and good will which can come from the pen of the pontiff.

Vatican Policy
Perhaps it was the news that the totalitarian states are seeking to express through their puppet press, editorials, a wish for a different policy at the Vatican, if not a different kind of pope, which put the democracies on edge as the impending election was surveyed. The unanimity indicated by the shortness of the balloting and the selection of the man who was closest to the late pope caused a wave of gratification here. It can be seen from the unusual nature of the personal messages sent by President Roosevelt to the new pope, based, to be sure, on a recollection of the latter's visit to the United States, but significantly mentioning the personal relationship as if to convey the sense of relief felt here that Vatican policy will be unaltered.

In the background of apprehension about events abroad, the domestic situation in the United States is far from clear, the president had an opportunity to express the principles and implications of future policy on the occasion, this day, of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the meeting of the first congress. The coincidence of that birthday with the sixth anniversary of his inauguration gave Washington many a reason for retrospection.

Two kinds of review and appraisal—the personal and impersonal—filled the very air hereabouts. Partisans, political and economic, differed considerably in their evaluation of the Roosevelt record. But there was and is little difference of opinion about the importance of the next 18 months as the crucial period for the Democratic party—the period within which there must be a substantial recovery or political change will come again in 1940 in all branches of the government.

(Copyright, 1939)

April 6 Deadline for Writings in Contest

Manuscripts to be entered in the annual Lawrence college student competition for the best short story, essay and poem must be submitted to Warren F. Beck, professor of English, by April 6.

The essay contest is for the Alexander Reid prize and manuscripts must be between 1,000 and 2,000 words. The Hicks prizes are offered for the best short story and the best poem.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By Lichty

"I don't care what you've decided—we're not staying in tonight! My face is all made up!"

Electricity Valuable but Also Is Dangerous Servant

Although electricity is one of the most valuable servants to man, it must be watched and skillfully controlled by those who understand it, the Wisconsin Industrial commission said in a release today to Louis Luebke, city electrical inspector.

To prevent electrical fire hazards only use and buy standard and approved insulated electric wire fuses, equipment and appliances, the commission said. Such articles to insure their safe operation must be installed properly and used safely.

Overloading circuits in the home plant and office can cause a fire. A fuse or such wiring will not act as a safety valve and when an overload occurs, the fuse will blow out protecting the wires and giving a warning. In a home no fuse larger than 15 amperes should be used in a lighting circuit, the commission said. Never place a coin back of a fuse.

Frequently, because of carelessness in using extension cords, fires have been caused in places of employment and in homes, the commission warned. Extension cords never should be hung over nails, hooks, machines or allowed to lay in water on the floor. All wiring should be installed in accordance with the Wisconsin electrical code.

Bramans Entertain at Two Dinner Parties

Waupaca — Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Braman entertained at two dinner parties at the Anne of Green Gables tea room Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week. Their guests on Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Don Fallgatter, Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Patterson, Colonel and Mrs. William Holden, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bacher and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Darling. Bridge followed at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Holden at the Wisconsin Veterans Home.

The high couple prize was won by Dr. and Mrs. Patterson, second high by the Bachers and third by the Holdens.

Guests Wednesday evening were Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Christofferson, Dr. and Mrs. M. O. Boudry, Messrs. and Mesdames Paul Ostrom, Harry Rawson, John Hanson, and Mrs. Lester Emans and Mrs. Gray Czeskleba.

Bridge was played at the Christofferson home when high honors went to Mrs. Hanson and Mr. Rawson, second honors to Mrs. Czeskleba and Mr. Ostrom and Dr. Boudry receiving the consolation.

The American Legion auxiliary met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph High. Mrs. High was assisted as co-hostesses by Mesdames Carroll Barry and Harve Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woody entertained informally Wednesday evening at supper. Mrs. Carroll Crispy and the Messrs Katherine Korn, Pearl Weiss and Grace Muehl.

Services Announced At Church at Cicero

Cicero — There will be German services at Immanuel Lutheran church at 9:45 Sunday morning. English lenten services were held Wednesday evening at 7:45 at Immanuel Lutheran church.

A quilling party was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. August Quandt. Lunch was served.

Roosevelt Hiking Club Looks Forward To Spring Weather

After a winter of staying indoors and learning how to blaze trails, studying about wild life and first aid on the trail, members of the Roosevelt Junior High School Hiking club are looking forward to spring and the opportunities it will offer for hiking. Miss Mary Rogers is club sponsor.

Members of the club are Aldyth Dell, Bernice Eliason, Phyllis Elaine Kenyon, Jean Kintzle, Janet Metcalf, Elaine Meyer, Joyce Radtke, Dorothy Rippenhagen, Maree Sylvester, Virginia Vogt, Audrey Waltman, Charlotte Wentworth, Bertha Besch, Carrie Luedtke, June Luedtke, Dorothy Rosenberg and Fern Young.

Report Pupils Perfect In School Attendance

Four rural schools today reported pupils perfect in attendance during February. They are:

Coffey Bridge school, town of Deer Creek, Miss Marie Brisco, teacher, Wilma Young, Robert Bernard, Roman Ritchie, Leon Schneider, James Young and Mildred Young.

Underhill school, town of Grand Chute, Miss Frances Kronz, teacher. Ervin Ulman, Ethel Ulman, Willard Rohloff, Caroline Tackman, Ella Ulman and Bernice Hartke.

Columbia school, town of Grand Chute, Miss Caroline Kauth, teacher, Murch Lambie, Eugene Schroeder and Shirley Lecker.

Oak Leaf school, town of Seymour, Robert Winters, Lois Burmeister, Junior Bunkelman, Audrey Marsh, Victor Zaldivar, Delores Arnoldussen and Rachel Marsh.

Senior School Lunch Room to be Equipped

Appleton High school students soon will have a completely equipped lunch room in which to eat at noon for the equipment has been ordered and will be here within three weeks, according to officials. The cost will total about $6,500.

A cafeteria counter will be installed containing a cooling cabinet, glass filler, glass rack, counter cabinets, meat block and other facilities. The kitchen will be equipped with clean and soiled dish tables, a cooks table, sink, steel shelving garbage containers, dishes and utensils. A range, dishwashing machine, a mixing machine, a cooler and a refrigerator will complete the equipment.

February Average Temperature Under Figure for Last Year

The average temperature in Appleton during last month was nearly nine degrees colder than in February 1938, according to charts at the Wisconsin Michigan Power company. The average last month was 15.2 degrees while in February 1938 the average was 24.7 degrees.

The mercury went below zero eight days last month as compared with February 1938 when only two below zero temperatures were recorded. The coldest day last month was Feb. 11 when it was 10 degrees below zero; the year previous the thermometer registered 19 degrees below zero on Feb. 1.

The warmest day last month was Feb. 27 when the mercury rose to 38 degrees as compared with 40 degrees on Feb. 5 the previous year. Snowfall in the city last month measured 9.5 inches as compared with 7.5 inches in February 1938; however precipitation was 2.05 inches higher in February of last year than it was last month.

This last month was much clearer than February a year ago when there were only two days that were consistently clear. The sun shone without interruption eight days last month.

Seeking Probe of State Branch to 'Settle Rumors'

Gruszka Asks Investigation of Conservation Department

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—Assemblyman Anthony Gruszka of Mosinee (R), sponsor of a resolution in the legislature demanding a legislative investigation of the personnel, policies and activities of the state conservation department, said that his move is aimed not at slandering the present heads of that department or of "hurting the cause of conservation, but to settle once and for all the rumors which have been going around about the department."

The projected investigation of the department, which was the subject of much capital discussion since the Republicans took office two months ago, was delayed because of the work of gathering affidavits and other evidence from complainants against the department, the Marathon county legislator said.

The conservation department has been under fire from many sources lately. The Oneida county board in a stiffly worded resolution recently protested certain policies of the department and demanded a reorganization of the agency.

Numerous complaints have come out of the northern counties about the department's fire lane activities and policies. It is alleged that the department has discriminated in allowing the use of the fire lanes to private citizens and denied it to others. Defenders of the department declare, however, that while the fire lanes should be closed to everyone and used for forestry and emergency purposes only, it has sometimes been necessary to grant keys to abutting property owners in order to secure easements for the construction of the lanes.

Changes

Arthur Tiller, a former Madison newspaper man who is now one of Governor Heil's secretaries, just before his appointment in January circulated charges that the department had disbursed state funds improperly. A separate investigation of that charge is now underway.

Regularly during the last few years the department, and particularly its director, Harley W. McKenzie, have been the butt of bitter criticism from commercial fishing interests on the Great Lakes and Green Bay. The fishermen have charged the department with "dictatorial" and arbitrary policies inimical to the industry.

Gruszka today said, however, that he is not certain whether he will win majority support for his investigation demand. In reply to a question he said that his resolution should not be interpreted as a Heil administration measure. It was presented on his own initiative, he emphasized.

Future Farmers Treat Seed Grain for Cost

(Post-Crescent Madison Bureau)
Madison—A seed grain project of the Future Farmers of America at Pulaski was cited today by L. M. Sasman, state supervisor, as an example of community service rendered by the rural youth organization, in Wisconsin.

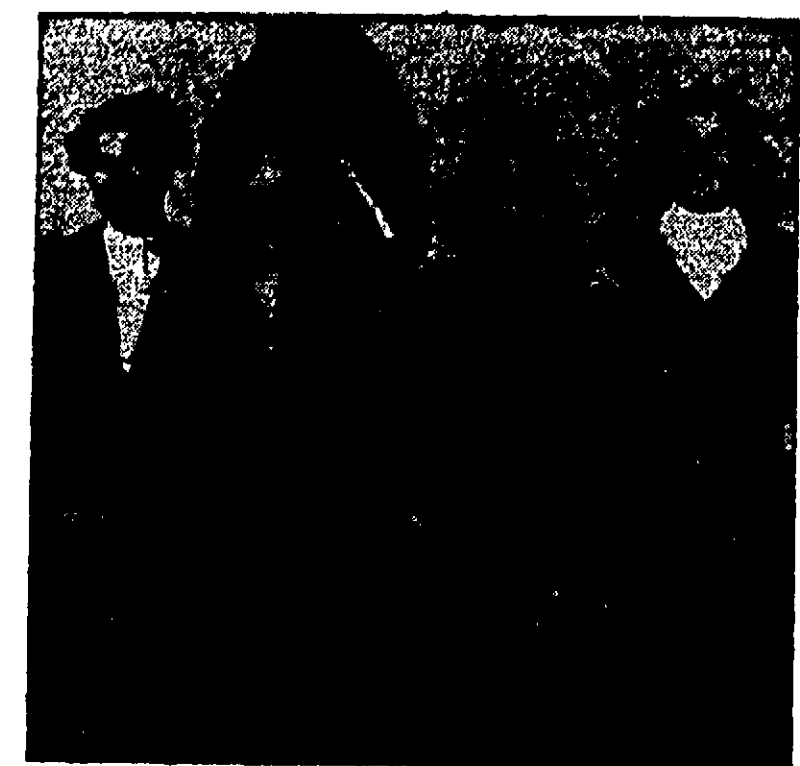

The Pulaski chapter, Sasman said, has constructed two seed grain treasurers and has advertised to farmers in the community that they will treat seed grain at cost.

"This is a commendable undertaking," Sasman commented, "and will go a long way to convince the farmers in that community that vocational agriculture is indeed a practical study."

The Clintonville F. F. A. chapter, one of the oldest in the state, will conduct a radio rally over a Madison station soon, Sasman has announced.

U. W. Professor Will Talk to College Club

Dr. A. D. Winspear, professor of classics at the University of Wisconsin, will speak to members of the International Relations club of Lawrence college on Tuesday March 7. It is expected that several students will represent Lawrence at the Midwest conference of International Relations club to be held April 21 and 22 at Northwestern University. Last year William Finkler, Riverside, Ill., president of the club, and Robert Herrmann, Appleton, represented Lawrence at the conference at Kalamazoo, Mich.

IN PICTURE BOOKED AT APPLETON

A smashing romantic melodrama of adventure, telling the story of three women who fly, and the thrills that come with their split-second escapes and the heart-throbs behind their spectacular lives, "Talisman," comes to the Appleton Theatre Friday, March 10. With Alice Faye, Constance Bennett and Nancy Kelly in the starring roles, the film deals with three women of the sky and their reasons for taking the gamble they can lose only once. The supporting cast features Joan Davis, Charles Farrell, and Jane Wyman.

"Mr. Moto's Last Warning" will be on the same program and features Peter Lorre, Ricardo Cortez, Virginia Field and John Carradine.

Refusal to Raise Debt Limit May Do More Harm Than Good

WASHINGTON—They're trying here to interest you, Mr. Taxpayer, in helping to reduce government expenses—you who pay the taxes whether you make out an income-tax return or not.

That is the purpose of the significant statement issued by Senator Pat Harrison, chairman of the state finance committee. Behind him is a group of Democratic conservatives joining in coalition with Republicans to dramatize a mass attack on spending. Vice president Garner is in on the play, as are some treasury officials. The opening move was timed for President Roosevelt's return tomorrow from his vacation cruise.

As a talking point, the issue is pegged on the proposal for a $5,000,000,000 hoist of the legal limit on the public debt, which would be raised to $50,000,000,000. That is the talking point and Harrison has opened the attack on the proposal. But it is not the real point. Reduction of government expenses is the object. This is an attempt to crush the Eccles spending policy.

Those who want to pull government expenses down will make a mistake to attach too much importance to the question of changing the limit to which the public debt can go. There will be a tendency to feel that if the proposed increase can be beaten, the victory will have been won. That isn't the solution any more than taping down a swollen appendix is a substitute for an operation. The cry against expanding the authorized debt limit is merely the siren of the fire engine.

In fact refusal to increase the debt limit might easily do damage to the financial solidity of the treasury, for two reasons.

First, the treasury doesn't borrow money just for the fun of it. It borrows when it needs money to make payments ordered by congress in the various appropriation bills. At present the treasury is authorized to have outstanding up to $30,000,000,000 in long-term bonds and $15,000,000,000 in short-term notes. The treasury now is within $5,000,000,000 of its limit on long-term bonds. By the end of the next fiscal year $4,363,000,000 in short-term notes mature and the treasury needs to be free to convert these into bonds if the market is favorable. Thus, omitting any increased debt, the treasury could not make these conversions within its $30,000,000,000 limit on bonds. For that reason, if for no other, the debt limit needs to be raised.

Morganthau Must Find Money Congress Orders
Second, suppose congress refuses to increase the limit to which the debt can go but continues to appropriate money. Secretary Morganthau must produce the money somehow even after the $45,000,000,000 borrowing limit has been reached. He couldn't sell bonds because they would be invalid. His only alternative would be to issue silver certificates and to begin paying out printing-press money under the $3,000,000,000 discretionary inflation power contained in the Thomas amendment to the original AAA.

To drive the treasury to anything like that would be the worst thing that congress could do.

But the issue makes good talking because it pictures the spending policy in simple terms and makes it easier to arouse public interest, which is the big thing needed now—positive public support.

Nine-tenths of a senator's mail, or a representative's, is from people who want something out of the government—appropriations for a dam, pensions, farm relief, and a thousand other things. Propose a cut in any government department and relatives and friends of every employee affected will bear down on senators and representatives to beat it. The pressure all comes from one side—the spending side. Other constituents don't help.

Lobbies Maintained to Get Appropriations
A few days ago the house voted down another TVA dam. Then the house turned on and the house reversed itself and by a margin of nine votes handed out $17,000,000 to start the project. Terrific pressure is on to spend millions for the once-rejected Florida ship canal.

Sub-Normal Boost In Relief Means Better Business

Welfare Department Reports Winter Burden Below Average

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison — The fact that general relief increases during the last two months have not been higher than usual was cited today as an example of improved conditions in Wisconsin by the public welfare department.

The department pointed out that the "low normal" increase was doubly significant because of the reduction of almost 8,000 cases on the WPA program in the state early this winter.

"Improving business conditions undoubtedly play a part in the explanation of this phenomenon," department economists said. The total general relief load in Wisconsin increased from 50,455 in December to 54,145 family units in January, it was reported.

January relief loads, and the percent of change from the previous month, in the counties in the Appleton area are shown in the following figures taken from state welfare department reports:

County	Change	Cases
Brown	19.0	1,207
Outagamie	11.0	714
Shawano	7.7	379
Calumet	18.2	104
Waupaca	47.7	570
Manitowoc	4.4	718
Winnebago	14.1	1,101

The rate of increase for the whole state from December to January was 7.3 per cent, according to the state relief department.

Be A Careful Driver

LEGAL NOTICES

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT FOR OUTAGAMIE COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of Tessie Warner, deceased, in probate. Pursuant to the order made in this matter by the county court for Outagamie county on the 17th day of February, 1939.

Notice is hereby given that all claims for allowances against Tessie Warner late of Appleton, Wisconsin, must be presented to said court on or before the 15th day of June, 1939, which is the time limited for the presentation of claims. Notice is hereby given also that at a special term of said court to be held at the court house aforesaid, on the 25th day of June, 1939, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, examined and adjusted all claims against said deceased presented to the court.

Dated February 16th, 1939. By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, County Judge.

HEBER H. PELKEY, Attorney for the Estate, Feb. 18-25, Mar. 4.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT FOR OUTAGAMIE COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of Mrs. Luella Freiberg, deceased, in probate. Pursuant to the order made in this matter by the county court for Outagamie county on the 15th day of February, 1939.

Notice is hereby given that at a regular term of said court to be held at the court house aforesaid, on the 25th day of June, 1939, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, examined and adjusted all claims against said deceased presented to the court.

Dated February 16th, 1939. By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, County Judge.

STANLEY A. STAIDL, Attorney for the Executor, 112 W. College Avenue, Appleton, Wisconsin, Feb. 18-25, Mar. 4.

Highway Commission Will Present Awards To '39 Safest Cities

Inter-city prizes will be offered by the state highway commission during 1939 for "safest cities." Cities that reduce accidents, conserve life and property and carry on varied safety programs will be considered for trophies.

The cities of the state will be divided into population classes, and first place awards will be made in each group. Awards for the year probably will be presented at the 1940, at the same time county safety plaques are awarded by the governor.

Appleton and several other Wisconsin cities would be in the running for prizes this year if they were being awarded on the 1938 records. Appleton completed the year without a traffic fatality. Other cities with good records were Milwaukee, Madison, Wausau, Kenosha, Beloit, Fond du Lac, Ashland, Eau Claire, Oshkosh, Monroe, Green Bay, Superior, Wauwatosa, Waukesha and Stevens Point.

LEGAL NOTICES

STATE OF WISCONSIN, MUNICIPAL COURT, OUTAGAMIE COUNTY.

Oscar Schultz, plaintiff, Etanilda McKeever, Emma Meyer, Herbert Klein and Elsie A. Klein, wife, Leonard Klein, Oscar Klein and Herbert Klein, as executor of the estate of Joseph Klein, deceased, Peter C. Cleary and H. E. Bach, members of the Wisconsin Banking Commission in their representative capacity as the Wisconsin Banking Commission in charge of the liquidation of the Bank of Hortonville, a delinquent banking corporation, and Bank of Hortonville, defendants.

By virtue of a judgment of foreclosure and sale made in the above entitled action on the 15th day of January 1938, (the undersigned sheriff of Outagamie county, state of Wisconsin, will sell at the east door of the court house in the city of Appleton, Wisconsin, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, the real estate and mortgaged premises directed by said judgment to be sold and therein described as follows:

All that part of Lot two (2), in Block Thirty-two (32) in addition to the village of Hortonville, and described as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of Lot two (2), aforesaid and running thence north one hundred (100) feet thence east parallel with the south line of said Lot one hundred (100) feet to the south line of said Lot one hundred (100) feet thence east on the south line of said Lot one hundred (100) feet to the place of beginning, Outagamie county, Wisconsin.

Terms of sale, cash.

JOHN F. LAPPEN, Sheriff of Outagamie County.

HEBER H. PELKEY, Attorney for Plaintiff, Dated February 16, 1939, Feb. 18-25, Mar. 4-11-15.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT FOR OUTAGAMIE COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given that at a special term of said court to be held in and for said county at the court house, in the city of Appleton, in said county, on the third Tuesday, (being the 1st day) of March, A.D. 1939, at 10 o'clock a. m., the following matter will be heard and considered:

Application of P. W. Silverwood, executor of the will of Mary George late of said county, deceased, for allowance and determination of the administration and assignment of the residue of the estate of said deceased to such person or persons as are by law entitled to same.

Dated Appleton, Wis., February 21st, 1939.

By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, County Judge.

Feb. 25, Mar. 4-11

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT FOR OUTAGAMIE COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of Jacob Heigl, deceased, in probate. Pursuant to the order made in this matter by the county court for Outagamie county on the twenty-fourth day of February, 1939.

Notice is hereby given that all claims for allowances against Jacob Heigl late of Appleton, Wisconsin, must be presented to said court on or before the thirtieth day of June, 1939, which is the time limited for the presentation of claims. Notice is hereby given also that at a special term of said court to be held at the court house aforesaid, on the 25th day of June, 1939, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, examined and adjusted all claims against said deceased presented to the court.

Dated February 21, 1939. By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, County Judge.

EDWIN S. GONFREY, Attorney for the Estate, 110 North Oneida Street, Appleton, Wisconsin, Feb. 25, Mar. 4-11

Look..

OUR PRESENT INTEREST RATE 5%

...before you leap into just any home loan. Get full details of our home-financing plan... no obligation.

APPLETON BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

PHONE 6200

GEO. H. BECKLEY, Sec'y.

MEMBER OF FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK

324 W. College Ave.

Be A Careful Driver

A SMALL AMOUNT OF MONEY WILL BUY A BIG SUNDAY—

Chicken Dinner 65c

Served Country Style — All You Can Eat!

HOFFMANN HOTEL and TAVERN

Daily Plate Lunches 25c

HOME OF FINE FOODS PHONE 77 HORTONVILLE

Community Artist Series
FINAL CONCERT

Lawrence Symphony Orchestra

DR. PERCY FULLINWIDER, Conductor

— SOLOIST —
EDWARD DUDLEY, TENOR (New York)

Lawrence Memorial Chapel
Wednesday evening March 8-8:30 P. M.

Single Admission—50c, 75c
Tickets on sale at Belling's Drug Store

800 Persons in Audience as Lincoln Grade School Pupils Appear in Annual Operettas

New London—Five mice in a tail-to-tail snake dance and a false mustache that wouldn't stay on were two episodes that brought down the house of nearly 800 persons at the annual operettas of the Lincoln grade school pupils at Washington high school auditorium last night.

Both episodes occurred in the upper grade's show, "Punch and Judy." Teale Borchardt as the ballyhoo man for the Punch and Judy show was the victim of the falling mustache but when the appendage persisted in falling from his nose he carried on like a trouper with the stubborn mustache in his hand.

The five mice appeared in an attic scene and capered and squeaked mischievously while in full costume down to the pointed noses and heavy tails. Jimmy Cristy as the

Hoffman Defeats Beaudoin in City Singles Tourney

Winner Topples 631 Pins
In Three Games to Enter Finals

New London—Smashing a 631 total in three games, Len Hoffman knocked Archie Beaudoin out of the City Singles Bowling championship tournament in a semi-final match at Pahl's South Side Alleys yesterday afternoon. Hoffman earned the right to enter the finals for the championship. Art Gottschalk and Erv Buss were scheduled to roll this afternoon to determine his opponent. The championship match will be rolled next weekend as a feature attraction.

Hoffman hit games of 235, 203 and 193 against Beaudoin's 162, 179 and 181—322.

Plywood League
Standings:
Frank's Cubs 16 11
Hank's Dodgers 16 11
Kroll's Bees 15 9
Eds Reds 13 14
Zaug's Pirates 9 15
Krueger's Giants 9 18

The Cubs tied for first place in the circuit by trimming the Pirates three games in slow matches at the North Side alleys last night. The Dodgers dropped two to the Bees while Ed's Reds set the Giants back three.

Sylvester Stern paced the loop for the Dodgers with a 558 count and games of 207 and 200. W. Graichen cracked a 213 game for the Cubs and Amy McMillan came through with a 199 line for the Bees. George Urban's 530 was tops for the Reds.

Men's Club League
The Lutheran Men's club league continued space with Ben Boese collecting high series of 526 while his squad dropped two more to Sallows and Lippolds gained two more from Meschkes. Lewis Sawall had high game of 200.

Girl Will Compete In Ski Tournament For Junior Riders

New London—The junior ski tournament of the New London Junior club will feature a girl rider Sunday afternoon, it was announced yesterday by the club. Clara Carlson, 16-year-old sister of the jumping Carlson boys of Scandinavia, will ride in regular competition with the boys. The tournament at Beekers hill will get underway about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, weather permitting.

Four New London junior skiers were taken to Iola Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kallag for jumping practice. The Iola club has a junior hill with a 35-foot scaffold capable of 75-foot jumps and is completely lighted for night riding. Practicing were Tim and Pat Kellogg, Glen Beckert and Delbert Olin. The boys plan to enter a regular night tournament at Iola next Thursday evening.

Manager of Theater Undergoes Operation

New London—Claude Wadkins, manager of the Mer Mac theater, underwent a major operation at Borchardt's Memorial hospital yesterday. He has been ill the last three weeks.

Charles Pfeiffer is recovering at Community hospital from an operation he underwent early this week. Mrs. George Novackski, route 2, Clintonville, submitted to an operation at Community hospital yesterday.

Undergoing operations at Community hospital Thursday were Mrs. Earl Roberts, New London; Mrs. Thomas O'Connor, route 1, Clintonville; Mrs. Royal Raddatz, route 1, Sugar Bush.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. King Schwab of Hortonville at Community hospital Friday morning.

NEW LONDON OFFICE

News and Circulation departments of the Appleton Post-Crescent are represented in New London by Alvin J. Brault, 103 E. Cook street. News items and orders for subscriptions may be left at that address or may be telephoned by calling 18. Papers missed by carriers will be delivered if complaint is made before 7 p. m.

Leading mouse sang a song while his playmates, Carlton Rogers, Norman Bohman, Teddy Raschke and Dale Schoenrock squeaked the chorus.

Special Lighting
Most striking features of the primary grades' show, "Hansel and Gretel," were the background settings and night lighting effects. Three different scenes effectively represented the broom maker's home, the children surrounded by angels while lost in the woods at night, and the colorful candy house of the old witch. The leading roles of Hansel and Gretel were taken exceptionally well by little Raymond Flohr and Joyce Miller, respectively.

Members of the kindergarten class announced the opening of the 2-hour performance with a dance as peppermint soldiers, revealing the title of the operetta, "Hansel and Gretel," with letters painted on large cards.

During the interlude between shows the audience was entertained by high school vocalists and musicians. Alice Stanley, Ethel Knappstein and Patricia Egan sang solos. Helen Schoenrock, Jack Seering and Orville Sanders appeared in a clarinet trio, and Wilton Quaint played an instrumental solo.

In Charge of Shows
Directing, costuming and staging of the shows were handled by the teachers of the various grades, the Misses: Marjorie Tichnor, Flora Mattler, Florence Ruhsam and Marion Buss in the lower grades and the Misses Edna Crocker, Vivian Shaw and Magdalen Knappstein in the upper grades. Miss Mary K. Donohue coached music and vocal numbers.

High school boys assisting in the stage production were Harry Herres, Warren Spurr, Allen Ziebur, Richard Wyman, Lawrence Manks and Robert Hutchison.

New London Churches

EMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH
Rev. W. E. Pankow, pastor; Rev. Le Roy Ristow, assistant; German service 9:00 a. m.; Sunday school 9:30 a. m.; English service 10:30 a. m.

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD CATHOLIC CHURCH
Rev. Raymond Fox, pastor; Rev. Richard Keller, assistant; Low mass 7:30 a. m.; Children's mass 9:00 a. m.; High mass, 10:30 a. m.

METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Ralph R. Holliday, pastor. New London service 11:00 a. m.; Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; Stephensville service, 9:30 a. m.; Bear Creek service, 2:00 p. m.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Rev. F. S. Dayton, pastor; Services and sermon, 9:30 a. m. and 10:30 a. m.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Rev. Harold P. Rektstad, pastor; Sunday school 9:00 a. m.; Preaching service, 10:00 a. m.

Piano Students to Appear in Recital At Teacher's Home

New London—Eleven advanced pupils of Mrs. D. N. Stacy will present a piano recital for their parents at the home of their instructor at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Playing solos from a variety of outstanding compositions will be Elmer Spengler, Mary Lou Adelman, Dorothy Borchardt, Lois Steingaber, Marilyn Meinhardt, Leslie Frank, Marjorie Raschke, Jimmy Cristy, Patricia Egan, Polley Hartquist and Maurice Levine. Miss Hartquist and Miss Egan, high school students, will play two duets, ballet music from "Rosemunde" and "Dark Eyes." Mrs. Stacy also will entertain with several selections.

Varsity Cagers See Lawrence-Ripon Tilt

New London—Members of the New London high school "A" basketball squad were treated for the Lawrence-Ripon college basketball game at Lawrence college last night. Accompanied by Coaches D. N. Stacy and Gregory Charlesworth and Bob Monsted, were Doug Hoier, Ken Ross, Ken Brault, Wally and Stewart Hammerberg, Harold Puts, Gordon Meiklejohn, Bud Mavis and Dean Jeffers. Ken Poppy was absent. The squad left for Appleton after a short practice at home early in the evening.

Attendance Records are Listed at Grade School

Combined Locks—Pupils of the Combined Locks State graded school having perfect attendance for the six week period, according to the teachers, are:
Sylvia Bosch, Gretchen Lom, Lucina Van Cuyk, Anna Van Kasten, John Erickson, Joseph Sprangers, Louis Wulterkens, Harriet Koenen, Clarence Berghuis, James Hartjes, Edward Lindberg, Glen Siebers, John Van Durzen, Rosine Berghuis, Jack DeGroot, William DeGroot, Theresa DeGroot, Dolores Gossens, Leona Jusko, Peter Jusko, Marvin

FUN GALORE..
Awaits Your Visit
TONIGHT, at
LARRY'S BAR
1505 N. Richmond St.
with
OZZIE, ROY and CHIP
ENTERTAINING!
Everybody Welcome!

ACROBAT AT 4 1-2 MONTHS

New London—Teaching his infant grandsons simple acrobatic tricks is a favorite pastime of Will Guyette, 401 Shavanno street, and here he is shown with Ted Guyette, Jr., 4 1/2 months, performing a balancing act on his hands. Unable yet to even creep, the baby takes keen delight in the stunt but was caught above in a contemplative mood. Teddy has been doing the trick since he was four months old. His brother Billy, 17 months, also enjoyed the acrobatics when he was younger but doesn't care so much for it anymore. (Post-Crescent Photo)

70 Guests are Entertained At Party for Clarence Kloehn

New London—About 70 guests were entertained at the Gust Kloehn home Thursday evening as the parents of Clarence Kloehn gave a party in honor of his birthday anniversary. Twelve tables of schafkopf and fifty were played with prizes in schafkopf going to Mrs. Lillian Breitenfeldt, Mrs. Edward Meinhardt, Mrs. Frank Huebner, Herbert Kloppe, Lawrence Miller and Emil Magdanz. Mrs. Walter Rusch and Harvey Gorges received traveling prizes. In fifty prizes were won by Mrs. Rufus Gruetzmacher, Mrs. Laura Wentland, Mrs. Florentine Kloehn and Mrs. Fred Schmidt.

The thirty-seventh anniversary of the Tuesday club will be celebrated at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Elwood hotel Tuesday noon. The anniversary was passed on Feb. 9. After the luncheon the club will retire to the home of Mrs. Henry Spearbraker to play cards.

The study of New England literature will be continued by the Women's Study club at the home of Mrs. Carrie Hooper Monday afternoon. Papers on Oliver Wendell Holmes and James Russell Lowell will be given by Mrs. Carl Fellenz and Mrs. Harold Zaug, respectively.

The Order of Eastern Star will hold a regular meeting at the Masonic temple Monday evening with Miss Myrtle Wilke, Mrs. L. E. Cole, Mrs. W. B. Viel and Mrs. E. C. Oestreich as hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Noek was hostess to the P. O. club Thursday evening and Mrs. R. V. Prahl won the prize. Mrs. Bert Haskell received the traveling prize. Miss Cecelia Knappstein was a guest. In two weeks Mrs. Prahl will entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Severance entertained the Thursday Dinner club Thursday evening and prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. P. L. Zaug and Mrs. R. L. Fitzgerald, and Mrs. H. B. Cristy will entertain next week. A guest of the club Thursday was Mrs. Norman Vilas Morse who returned to Chicago today after visiting two weeks at the F. L. Zaug home.

Long Found Guilty of Abandonment Charge

Waupaca—County Judge A. M. Scheller yesterday found Millard F. Long, Clintonville, guilty of abandonment. Sentence will be made Tuesday. The charge was brought against Long by the city of Clintonville which is paying relief bills for Long's wife and nine children. Long's defense was that he was suffering from "psycho-neurosis." In the meantime Long is in the county jail on a milk diet that he requested.

Schumacher, Danny Wildenberg, Robert Wulterkens, James Van Stralen, Rita Van Stralen, Harriet Conrad, Paul Bosch, Alphonse Godard, Lester Jansen, Norman Jansen, Rosemary Weyenberg, Billy Wildenberg, Agnes Van Durzen, Edward Van Cryk, Chester De Coster, Raymond Van Stralen, Florian Sprangers, James Siebers, Theresa Opsteen, Tommy Lindberg, Mildred Koenen, Gertrude Koenen, Gerald Kampe, Alice Mae Berghuis, Christian Conrad, Marvin Hartjes, Laverne Kampe, Elaine Menting, Eugene Menting, Martin Smaxwill, Irvin Van Durzen, Grace De Groot, Jack De Valt, Theresa Kampe, Donald Robinson, Alfred Smaxwill, Margaret Sprangers, Henry Vander Heyden, Paul Van Durzen, Donald Van Geffen, Dorothy Berghuis, Dolores De Goe, Joseph Jansen, Charlotte Kampe, Charles Lindberg, Clyde Schumacher, Joan Opsteen, Lawrence Van Cuyk, Dorothy Wulterkens and Josephine Conrad.

NOW PLAYING
Every Nite Except Sunday
THE HI-HATS
You'll like 'em!
SCHAFFROFF Every Sun.
ATL. cash prices. Lunch served
CHICKEN LUNCH
TONITE — 25c
Sandwiches . . . 5c
FISH FRY Every Night
During Lent
Emma's Tavern
Waverly Road — Opposite
Cinderella Ballroom

APPLETON
NOW PLAYING
Root of Romance!
...flirty work at the domestic crossroads!
LORETTA YOUNG
WIFE, HUSBAND AND FRIEND
Binnie Barnes Cesar Romero
PLUS
A LOVE MORE POWERFUL THAN THE LAW
LET US LIVE
MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN
HENRY FONDA
RALPH BELLAMY
EXTRA
NEW MARCH OF TIME

LET US LIVE
MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN
HENRY FONDA
RALPH BELLAMY
EXTRA
NEW MARCH OF TIME

Cast Is Selected For Annual Senior Class Production

Lloyd Lathrop Will Play
Leading Role in 3-
Act Comedy

New London—The cast of nine students for the Senior class play, "Second Fiddle," was announced yesterday by Miss Martha Linder, dramatic director at Washington High school. About 25 seniors tried out for the roles filled by six girls and three boys, all experienced on the high school stage.

Lloyd Lathrop, who transferred from Manawa High school last fall, will make his first appearance on the New London High school stage in the leading role of the 3-act comedy farce as an embarrassed and befuddled bridegroom. Lloyd plays the lead in plays while at Manawa.

The show is something of a riot as the young bridegroom is mistakenly married to another girl friend during a supposed rehearsal of the wedding ceremony and the whole plot consists of his efforts to shield his embarrassing predicament from his fiancée.

Others in Cast
All roles are prominent and playing opposite Lathrop are Ruth Sawall as Joan Keeler who becomes married to Harold Werpel, the embarrassed bridegroom, and Audrey Dean as Janet Williams, Joan's friend. Other characters are Alice Kussow as Dorothy Van Straaten, Harold's fiancée, Polley Hartquist as Chrissie Carson, a guest; Patricia Chegwain as Marion Baker, Joan's aunt; Alan Fonstad as Wilbur, the butler, who causes it all; Jane Huebner as Mrs. Keeler, Joan's mother, and Robert Hutchison as Mr. Crouch, a lawyer.

The play is scheduled for presentation on April 6 but the date may be changed because of holy week.

Red Star School Honor Roll Pupils are Listed

Sherrwood—Pupils of the Red Star school who are on the honor roll for the sixth school month: Gordon Kassike, Edith Heiss, Mildred Kasper, Althea Strunk, Robert Benson, Wayne Strunk, Mary Thompson, Raymond Rasmussen, Carl Schroeder, Marie Diestler, Berwyn Litzkow, Dorothy Schroeder, Violet Immel, Roger Bessett, Clair Holmbeck and Martin Barge-mann.

Pupils having a perfect attendance record so far this year are Edith Heiss, Ramona Diestler, Marie Diestler, Roger Bessett, Clair Holmbeck, Raymond Rasmussen, Edith Heiss, Marie Diestler, Elmer Rasmussen, Thomas Heiss and Donald Herzberg.

The monthly meeting of the Wide-Awake 4-H club which was held Wednesday evening at Spoerl's hall, was well attended. Musical entertainment was furnished by Lorena Schmidt and Dorothy Petrie who played a clarinet duet. James Griffith and Annacel Schmidt gave vocal selections.

"The Antics of Andrew," which is now being rehearsed by the club players, will be given on the evenings of March 17 and 19.

Be A Careful Driver

Soon—"Monastery"
RIALTO
KAUKAUNA

TODAY
103
GOOD REASONS
2—BIG HITS—2

THE ROVING REPORTERS
Trailing a mystery
so bewildering it has to be solved twice!
WHILE NEW YORK SLEEPS
MICHAEL WHALEN
JEAN ROGERS
CHICK CHANDLER
A 20th Century-Fox Picture
—Associate Hit—
Zane Grey's "THE MYSTERIOUS RIDER"
THE BOONER TROOP OF THE WANTED RANGERS
SUN.—MON.—TUES.
Continuous Show Sun.
First Show Starts 1 P. M.

JESSE JAMES
IN TECHNICOLOR
TYRONE POWER
HENRY FONDA
NANCY KELLY
RANDOLPH SCOTT
—ADDED EXTRA HIT—
WALT DISNEY'S Greatest
"MOTHER GOOSE"
GOES TO HOLLYWOOD
Also Paramount News

ROBERT MONTGOMERY
Rosalind RUSSELL
FAST and LOOSE
with REGINALD OWEN
RALPH MORGAN
ETIENNE GIRARDOT
ALAN DINAHART
JOAN MARSH

JESSE JAMES
IN TECHNICOLOR
TYRONE POWER
HENRY FONDA
NANCY KELLY
RANDOLPH SCOTT
—ADDED EXTRA HIT—
WALT DISNEY'S Greatest
"MOTHER GOOSE"
GOES TO HOLLYWOOD
Also Paramount News

MovieLand Its People and Products

By Jimmie Fidler

Hollywood—For three or four years, Hollywood's moviemakers have been trying to alibi the slump in theater attendance by passing the buck to the writers. According to the studio czars, their scribes have not been giving them enough stories—moreover, the stories which have been written have been inferior. They've sold their wail so effectively that even the industry's trade papers, which should know better, have joined in the chorus.

And here's the pay-off: At the great Academy Award dinner the other evening, Arthur Rankin was solemnly presented with a statuette for his original story, "Boys Town," picked by general ballot as the best of the year. Mr. Rankin wrote that story in 1929. Just ten years ago—and his agent had been peddling it from studio to studio for eight years before it found a taker! And the author of "The Life of Louis Pasteur" could tell an even more ironic story—if he hadn't died of combined disappointment and discouragement. He wrote that Academy Award winner on studio time—and was fired for his pains. The studio considered it an absolute dud.

I could cite a dozen similar cases, but those two should be enough to serve the purpose. There's no earth of good screen stories in Hollywood, and no dearth of men capable of writing more. Hollywood merely lacks executives with sufficient judgment to recognize good stories when they see them. It also lacks men who are fearless enough to break away from the tried and proven hokum. Any story is apt to become tiresome after its unimpeachable screening.

MUTTERINGS: Hard to believe when I remember her woe at losing Harmon O. Nelson, but it really looks like Bette Davis has a Brent for romance. Imaginable hilarious evening: refereeing an insulting duel between George Bernard Shaw and John Barrymore—my dough would still be on the Great Profile. Now that studios have put hair on the chests of Bob Taylor and "Bob" Breen, how about devoting a little attention to Guy Kibbee's pace: Pomp and Circumstance. Hollywood hostess' silly habit of supplying informal dinner guests with printed menus.

Francie ought to interrupt Dorothy Lamour's sad-souled songs with a cheery "There, there, little girl, you mustn't cry." The amount of an actress' salary is in exact inverse ratio to the amount of clothes she wears in her publicity stills—with experience you can guess the approximate size of the paycheck every time. Nervous itch: to strap

Marie Wilson's ever-fluttering hands tight to her sides and tell her to act if she dares. Wondering muse: why are the foreign stars so much more venomous in their jealousy of one another than are our home-grown celebrities? Without Grace Moore on hand to stir things up, this town's as tame as a Fourth of July with fireworks. Secret ambition: to watch Nelson Eddy trying to slap Victor McLaglen around in real life the way he did for that picture, "Let Freedom Ring." Silly notions: Joan Davis fighting off a swarm of ants. Norma Shearer's announced intention of playing only romantic young girls in the future does make those stories about the late Irving G. Thalberg being the guardian of her career seem plausible.

Add the Ritz zannies to your list of superstitious stars. One of yesterday's scenes for "The Gorilla" called for them to fall down a flight of stairs, and they were willing enough until Al Ritz discovered there were thirteen steps. "Nothing doing!" they chorused—and held up production for half-an-hour while carpenters constructed a false landing that topped off the bottom step. And here's the laugh: In the first take, Harry misjudged his tumble, strayed his wrist and scraped his knee. I asked him if he was hurt. "Not much," he said, after a check-up. "But if there'd been thirteen steps there, I'd broken my neck, sure!"

Speaking of things injured, I'm reminded of Nancy Kelly's pride, suffered when, on arriving in Hollywood, she learned that despite her grown-up roles she would have to conform to all the rules and regulations of the California State Board of Education—a tutor on the set, regular hours for lessons, etc. Last week, she took a final examination on her high school studies, passed with flying colors and congratulated herself that her adolescent humiliations were over. She was too hasty. There's another state law that governs the employment of minors. Until Nancy attains the ripe old age of eighteen, on the 25th of this month, a state officer will sit beside her, watch in hand and make sure that her working hours are within the law.

I like Joe E. Brown's story about the old vaudevillean who was being hissed by some cluck in the audience. The older finally stopped and spoke directly to the heckler. "My friend, there are three things that hiss—a goose, a snake and a fool. Suppose you identify your self."

(Copyright, 1939)

BIG HUNTING IN NEPAL

New Delhi—(4)—Viceroy Lord Linlithgow headed a shooting expedition in Nepal which ended with a bag including 14 tigers, three rhinoceroses and one bear.

Charles Starrett IN "THE COLORADO TRAIL"

With IRIS MEREDITH
And The SONS OF THE PIONEERS

—ADDED FEATURETTES—
Today's children are tomorrow's criminals... the screen examines America's most vital crime problem!
"A CRIMINAL IS BORN"
A "CRIME DOES NOT PAY" Short Feature

Death struggle between MAN AND VULTURE! The most thrilling short subject ever filmed!
"KING VULTURE"

CHARLES CHASE Comedy "NIGHTSHIRT BANDIT"
COLOR CARTOON Comedy "LOVE and CURSES"

— MONDAY and TUESDAY —
SONGS—but not a Musical...
LAUGHS—but not a Comedy...
THRILLS—but not a Drama...
IT'S SOMETHING NEW IN ENTERTAINMENT!

"GARDEN OF THE MOON"
— With —
PAT O'BRIEN — MARGARET LINDSAY
JOHN PAYNE—JOHN DAVIS and JIMMY FIDLER

Coming—Mickey Rooney in "OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS"

CHARLES STARRETT
IN
"THE COLORADO TRAIL"
With IRIS MEREDITH
And The SONS OF THE PIONEERS

—ADDED FEATURETTES—
Today's children are tomorrow's criminals... the screen examines America's most vital crime problem!
"A CRIMINAL IS BORN"
A "CRIME DOES NOT PAY" Short Feature

Death struggle between MAN AND VULTURE! The most thrilling short subject ever filmed!
"KING VULTURE"

CHARLES CHASE Comedy "NIGHTSHIRT BANDIT"
COLOR CARTOON Comedy "LOVE and CURSES"

— MONDAY and TUESDAY —
SONGS—but not a Musical...
LAUGHS—but not a Comedy...
THRILLS—but not a Drama...
IT'S SOMETHING NEW IN ENTERTAINMENT!

"GARDEN OF THE MOON"
— With —
PAT O'BRIEN — MARGARET LINDSAY
JOHN PAYNE—JOHN DAVIS and JIMMY FIDLER

Coming—Mickey Rooney in "OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS"

Pleads Not Guilty Of Assault Charge

Marion Man Bound Over
To Circuit Court
For Trial

Waupaca—Frank Dieck, Marion, accused Henry Kutz, Marion, of assault with intent to do great bodily harm when they appeared Friday morning in the court of Justice of the Peace S. W. Johnson. Kutz pleaded not guilty, waived the preliminary hearing and was bound over to circuit court under $500 bond.

Dieck claimed that as he was driving home at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, Feb. 19, a car passed him at the village limits and tried to flag him down. Dieck ignored the signal and attempted to pass the car but failed. The Kutz car finally stopped directly in his path, across the middle of the road, Dieck alleged. Both men stepped out and a fight ensued in which Dieck claims that Kutz hit him with a shovel which he carried, gashing the right hand the full length up to the wrist.

Mrs. Nell Madsen waived preliminary hearing before Justice Johnson Friday morning and was bound over to circuit court under a $500 bond which was furnished. Mrs. Madsen who operates the Nichols Creek tavern on Highway 49 half a mile north of Waupaca, was charged with keeping her tavern open after the 1 o'clock a. m. closing hours. Two discharged employees of Mrs. Madsen made the complaint.

Ladies Aid Societies Have Meeting at Dale

Dale—The Ladies Aid society of Lutheran church met at the church parlors Thursday with Mrs. Arthur Leiby and Mrs. Owen Peterson as hostesses.

The Reformed Ladies Aid society met at the home of Mrs. John Leppa.

Miss Nancy Rouse left Wednesday for Chicago where she will enter the Michael Reese hospital to study nursing.

Emanuel Giebel and family are moving to Reedsburg where he will engage in farming.

Mrs. Katharine Bergman was hostess to the Matinee Bridge club Tuesday. Prizes were won by Mrs. Arthur Benner, first; Anita Grossman, second; and Mrs. Orville Emmons, traveling.

Mrs. Emma Sawall, who has been ill, has returned to her home and is being cared for by Mrs. Rosa Konow of Larsen.

Mrs. Emil Seifert went to St. Elizabeth hospital at Appleton Thursday for observation.

Because of weather conditions the night school for farmers was not held Tuesday evening. At the meeting next Tuesday varieties and diseases of grain will be studied by the men. The women will discuss salads.

Mrs. Willis Degal entertained a number of friends at a quilting bee Wednesday.

—ADDED FEATURETTES—
Today's children are tomorrow's criminals... the screen examines America's most vital crime problem!
"A CRIMINAL IS BORN"
A "CRIME DOES NOT PAY" Short Feature

Death struggle between MAN AND VULTURE! The most thrilling short subject ever filmed!
"KING VULTURE"

CHARLES CHASE Comedy "NIGHTSHIRT BANDIT"
COLOR CARTOON Comedy "LOVE and CURSES"

— MONDAY and TUESDAY —
SONGS—but not a Musical...
LAUGHS—but not a Comedy...
THRILLS—but not a Drama...
IT'S SOMETHING NEW IN ENTERTAINMENT!

"GARDEN OF THE MOON"
— With —
PAT O'BRIEN — MARGARET LINDSAY
JOHN PAYNE—JOHN DAVIS and JIMMY FIDLER

Coming—Mickey Rooney in "OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS"

CHARLES STARRETT
IN
"THE COLORADO TRAIL"
With IRIS MEREDITH
And The SONS OF THE PIONEERS

—ADDED FEATURETTES—
Today's children are tomorrow's criminals... the screen examines America's most vital crime problem!
"A CRIMINAL IS BORN"
A "CRIME DOES NOT PAY" Short Feature

Death struggle between MAN AND VULTURE! The most thrilling short subject ever filmed!
"KING VULTURE"

CHARLES CHASE Comedy "NIGHTSHIRT BANDIT"
COLOR CARTOON Comedy "LOVE and CURSES"

— MONDAY and TUESDAY —
SONGS—but not a Musical...
LAUGHS—but not a Comedy...
THRILLS—but not a Drama...
IT'S SOMETHING NEW IN ENTERTAINMENT!

"GARDEN OF THE MOON"
— With —
PAT O'BRIEN — MARGARET LINDSAY
JOHN PAYNE—JOHN DAVIS and JIMMY FIDLER

Coming—Mickey Rooney in "OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS"

CHARLES STARRETT
IN
"THE COLORADO TRAIL"
With IRIS MEREDITH
And The SONS OF THE PIONEERS

APPLETON POST-CRESCENT

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE POST PUBLISHING COMPANY, APPLETON, WIS.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT APPLETON, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER

ANDREW B. TURNBULL, President
VICTOR L. MINAHAN, Editor
HORACE L. DAVIS, General Manager
JOHN R. REED, Managing Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Delivered by carrier to city and suburban subscribers for twenty cents a week, or $10.40 a year in advance. By mail, in Wisconsin, where no carrier delivery service is established, one month $2.50, three months $7.50, six months $12.50, one year $24.00 in advance. By mail, outside of Wisconsin, one month $3.00, three months $9.00, six months $15.00, one year $28.00 in advance.

MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The A. P. is exclusively entitled to the use of reproduction of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

Audit Bureau of Circulation
Circulation Guaranteed

FANSTEEL AND SIT-DOWN

The highest judicial authority in America used about the strongest judicial language it could employ in denouncing the sit-down strike when it said that "there was not even a shadow of legal right to uphold it."

Isn't it really sort of funny that 130,000,000 people educated at so many colleges and universities that no one knows them all by name, must be told by the Supreme Court that grabbing somebody's else property is contrary to American law? What kind of law did anyone suppose we had in this country? Was it I-saw-it-first or I-have-the-most-strength?

And yet a member of the President's cabinet, a position considered among the most exalted on earth, actually held out to the strikers during this Fansteel quarrel the idea that perhaps they were right under the law to take over what they could and hang onto it as long as their strength was sufficient for that violent purpose. Of course, we refer to the Secretary of Labor, Madam Perkins.

If we had in Wisconsin a justice of the peace who only shaved every other month but was in doubt about this legal proposition, we would not have been ashamed of the scraggly appearance of his face, not even if tobacco juice trickled down his beard, but we should have gotten very red in the face at the thought that our people could be so careless to elect any one Justice of the Peace who could not think any straighter than that. And now the 92 Fansteel workers are out of their jobs, and they were good jobs, excellent jobs. They were steady jobs and they paid high wages. But the 92 are out in the cold and the other 400 who depend upon them for support are anything but happy.

Would it not be a smart idea, and good government as well, to make Uncle Sam pay these 92 the damages they have suffered because of the blundering of those who claim to be pilots of our ship of state and sometime refer to themselves as leaders? Why should not the people as a whole be punished for acts of such startling wrong as the public statement made by Madam Perkins about the sit-down? Is it just and proper that those who followed the amazing declaration of Madam Perkins should suffer as heavily as these men and their families must suffer?

Meantime, the Madam secretary suffereth not, continues to draw a fairly fat check, rides around in a government limousine, and is otherwise educated by the Supreme Court in the matter of trespass—the violent seizure and destruction of property, and kindred subjects.

ILLINOIS EPIDEMIC TOUCHES WISCONSIN

Former Attorney-General Finnegan did not present a very pretty picture on the witness stand at Milwaukee recently when he admitted that as Attorney-General he had issued to a lawyer who had no official position, a card testifying that he was an Assistant Attorney General of the State. Such an act may be rank or childish. With Mr. Finnegan it may be classified as the latter and unless and until further evidence of the practice be exposed.

Illinois has been afflicted with the disease known as "I gotta drag." One of the surprising things is that even the microbes that spread diseases seem to know the location of the Wisconsin border and stay south of it.

"I gotta drag" is a particularly nasty, disgusting illness. It is accompanied by blotches over the body, liver spots before the eyes and a tumbling gait, but, strange to say, the tongue is not coated with a thick fur at all but moves with extraordinary speed and smoothness, and although the feet stumble, the hands are improved in respect to the speed with which they get into other people's pockets and out again with something they did not have when they went in.

"I gotta drag" is a form of fraud. Occasionally, it is indulged for the purpose of swelling out the chest and posing as a high official, but while its justifiers advance this as its bland and simple purpose, a careful survey of its operations justifies the conclusion that it is as twisted as an anguworm in pain. We recommend a surgeon's sharp knife with or without ether, to prevent the spread of this leprosy political ailment further in this state.

CHAPLIN COMES BACK

It is good news to all the grown-up children in America that Charlie Chaplin is returning to the films. The other children are ignored in this statement because Chaplin has been absent from the stage so long that there is a generation now which knows him only by tradition. If Charlie still has the old magic, such boys and girls have a wonderful experience coming.

For this master-crown of his generation, and one of its greatest artists, is going to do "The Dictators," Hitler and Mussolini, two of the "biggest fellas" of all time. He will do it in spite of protests from Germany and Italy, because he holds that the dramatic art is free and privileged. And thank heaven, it still is, in America. In the dictatorship countries, as has just been shown in Germany, there is a blight on wit and humor. A gentle parody or a mild joke there may send a comedian to a concentration camp.

Chaplin is tackling a real job in impersonating both dictators at once. One of them would be plenty for any actor. There is some speculation as to how he will do it. Charlie is a "natural" for Adolf, but he can probably manage Benito, too, with some lightning changes and substitutions.

The victims won't like it, but America should worry. And that's the way to deal with high-and-mighty autocrats—laugh 'em off. Germany and Italy both need Charlie Chaplin right now, far more than they need the men they've got.

LOW-DOWN ON WEEK-ENDS

Week-ending has long been regarded as an old English custom. Americans haven't bothered about its origin, but have been glad to adopt the practice of the long week-end whenever possible. Philologists can't let matters rest there, however. They want to know when, how and where the term was first used.

The London Times holds that the phrase is less than sixty years old and that it originated in the North Country. It first appeared in print on a poster in 1887 when a Lancashire railroad advertised special rates for "week-end trips."

The week-end was recognized in law by an act of Parliament known as the Chequers Estate Act of 1917, which authorized payment to the Prime Minister of $75 for every week-end he spends at Chequers, the country residence maintained by the government for its prime ministers. The act goes on to define a week-end as "any continuous period of not less than thirty-six hours during any consecutive seven days."

That's a much shorter week-end period than we have thought the British required. It is only a day and a half instead of three days, hardly time for an American to get in a decent amount of golf. No, it is plain that, wherever the week-end started, it has really come to its full flowering in America.

TOLERANCE IN BERMUDA

Bermuda, the little English colony about one-third of the way across the Atlantic, and the spiritual home of so many American corporations, shows a typically British dislike of censorship. A bill was introduced recently in its House of Assembly to prohibit the importation of undesirable publications. It was directed mainly against Fascist and Nazi propaganda, and would presumably have barred Hitler's "Mein Kampf" and other works of the sort.

Only one member, however, spoke in favor of the bill, and he was the man who introduced it. Other members condemned it as "an insult to the intelligence of Bermudians" and as "reminiscent of Berlin."

They believe, apparently, in the good old principle, "Give the people light and they will find their way." They think freedom is most secure when it is intelligent freedom.

CHAUTAUQUA'S ACHIEVEMENTS

A recent autobiography devotes a chapter to Chautauqua. It is by Dr. Richard T. Ely, economist and college professor, who used to lecture there during his summer vacations. His description of that great adult educational center is a revelation to readers who regarded it chiefly as a literary movement. The subjects upon which he and others were lecturing there fifty years ago must have seemed rather advanced to listeners.

Dr. Ely lists a few, such as child labor, working conditions of women, Sunday labor, playgrounds and recreation in cities, Saturday half-holidays, wise use of leisure, a fairer distribution of wealth. Those topics are still lively. There is reassurance in reviewing them because they remind us that we really have made considerable progress. While some phases of the bad social practices then discussed remain uncorrected, most of them have retreated a great way before advancing reform, and none of them would be advocated today by any intelligent person.

There are 290 distinct species of wild ducks in the world, one-fourth of which are found in North America. Approximately 60 per cent of the North American output of cast iron pipe comes from the Birmingham, Ala., area. Georgia had 1,563 deaths from typhoid in 1920 and 143 in 1937.

DALE HARRISON'S

In Old New York

Grand Canyon, Ariz. (En route West)—Diary of a man in a topcoat with the temperature down to zero (P. S. Mun got very cold):

The railroad grade to this spot on the rim of the Grand Canyon is one of the steepest in America—about four feet to each 100.

Always when men write of the Grand Canyon they wind up, defeated, by saying that "no words and no painting can describe it." Of course it is true, but it is not the mere inadequacy of words that is to blame. The trouble lies in the limitations of the human mind. No intelligence is big enough to encompass the grandeur of the Canyon. We are accustomed to the modern wonder, but nothing man has ever created can compare with the marvel which nature, working patiently through millions of years, has created here.

As apt phrasing of the Canyon's greatness as any I have seen is that of Sam Bledsoe in a little book which he wrote especially for us who are making this trip. He said:

"If you're tired or hurt, the Canyon lifts you up. If your head's too big for your hat, the Canyon will make it fit. It's slightly hard to put into words. Nobody ever has, that I know of. Maybe it's because God has spent so much time here and still does, I reckon."

Thank you, Sam, especially for that part about God. Everyone who sees the Grand Canyon must surely have the same thought, no matter how indifferent to religion he be; for here, of all places, I have ever seen, is the majesty, the austerity, the overwhelming infinitude that is man's synonym for Deity.

Here again are Indians; this time Hopis. They came into the hotel dining room in the evening after dinner and danced. I am always fascinated by Indians. I think it is because of the fine pride they show in themselves, and their continuing patience and uncomplaining acceptance of life.

Indians, I am told, look down upon white men, when they bother to give the matter any thought at all. They have forgotten their resentment at having their land taken from them—their mountains and their prairies, their rivers and their lakes. I suspect they are even a little puzzled at a Destiny that gives mastery of America to palefaces who worship so much at the clay feet of modern comforts and luxuries.

"White men," one Indian told me, "come long way to our villages. They come into our houses. They look at the utensils we use, and they stare at our women and our children. Why do they do that? Indian do not go to see white man's house, Indian do not care to pry into private affairs of white man."

The Indian was right. The white man, in more ways than one, is an impertinent, inconsiderate animal.

As I wandered about here—and one must walk slowly, for the air is rare and breathing is something of a problem for us who have lived so long at sea level—I wished Rusty could have come along, just for the chance to romp and run in these great spaces. How he would have loved to frolic in the snow and run among the trees and brush.

But there is a sign posted conspicuously on the hotel veranda. "Dogs are not permitted in the Grand Canyon National Park except on a leash."

"This struck me as odd. Here, with hundreds of miles of wide open spaces, a dog dare not go farther than the end of a leash. There was a broadcast in the evening from the hotel, and I was asked to write and speak a short piece for it. I wrote about the dog-on-leash rule.

The new Park Commissioner, who had assumed his duties hardly more than an hour before, read what I wrote and said: "I won't permit anyone to broadcast anything about the dog rule. It might give the park a bad name."

I said: "Very well, Sir. I am not accustomed to being censored by a government official, but I bow. I doubt if anyone much will listen to the broadcast anyway. However, I write a column; and I write as I please; and I shall not forget to tell about your dog rule there."

So here I am telling about it. If there's one thing I hate, it is officious censorship. I hope you don't mind, Commissioner. (Copyright, 1939)

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO

Saturday, March 2, 1929

Federal prohibition agents raided a large wildcat brewery in the town of Liberty. Part of the equipment was destroyed and some was hauled away.

Mrs. Frances Marston was elected president of Chapter B, of P.E.O. Sisterhood the previous afternoon.

Mrs. James Wagg was elected president of Ladies of Sir Knights the previous evening at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Homer Benton.

Dorothy Rehfelt and Bluebell Ryan were given trophies for winning a girls' basketball tournament at Appleton High school.

The Hegner Construction Co. was awarded the contract for building an addition to Riverside sanatorium. The bid was $91,405.

25 YEARS AGO

Saturday, March 7, 1914

Daniel P. Steiner was re-elected exalted ruler of the Elks the previous evening. Joseph Koffend, Jr., John Neller, Stephen Balliet, T. J. Long and P. M. Conkey were others elected.

R. J. Schaefer was named president of the Fox River Valley Holstein Breeders' association. The Misses Dinah and Minnie Geenen returned from a trip to Florida, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and California.

George Baldwin, Mrs. C. M. Baldwin and Mrs. Mary Saxton left for Florida.

A Verse for Today

By Anne Campbell

WHEN YOU WALK IN THE ROOM

When you walk in the room upon the arm Of someone who supports your frailty, Moving with painful steps but so much charm That we forget your disability.

We do not think of your poor crippled back; We do not miss the vigor that you lack. We only see your stern triumphant soul Striding with eager steps toward its far goal.

In all the months you lay, with twisted flesh And shrieking nerves, we heard no bitter phrase Fall from your brave white lips. . . . We sent you fresh

White flowers to shed their fragrance on your days And all the time it was you healing us With patience that made pain seem glorious. . . . God walks so close to you, we see the bloom Of Paradise, when you walk in the room (Copyright, 1939)

Several southern states are experimenting with the use of cotton fabric in road construction.

About 45,000 blind persons have been provided with radio sets and relay installations by the British "Wireless for the Blind" fund.

Denver University this day is celebrating the 75th anniversary of the day it was founded.

Farmers in the United States received a cash income of $5,546,000 from hops in 1938.

A Bystander

In Washington

BY PRESTON GROVER

Washington—Thur's romance in them that Legislative Halls.

Take Senator Smathers of New York. Last session he was sitting on the Senate floor with Senator Pepper of Florida. Smathers spotted Mrs. Pepper in the Senate wives' gallery. Beside her was a lovely girl with a Florida complexion and a Broadway flair.

More than once his eyes wandered up there, then he turned to Senator Pepper. But Pepper beat him to the draw.

"I know, I know," said Pepper. "It's Mary Jim Foley. She is a friend of my wife's and she is from Winter Haven. Come up to the gallery and I'll introduce you."

"But I can't leave the floor just now," said Smathers. He had a bit of legislation pending.

"Then I'll introduce you from up there," said Pepper, starting off. But he returned abruptly. "If you are inviting her to dinner at the Shoreham tonight let me know so I don't have to make two trips up there."

Smathers grinned. Sure, he was inviting her to dinner.

How D'Ya Do? Pepper went to the gallery, sat beside his wife and Mary Jim, pointed out Smathers and went through the business of making an introduction by pantomime. From the floor, Smathers smiled and bowed.

"And Senator Smathers is inviting you to dinner at the Shoreham tonight," added Pepper.

"And I am accepting," said Mary Jim.

So they had dinner at the Shoreham that night, and on several other nights, and presently Senator Smathers went down to Winter Haven to prove to her parents that he was a man of sterling character and good repute. After some three months of courting they were married.

And how did you meet your wife, Senator Pepper?

"Well," said Pepper, "I was in the hall of the state legislature at Tallahassee and I saw in the gallery a beautiful girl in a bright yellow dress. That was the girl for me, I knew right away."

And sure enough, they were married and lived happily ever since.

It might be added that both wives have had stage experience, and are pretty, even in the eyes of those who are not their husbands.

A Gem Of Inconsistency

Senator Ashurst, a couple of years ago at the time of the Supreme Court fight, performed a sparkling about-face. One day he said the court should not be increased in size and almost the next he said it should, in conformity with the President's court bill. Never, said he, would he be the slave to consistency. "Inconsistency will save the nation yet," he added, and in his most grandiloquent manner chided those who were slaves to precedents.

Ever since that day, Senator Ashurst has been getting letters from trial judges about the country expressing their gratitude that an example had been set for them to break away from the binding effects of rulings of early courts.

"You have freed us from the tyranny of precedents," one wrote, "when we know the precedents are wrong."

And don't go until we have told you that the sparkling blonde who greets you at the press room in the attorney general's office answers to the euphonious name of Violet Sweet Haven.

WELL I'LL TELL YOU

By Bob Burns

Hollywood—"Most men is love sluckers that ought to be hit over the head with a baseball bat!" That's what a famous woman doctor has to say about us males. According to her, the "Great American Lover" is a myth. He don't exist. Now, I hope this lady didn't get disappointed in love herself. If she did, she's probably looking at life through a blue-colored microscope. An' that would make us men look like pretty poor specimens.

But if we're gonna get hit over the head with baseball bats every time we don't make love the way a woman thinks we should, it's gonna be pretty tough on us. Personally, I think that's carryin' the great American game of baseball too far. Jes' imagine steppin' up to home plate an' gettin' ready to pitch your wife a kiss an' havin' her take a swing at your ovaries! She has to say about us males. According to her, the "Great American Lover" is a myth. He don't exist. Now, I hope this lady didn't get disappointed in love herself. If she did, she's probably looking at life through a blue-colored microscope. An' that would make us men look like pretty poor specimens.

There has been more grumbling than most people realize by rank and file, and organization men in the backwoods about Heil's lack of recognition of the politicians who worked for his election.

2. Because Dr. Gullickson represents the group which has been in power in G. O. P. circles in the state for years, the group which is led by Sampa, Greene, Kohler, Wood, and other big names. If Gullickson is fired, or even if he resigns, it will mean that new men are at the controls for the first time in more than a decade.

3. The emergence of the young element, if it is accomplished, will stymie several budding ambitions or rather ambitions which have been hidden and are now coming out of cover with the renaissance of the party. It will also facilitate the revitalization of the official party committee, which has been anything but lively, and which leading members of the Republican party charge was almost worthless in electing Heil and Wiley.

4. The "census," undertaken by the promoters of the Heil For Governor Club of 1938, probably answers in part at least the governor's delay in making appointments to state positions. It will also facilitate reorganization, for many of the old-time regular leaders of the party would little to hide their lack of enthusiasm for the party's candidate for governor last fall. Heil wants to know who was for him, who helped

BORN YEARS TOO SOON

Manchester, England—Presenting awards at a school commencement the Bishop of Manchester told pupils he was not sure he could pass the school certificate requirements.

A BELATED DISCOVERY

OH MY GOSH! I SEEM TO HAVE BEEN TIED TO HIM!

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

NEW DEAL POLITICAL FORNICATION

ECONOMIC RECOVERY

Personal Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author

TUBERCULOSIS

Nearly every adult has a little tuberculosis, a latent or smoldering focus in a lymph node somewhere, from infection in infancy, childhood or youth. Only a few of these ever develop active, clinical tuberculosis. Why doesn't every one who is infected with tuberculosis in early life succumb to the disease? Because the great majority so infected have sufficient immunity to protect them from ordinary, small, not too frequently repeated infections or from infections with tubercle bacilli of too virulent a type or strain.

Let's say nothing at all about "resistance" here. That doesn't mean a thing. Immunity means something. It has a definite specific significance. "Resistance" is a trick word when doctors use it, a malapropism when laymen use it in this way. Whenever anybody utters the word "resistance" in discussing susceptibility to disease I know at once that the discussion will be unprofitable. Every written or spoken argument or exposition of the cause and prevention of respiratory infection in which the word "resistance" is used is just so much medical hooey, in my judgment, and heaven knows our internal medical literature is stuffed full enough with such piffle, without mixing it in everything we feed the laity.

Equally hackneyed and inane is the familiar teaching that "plenty of pure fresh air, plain wholesome food and regular sleep" protects against tuberculosis. Ask the "expert" (usually some one other than a bona fide physician) that says this to explain what he means by pure fresh air and good wholesome food and after he has floundered about you will know no more about it than he does.

A large part of the food that passes as choice, refined, pure, wholesome and especially "easily digestible" today, nutrition authorities tell us, is actually deficient in or devoid of essential nutritive elements, particularly minerals and vitamins. Instead of sounding off everlastingly about "good wholesome food" the composers of anti-tuberculosis propaganda might use some of the ink they have at their disposal to inform people of the vital importance of sufficient daily intake of minerals and vitamins as well as proteins, fats and carbohydrates, to maintain good nutrition and immunity against tuberculosis. They might even take a chance and teach people the superior value of all dairy products and green groceries in this respect, especially fresh raw milk from tuberculin-tested cows (or cream, butter, sour milk, skim milk, buttermilk, cottage cheese, Dutch cheese from the same tuberculin-free source) or the fresh raw milk to elect him, and intends to be guided by that finding in passing the jobs around, so it is said.

5. There has been a quiet, private resentment among the many, and influential boosters of Heil, because of the fact that Heil has never, since the election, publicly acknowledged his debt to the Coalition candidate who withdrew and made Heil's election easier.

Robert K. Henry is a candidate; he is making no secret of it, and the fact that Republicans strategists are remembering this in their current deliberations shows that they have a proper sense of political realities, and that Bob LaFollette is going to have a run for his money next summer.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Temporary Teeth
Daughter, 7, lost two upper front teeth ten months ago, and no sign that they are growing. Is the time past for her to get her permanent teeth to fill these spaces? (E. G.)
Answer—If she has cut her "six-year molars" the incisors will probably come in before the eight years old. See that she gets an extra ration of vitamin D daily and her place in the sun. It pays to have the family dentist's advice about such a question. A little care by the dentist now may save much expense later.
(Copyright, 1939.)

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, 265 El Camino, South, Beverly Hills, Calif.
(Copyright, 1939.)

What Is Your News I. Q.?

Each question counts 20; each part of a two-part question, 10. A score of 80 is fair; 90 good. Answers on market page.

1. Where has she agreed to break a bottle of champagne next September?

2. What group seeks "the granting of peaceful death?"

3. Tennessee recently repealed the law forbidding the teaching of evolution under which the famous Scopes case was tried. True or false?

4. What was the XP-38?

5. A national professional group heard a complaint against what governor?

Answers: 1. Mrs. LaFollette. 2. The "Granting of Peaceful Death" League. 3. True. 4. A fighter plane. 5. William B. E. (Copyright, 1939.)

Affidavit Plan Of Paying Taxes Before Aldermen

Council to Meet Next Week to Consider Extension Without Interest

Although authority to extend the payment of real estate and personal property taxes to July 1 without penalty has been given cities by the state legislature, Appleton has not yet adopted the affidavit plan. It is expected the common council will meet early next week to consider adoption of the plan so that taxpayers who cannot raise their payments may take advantage of the state's offer.

However, when the council discussed the situation last Wednesday, members did not indicate whether they would or would not adopt the plan which would involve extending unpaid taxes to July 1 without an interest charge. Joseph A. Koss, city treasurer, said this morning that taxpayers, who have taken advantage of the city's plan extending the payment of half their taxes, will not have to sign affidavits. Many persons called the treasurer today to ask that question.

If the city adopts the plan, taxpayers desiring to take advantage of the extension must file an affidavit in duplicate to show he cannot raise the money to pay. The treasurer said today that if the city adopts the plan, property owners who have not paid their taxes, will be given adequate time to file affidavits before the deadline for giving delinquent accounts to the county treasurer.

Judicial Candidates

Certified; 2 Oppose Justice Rosenberry

Madison—(P)—The secretary of state's office today certified the list of state candidates for the April 4 judicial election in which two aspirants are opposing re-election of Chief Justice J. B. Rosenberry. The chief justice is seeking a fourth term on the supreme court. Running against him are William H. Markham, of Horicon, and Gerhard A. Hagehorn, of Milwaukee. Contests also are pending in the 10th and 16th judicial circuits. Judge E. V. Werner, of Appleton, is opposed in the 10th circuit by Joseph R. McCarthy, of Shawano and A. N. Whiting, of Antigo. In the 16th circuit Alfred W. Gerhard, of Wausau, is running against Judge George J. Leicht, of Wausau. Judges Emery W. Crosby, of Neillsville and James Wickham, of Eau Claire, are unopposed in the 17th and 18th circuits.

Broker Suspended by Securities Commission

Washington—(P)—The securities commission suspended William E. Hutton, 11, today from membership on the New York Stock Exchange and other exchanges for three months. The commission had charged manipulation of the stock of Atlas Tack corporation.

In its order, the commission discontinued proceedings against W. E. Hutton and Company, and John Christie Duncan and Carroll V. Teran, partners of the firm. The firm has offices in Detroit. The commission also suspended J. Michaels, for one month, from membership on national securities exchanges. Michaels is a member of William J. Muller and Company, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, the San Francisco Stock Exchange and the San Francisco Curb exchange. The Cavalier firm was not involved in the commission's proceedings.

Barber Recalls Talk

He Had With New Pope
Newton, Mass.—(P)—John Oliver, 25, Newton Center barber, today recalled that when Cardinal Pacelli, now Pope Pius XII, had his hair trimmed during his 1936 visit here, his only order was "don't cut it too short."

Oliver recalled he had quite a conversation with the future pope during the operation. They talked about—the weather.

School for Election

Board Workers Held

A school for election board members was held last night in city hall. Instructions on how to conduct an election were given and questions were answered by Carl J. Becher, city clerk, Harry P. Hoeftel, city attorney, and John E. Hantschel, county clerk. The primary election will be held March 14. Registration of voters closed this noon.

Farm Hands Reporting

At Employment Office

Regular farm hands are reporting their availability to the Wisconsin State Employment Service, according to F. R. Gehrke, manager of the Appleton office. The demand for farm hands is expected to increase sharply when the spring planting season opens. Gehrke stated.

Two Appleton Women

Get Pilot Licenses

Two Appleton women, Mrs. Harold Reiss, 22 N. Bellare court, and Miss Ester Knepple, route 3, have learned to pilot planes this winter at the Outagamie County airport. Mrs. Reiss, whose husband owns a plane, was granted a solo license, and Miss Knepple was granted a private license.

Here's New One: Fee

For Right to Drink

Berlin, Md.—(P)—John Barleycorn may have a new hurdle here. County legislators have been asked to pass a law requiring liquor drinkers to buy a $2 license.

Thirteen Students On A Honor Roll at Grand View School

Thirteen pupils were on the A honor roll at the Grand View school, town of Ellington, during the last month, according to Miss Hazel Schroeder, teacher. They are Phyllis Bungert, Ila Mae Sauberlich, Jerold, Lloyd and Joyce Jentz, LeRoy Bohl, Clarence and Donald Bungert, Donald, Bernice and Earl Timm, Norma Immel and LaJoy Schroeder. Pupils on the B honor roll are Arde, Riesenweber, Janet Breitrick, Vernon Jentz and Derald Ahrens.

Those perfect in attendance for the period are Joyce, Lloyd, Jerold and Vernon Jentz, Robert and Derald Ahrens, Ila Mae Sauberlich, Forrest Breitrick, Janet Breitrick, Phyllis and Lois Bungert, Clarence and Donald Bungert, LeRoy Bohl and Donald and Norman Immel.

Veteran of War With Spain Dies

William Buske, 68, Succumbs at Waupaca War Veterans Home

William Buske, 68, died at 1:45 this morning at the Wisconsin Veterans home at Waupaca after a short illness.

He was born April 24, 1870, in Germany and came to Appleton with his parents at the age of 13 years. He lived in Appleton until Sept. 1, 1937, when he moved to Waupaca. He was a stone cutter by trade and retired about two years ago. Buske was a member of the Spanish-American War Veterans and served in the Spanish-American army and was in service nine years.

Survivors are the widow and one step son, Paul Castle, Milwaukee. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Bretschneider Funeral home with the Rev. John B. Hanna, pastor of the First Congregational church in charge. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery. The Spanish-American War Veterans will be in charge of services at the grave. The body will be at the funeral home from Sunday noon until the time of the funeral.

DEATHS

WILLIAM C. VERCH

William C. Verch, 78, 720 W. Third street, died at 4:45 this morning at his home after a lingering illness. Born Aug. 28, 1861 in Germany, he came to America when 19 years old and located at Marion. He had lived in Appleton for the last 16 years and was employed at the Appleton Coated Paper mill for 15 years. He was a member of Emmanuel Evangelical church.

Survivors are the widow; three daughters, Mrs. Harry Winkler, Sheridan; Mrs. Alvin Belke, Mrs. W. L. Olson, Appleton; one sister, Mrs. Wilhelmina Siedenkrantz, Marion; ten grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at 1:45 Tuesday afternoon at the Wichmann Funeral home and at 2 o'clock at Emmanuel Evangelical church with the Rev. G. H. Blum in charge. Burial will be in the Riverside receiving vault. The body will be at the funeral home from Sunday noon until the time of the services.

MISS FLORENCE WILLIAMS

Miss Florence Williams, 69, Kimbly died at 12:15 Friday afternoon in Appleton after a short illness. She was born Aug. 21, 1869 in Appleton and for many years had made her home in Kimbly. Survivors are six sisters, Mrs. John Stoffel, Mrs. John Diekmann, Appleton; Mrs. Fred Smith, Wrightstown; Mrs. Joseph Mennen, Miss Viola Williams, Kimbly; Sister Mary Regina, Racine; three brothers, Hubert Williams, John Peronto, Kimbly; John Williams, Reanoke Rapids, N. C. Funeral services will be conducted at 9 o'clock Monday morning at the Holy Name church, Kimbly, with the Rev. C. B. Vandenberg officiating. Burial will be in the parish cemetery. Rosary will be recited at 7:30 Saturday and Sunday evening at the residence where the body will be until the time of the funeral services.

HERMAN WENDLANDT

Herman Wendlandt, 68, died yesterday at the home of a niece, Mrs. Carl Gerlach, Cleveland, Ohio, after an illness of three months. He was born August 20, 1870, in Germany and lived in Appleton for a period of 54 years. He moved to Cleveland about six months ago. The only survivor is a brother, William Wendlandt, Appleton.

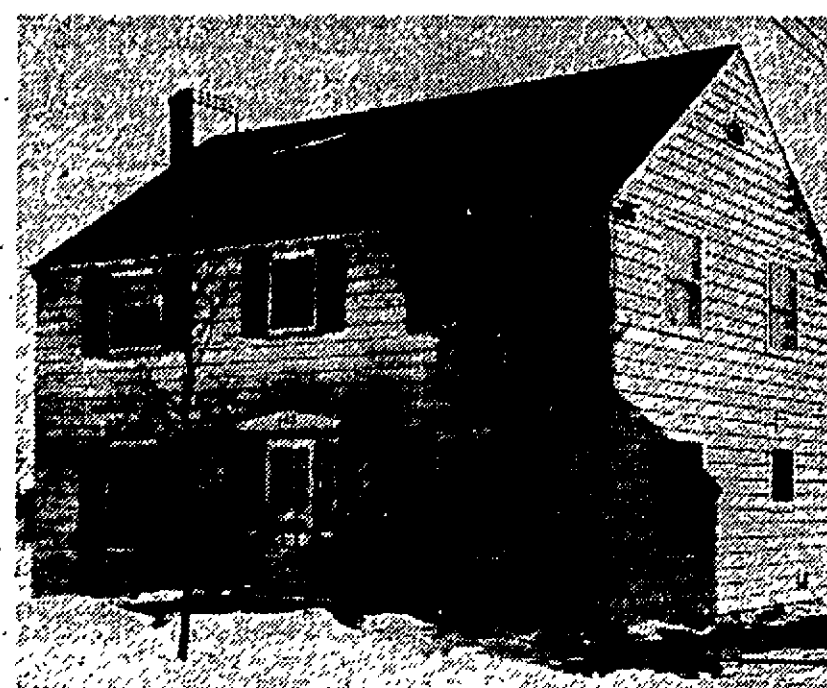

The body is being brought from Cleveland and will be at the Schommer Funeral home from 2:30 Sunday afternoon to the time of the funeral. Services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Schommer Funeral home with the Rev. F. C. Reuter, pastor of the First English Lutheran church, in charge. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

OTTO FUNERAL

Funeral services for Ernest C. Otto, 72, who resided at St. Elizabeth hospital and died Wednesday were held at 8:30 this morning at the Schommer Funeral home and at 10 o'clock at St. Mary Catholic church with the Rev. Lambert Scanlon in charge. The Rev. Gottlieb Steinwachs, chaplain at the hospital, was in charge of services at the St. Joseph cemetery chapel. Members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral in a body. Honorary bearers were members of the Elks, Richard Sykes, George Schmidt, Maurice Peerenboom, James Warg, Thomas Long and Bert Dutcher. Active bearers were George Baldwin, Gustave Keller, Charles Green, Robert Matz, James Monaghan and Daniel P. Seiberg, Sr.

EARLE FUNERAL

Funeral services for Mr. Oren Earle, 78, 321 E. North street, who died Wednesday, were held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Wichmann Funeral home with the Rev. F. C. Reuter officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery. Ladies aid society and missionary

NEW HARDER HOME ON PARKWAY

One of the new homes on Parkway is the new G. J. Harder residence pictured above, at 505 Parkway. The Colonial style, 2-story home has a living room, dining room, kitchen, and powder room on the first floor, two bedrooms, a den, and a bathroom on the second. The living room has a fireplace, oil burning, air-conditioned heating equipment is installed. The basement has a recreation room. The Harders have occupied the home since November. Ted Utschig was the contractor. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Soo Line Remodeling Depot to Provide for Offices, Operations

Remodeling of the Soo Line depot into a combined passenger and freight depot that will also house the company offices has been started, according to G. J. Baker, local freight agent. Work will be completed in about 10 days. A partition is being erected across the former waiting room and the ceiling being lowered to form the offices for the staff. Freight handling will be facilitated by the erection of a 135 foot truck level platform. The present company offices are located on Locust street.

More Snow Will Follow Tonight's Temperature Drop

Chicago Forecaster Predicts Precipitation From Coast to Coast

A swirling snowstorm that was in progress during the morning abated this afternoon as the temperature fell to 26 degrees in Appleton, according to a reading atop the Post-Crescent roof at noon. Wisconsin's weatherman said it will remain cloudy and colder tonight with more snow by Sunday afternoon or night in Appleton and vicinity. However, Chicago's forecaster, J. R. Lloyd predicted there would be no snow or rain from coast to coast within the next 12 hours. He said Wisconsin and other north central states were due for a substantial drop in temperature. The thick foggy nature of the snow this morning stuck to windshields and caused hazardous driving conditions. Rear vision mirrors were of little use because rear windows were covered with snow. Industrious Appleton citizens were back-weary again today as they brought out the shovels and bent to the task of clearing walks. Chief of Police George T. Prim and Captain Charles Staid of the county traffic squad warned motorists to drive carefully as the snow has put the streets and highways in a slippery condition. While there was some drifting in the county, it wasn't sufficient to seriously hamper traffic.

Boys' Committee Will Hear Area Secretary

S. D. Miller, Milwaukee, area program secretary of the YMCA, will lead a discussion on departmental problems and future programs at a 6:30 dinner meeting of the boys' work committee Monday evening at the YMCA. Committee members are Dr. H. F. Lewis, Karl Richmond, F. F. Martin, Cecil Furminger, Louis Waltman, Jr., R. D. McGee, Henry Boon, C. D. Flory, Walter Reetz, Walter Elder, John Goodrich, Carl Sherry and C. G. Bertram.

11 Prospective Pilots In Training at Airport

Eleven prospective pilots have had from 6 to 20 hours in the air in a class for airplane pilots being conducted by Elwyn West, manager of the Outagamie County airport. They are Roger Behl, Charles Ammerman, Don Schancke, J. Burdon Dale Dodge, Ted Murphy, Robert Deuster, Tom Peterman, Fred Lange, Francis Smongesky and Red Rung.

Program of Readings Given for Lawrentians

Betty Ann Johnson, Mayville, president of the Sunset club, Lawrence college dramatic organization, presented a program of readings at a convocation Friday morning at Lawrence Memorial chapel. Her selections were "Department Store Rhapsody," "Mrs. Vanderbush Johnson," and a comic sketch of a Philadelphia mother helping her son with his arithmetic problems.

Croatians Entertain At Roosevelt School

The Croatian Ensemble, a group of singers and dancers from southern Czechoslovakia, entertained Roosevelt Junior High school pupils during a lyceum program Friday morning in the school auditorium. The group presented the histories of the various instruments used and performed several folk dances.

To Meet on March 13

Hortonville—The Hortonville Village caucus will meet Monday, March 13, in the village hall to nominate village officers. A story in the Post-Crescent this week incorrectly set the date of the meeting as March 15.

Henry Van Rooy, Pioneer, Is Dead

Was Resident of Appleton For 65 Years; Funeral Monday

Henry Van Rooy, 83, 714 N. Fair street, died at 8:27 this morning at his home after a week's illness. He was born Oct. 17, 1856 at Green Bay and had lived in Appleton for the last 65 years. He was married Nov. 15, 1880 to Hannah Vandenberg and the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1930. He had been employed for 35 years at the Interlake Pulp and Paper mill and was a member of St. Therese church, Catholic Knights of Wisconsin and the Holy Name society. Survivors are the widow; six daughters, Mrs. William Weller, Stevens Point; Mrs. William Timmers, Mrs. Margaret Voss and Miss Ruth Van Rooy, Appleton; Mrs. William Zlevor, Racine; Mrs. Ed Jones, Springfield, Mo.; four sons, J. Martin and Lawrence R. Appleton; James A. Minneapolis; Father Daniel, O. Praem, Chicago; one sister, Mrs. Hubert Stein, Appleton; 24 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at 8:30 Monday morning at the Wichmann Funeral home and at 9 o'clock at St. Therese church with a solemn high mass conducted by the Rev. Daniel Van Rooy, Chicago, and two Dominican Fathers assisting. Rosary will be recited at 7:30 Sunday evening by the Catholic Knights of Wisconsin and at 8 o'clock by the Holy Name society at the funeral home where the body will be from tonight until the time of the services.

THE WEATHER

SATURDAY'S TEMPERATURES

	Coldest	Warmest
Chicago	38	46
Denver	16	35
Duluth	16	35
Galveston	60	65
Kansas City	33	58
Milwaukee	34	46
Minneapolis	24	36
Seattle	36	48
Washington	36	48
Winnipeg	-24	-2

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Cloudy and colder tonight; Sunday unsettled, snow by afternoon or night; colder east part of state. A trough of low pressure which now extends from southern Wisconsin to western Texas has caused rain over the southern states and snow over the upper Lakes, upper Mississippi valley, northern plains states and northern and central Rocky mountains and Canadian North-west. Generally fair weather prevails this morning along the Pacific coast and over the New England states. It is now warmer over all sections east and northern plains states and over central and western Canada, with -32 degrees reported at Edmonton, Alta., and -24 degrees at Winnipeg, Man. Mostly cloudy and colder is expected in this section during the next 24 hours, with snow Sunday afternoon or night.

There are Different Reasons for Speeding

Berkeley, Calif.—(P)—A young woman told Municipal Judge Oliver Young she raced 40 miles an hour to get her injured dog to a veterinary. "Kindness to animals is admirable," rule the judge. "Case dismissed."

Group Will Organize Athletic Association

Organization of an Appleton athletic association to promote sports and recreation in Appleton for juveniles will be discussed at a meeting of men interested at 7:30 Monday evening at the office of Thomas Ryan, Appleton attorney, in the Peterson building. It is expected the group will elect officers and plan a membership program.

DIES FROM INJURIES

Milwaukee—(P)—Paul Hensley, 49, died at a hospital here today several hours after he was found unconscious beside Milwaukee road tracks. Police said he apparently had been struck by or had fallen from a train.

IF you want to BUY or SELL use the CLASSIFIED WANT ADS daily

Our thoughtful management of a service does much to soften the blow of bereavement

Every Consideration

BREITSCHEIDER
Funeral Home
PHONE 304-B - APPLETON, WIS.
"Over 35 Years of Faithful Service"

Continue Search For Relatives of Accident Victim

Little Known About Seymour Farmhand Killed in Crash

Funeral arrangements still were being held up today for Frank Miss, about 40, one of two persons killed in a traffic crash near Seymour early Thursday as authorities continued efforts to further identify him and locate relatives.

Miss, employed on the Alfred Mueller farm, route 2, Seymour, was killed with Lawrence Mueller, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mueller, in a head-on collision on Highway 55 two miles north of Seymour. Four other persons were injured in the accident and are reported to be recovering at a Green Bay hospital.

Miss was employed for several months at the Mueller farm and was known as a "floater," a farmhand who never remains long at one place. A search of his personal effects revealed no trace of his past life or relatives. A check was being made today through fingerprints taken of him and through a social security card number he carried.

An inquest in the fatal accident will be held upon the recovery of the injured persons, Ray Dohr, district attorney, said.

Births

A daughter was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Van Dyke, Little Chute.

A son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. James Whittaker, Kaukauna.

A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smaxwell, Combined Locks.

A daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dunsmuir, 315 E. Harris street, at St. Elizabeth hospital.

A daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Retzlaff, route 2, Black Creek, at St. Elizabeth hospital.

A son was born Saturday morning at Berlin to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Franz. Mrs. Franz was the former Miss Dorothy Wallace of Appleton.

Anyway, It Was Fun

Drawing That Beard

Chicago—(P)—Pedestrians gaped as Joseph Algori hoisted himself 30 feet in a painter's scaffold to a newly-painted advertising sign.

Soon they roared with laughter as Algori used a few deft strokes to give the girl in the advertisement Van Dyke beard and mustache.

The two policemen summoned by the sign painters were waiting for him when he came down.

For not resisting the impulse Algori faces charges of malicious mischief, disorderly conduct and intoxication.

Postpone Meeting for Study of State Bills

The meeting of the legislative committee on the Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Manitowish and Appleton Chambers of Commerce scheduled for this morning at the Conway hotel was postponed because of inclement weather. The meeting for a future date will be set later by Kenneth H. Corbett, secretary of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce.

Discuss Formation of Brillion Scout Troop

The possibility of organizing an additional boy scout troop at Brillion was discussed at a meeting this afternoon of interested citizens from Brillion and F. N. Belanger, chairman of the organization committee. Herb Heilig, chairman of the scout leadership training committee, and Walter Dixon, scout executive.

Eight Legion Teams To Enter State Meet

Eight bowling teams from Oney Johnston post, No. 38, will be entered in the state American Legion bowling tournament April 30 at Beaver Dam. The teams are being organized under the direction of John Bauer, state bowling director.

Robert Deuster Buys 3-Passenger Airplane

Robert Deuster, 212 N. Superior street, has purchased an airplane which is being housed at the Outagamie County airport, according to Elwyn West, manager at the Outagamie County airport. It is a three passenger plane and was purchased through the West brothers. Deuster has been a pilot for six months.

DIES FROM INJURIES

Paul Hensley, 49, died at a hospital here today several hours after he was found unconscious beside Milwaukee road tracks. Police said he apparently had been struck by or had fallen from a train.

IF you want to BUY or SELL use the CLASSIFIED WANT ADS daily

Our thoughtful management of a service does much to soften the blow of bereavement

Every Consideration

BREITSCHEIDER
Funeral Home
PHONE 304-B - APPLETON, WIS.
"Over 35 Years of Faithful Service"

Conservatory to Conduct Contests For Scholarships

College Also Offering Prizes for Winners In Competition

Lawrence college and the conservatory of music will hold scholarship prize contests for high school graduates Saturday, March 18, with the prizes totaling more than $4,000 in value. The conservatory will award 18 prizes amounting to $2,350 and the college 16 prizes valued at $1,700.

The conservatory will award a first prize of $200 and a second prize of $150 in each of the following fields: piano, voice, organ, stringed instruments and wind instruments. In addition, four prizes of $100 and four honorable mention prizes of $50 will be awarded.

The college will offer a grand prize of $200 for the best paper in any of the following fields: chemistry, physics, French, German, Latin, English and American history. Five prizes of $150 each, five prizes of $100 each, and five honorable mention prizes of $50 will also be awarded.

The contest is open to all high school seniors of the current year or to those 1938 high school graduates who are not now enrolled in college who rank in the upper quarter of their high school class. Judges for the contest will be members of the faculty of Lawrence college and the conservatory of music.

Last year's scholarship prize contest for the conservatory brought out a total of 71 entries from 4 states. Contestants presented selections of their own choice in an all day program.

Two Autos Damaged in Collision Near Medina

Two automobiles were damaged in a traffic accident on Highway 10 at the east limits of Medina at 4:45 yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Earl Ruppel, Medina, was going east and attempted to make a left turn into a driveway and the rear of her car was struck by another being driven east by Clarence Bachmann, 1313 N. Richmond street, according to Jack Frenz, county traffic officer.

Lions Directors Will Hear Committee Heads

The board of directors of the Lions club will meet Monday, March 13 at the Conway hotel. Reports of committee chairmen will be given at the business session.

Members of the club who will be unable to attend the joint formal luncheon of the service clubs on Tuesday will have a round table luncheon on Monday at the Conway.

Cage Tourney to Wind Up Winter Gym Season

A class in basketball tournament for boys will wind up the winter physical education program at Roosevelt Junior High school, according to Robert Kunitz, physical education instructor. Boxing and wrestling instruction will be started soon as well as badminton, track and volleyball tournaments.

Army Is Seeking Higher Donations In Annual Appeal

More Money Needed This Year to Help Pay Cost of Building

An effort to double contributions to the Salvation Army's fund in the annual appeal will be made by workers in the drive which officially will start March 7, according to Captain T. A. Rader, head of the organization.

Many of the advance contributions received this morning indicated that donors are doubling their donations to help the Army raise enough to pay off its building debt. Captain Rader said.

The quota this year is $11,000 of which $7,000 will go into the building fund. The remainder will be used to carry on the Army's work of mercy during 1939.

Captain Rader asked all team captains, majors, workers and industrial representatives to report to Army headquarters before Tuesday morning for supplies, literature and instructions. Those who attend the "kickoff" dinner Monday evening at the Temple will receive supplies and instructions there. Assignments to territories also will be made.

The Army telephone number is 1784 and Captain Rader said that literature and supplies will be dispatched to any member of the committees on request if the team member cannot come to headquarters.

E. W. Shannon, president of the board, said the army is seeking at least 100 contributions of $25, 100 of $10 and the same number up to $5 this year.

Steals Cheese but Doesn't Get Chance To Enjoy Eating It

George Mackey, a transient who gave his address as Ishpeming, Mich., walked into a local store yesterday and attempted to walk out again with a cake of cheese beneath his coat. He was seen taking the cheese and police who were called picked him up.

This morning he pleaded guilty of vagrancy and petty larceny in municipal court of Judge Thomas H. Ryan. Judge Ryan gave him 30 days in the county workhouse camp on the first count and 20 days on the second, the sentences to run consecutively.

Three other transients pleaded guilty of vagrancy in municipal court and each was sentenced to 30 days in the detention camp. They are Joseph Norton, DePere; Herbert Henricks, Madison; and Frank Geriff, no address.

New London Man Faces Embezzlement Charge

Waupaca—Arthur L. Turner, advertising solicitor for the New London Press-Republican, was charged with embezzling $48 when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace S. W. Johnson this morning. The complaint was signed by W. T. Comstock, Turner's employer. The case was set for 10 o'clock Monday morning, March 13. Turner is being held at the county jail in default of a $200 bond.

Buys One Car, Wins Another in Contest

Paula, Kas.—(P)—Mary Coker, graduate nurse, has transportation aplenty. She drove her newly purchased car from the dealer's straight home, there found a telegram announcing she had won another car in a contest.

Permits to Remodel Homes are Granted

Esther C. Niles, 821 W. Fifth street, this morning was given a permit to remodel her home and to build a stairway. Cost of the work is estimated at $150. Mrs. Theresa Deiner, 1003 W. Harris street, was given a permit to remodel her home at an estimated cost of $100.

Mayor John Goodland, Jr. 705 N. Oneida street, is ill at his home.

Four Relief Cases Settled During Week In Waupaca County

Waupaca—Four relief cases have been settled during the week, according to County Clerk L. J. Steiger. Fred Armstrong, examiner for the industrial commission, was present to determine legal settlement. One entire day was spent arguing legal settlement in a case for which but $17 was forthcoming. Decision as to legal settlement was deferred to give more time for investigation whether a certain family lived in New London or Clintonville, while townships in Portage county were re-sued. Among the cases settled out of court was that of $75 against Plover, Portage county.

Attorney George Martens, Stevens Point, lost his life on his return home Monday afternoon from this hearing when his automobile was involved in a collision with

Report Assets of $635,000 for City Water Works Unit

Value of Neenah Utility Is Set at $571,000 by Superintendent

Neenah—Assets amounting to $635,000 for the city water works unit were listed in the report of F. E. Mace, superintendent, to the water works commission. The value of the utility plant itself was set at $571,000 while other assets included $21,880.50 in cash, $23,747.87 in accounts receivable, $5,692.10 in receivables from the municipality and $12,683.63 in materials and supplies.

Chief among the liabilities are $412,237.02 in capital paid in by the municipality, $39,000 in long-term debt and $44,291.50 set aside in the depreciation reserve. Earned surplus of the plant is $69,659.01. Earnings of the plant during 1933 were $7,774.13 less than in 1937. "Most of the decrease was to be expected because of the decrease in rates," Mr. Mace said. In addition, pumpage was off more than 20 percent or approximately $2,500 during the third quarter because of the wet summer. Water sales in 1938 amounted to $64,759.81 as compared with $71,533.94 for 1937.

Earnings included $29,988.10 in residential metered water sales, $6,482.64 in commercial metered water sales, $5,183.98 in industrial metered water sales, $1,815.73 in metered public water sales, $19,598.96 in public fire protection and $1,035.60 in private fire protection.

Chief items among the expenses are $3,342.26 for labor and superintendence at the pumping plant, $3,074.91 for power purchase at the end of 1938, $5,072.35 for labor and superintendence at the softening and filtration plant, approximately $5,000 for chlorine, lime, alum and similar chemical supplies, $3,062.39 in transmission and distribution and $1,917.67 in maintenance of mains. Total operating expenses were $26,878.80, an increase of about $1,000 over 1937.

Nearly one mile of mains was laid during the year. The department had 175,637 feet of distribution mains, 227 hydrants in use and 2,200 meters in use at the end of 1938.

Water pumpage during the year was 172,902,000 gallons, a definite decrease from 1937 when the pumpage was 198,234,000.

The average daily pumpage for 1938 was 473,567 gallons as compared with 543,107 gallons for the previous years. The largest day's pumpage was on June 20 when 773,000 gallons were pumped and the smallest day's pumpage was 323,000 gallons on April 10.

Lucille Rusch Sets Pace for K-C Office Girls Bowling Loop

K-C Office League

W. L.
Green Sox 52 23
Red Sox 37 38
White Sox 37 38
Yellow Sox 36 39
Brown Sox 32 43
Blue Sox 31 44

Neenah—Lucille Rusch hit the maples for the high count in the K-C office league at the Neenah alleys Friday night when she cracked games of 174, 174 and 183 for 531. Helen Peterson had the second high series with a 491 while J. Bylow rolled a 488.

G. Hahn hit the high single game with a 188 mark while Deane rolled a 187 game. The Green Sox hit the high team game and series with 800 and 2,267 scores. The White Sox had the second high series with a 2,139 mark.

Results last night:
Yellow Sox (2) 767 725 767
White Sox (1) 662 751 726
Green Sox (3) 703 781 800
Red Sox (0) 672 694 694
Brown Sox (2) 686 749 702
Blue Sox (1) 647 715 756

Communion Will Be Celebrated at Baptist Service

Roy Douglas to Lead Young People's Meeting Sunday Night

Neenah—Holy communion will be celebrated at the 10:40 morning worship service in Whiting Memorial Baptist church Sunday. The Rev. W. L. Harms is pastor. Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m. The young people's society will meet at 8 o'clock with Roy Douglas as leader. Prayer meeting will be held at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

"The Same Faith" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Samuel H. Roth, pastor, at the 10:30 morning worship service in St. Paul's English Lutheran church Sunday morning.

Sunday school will be at 8:50, morning matins and sermon at the same hour and Sunday school at 9 o'clock. A vesper service at 7:30 Sunday evening will feature a sermon by Dwight H. Shelhart, field missionary, as the missionary societies of the church open their annual campaign for missions. The other mission meetings will be at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon and at 2:30 Wednesday evening.

The Wednesday evening lenten service at St. Paul's church will be at 7:30 with the Rev. Samuel H. Roth, pastor, speaking on "At Night in Gethsemane."

Council to Meet
The church council will meet at 7 o'clock Monday evening, the senior choir will practice at 8:45 Wednesday evening, the young people's choir at 8:15 Thursday evening and the Luther league will meet at 7 o'clock. The adult class will meet at 7:30 Friday evening and the confirmation classes at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Sunday school will be at 9:30 and morning worship in English at 10:30 Sunday morning in Immanuel Lutheran church. At the worship service, the Rev. E. C. Kollath will present a sermon on "The Faith That Wins." The senior choir will be in charge. The Brotherhood will meet at 7:30 Monday evening and the LPA society will hold a supper meeting and social at 6:30 Thursday evening. At the midweek lenten service at 7:30 Wednesday evening, the Rev. Mr. Kollath will speak on "The Choice of a Traitor" as he continues his lenten series on "Great Choices of the Last Week."

Evening Service
"Following Jesus in His Understanding of Religion" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Carl F. Zietlow, pastor of First Evangelical church at the 10:30 divine worship hour Sunday morning. At the 7:30 Sunday evening lenten service, the sermon topic will be "The Sin of Indifference."

The Evangelical Leagues of Christian Endeavor of First Evangelical church will meet at 6:45 Sunday evening to discuss "What I Do When I am in the Wrong."

At Our Saviour's Lutheran church Sunday morning, Sunday school will be at 9 o'clock and worship service at 10:15 with the Rev. Arnold Andersen, pastor, discussing "A Beautiful Battle of Faith." The Bible hour will be at 7:30 Sunday evening. The quarterly congregation meeting is planned for 7:30 Monday evening, March 6.

At the 7:45 lenten evening service Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Courtenay has chosen as his meditation topic, "I am the Light of the World" as he continues with his general theme "The Personal Claims of Christ." William Guyer will sing a solo, "Supplication" by Gilman.

Christian Fellowship club will meet at 6:30 Sunday evening with Jane Bishop as leader. A special program has been prepared for the

Twin City CYO Teams Will Play Oshkosh Entries

St. Mary, St. Patrick Squads Oppose Visiting Teams at Menasha

Menasha—Twin City C. Y. O. basketball teams will clash with Oshkosh C. Y. O. teams Sunday afternoon in games at St. Mary gymnasium, Menasha, and at Oshkosh.

At the St. Mary, Menasha gymnasium Sunday afternoon the Sacred Heart team of Oshkosh will play the former Zephyrs and St. Vincent's of Oshkosh will oppose the St. Patrick team at 4 o'clock.

The St. Mary team, in second place in the Twin City circuit, has won six games and lost four in C. Y. O. competition this season. Their Oshkosh opponents have won five games and lost five games and are in a tie for fourth place in the Oshkosh league.

The Shamrocks of St. Patrick parish, unbeaten in Twin City competition with six straight wins, have won nine games this season and lost one. Their opponents are tied for fourth place in the Oshkosh league but have won six games, including those against Twin City teams, and have lost two.

The revived St. John team of Menasha will play St. Joseph of Oshkosh at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Oshkosh. The Polish lads have won two successive games by decisive margins and have a season record of three wins and eight defeats.

The St. Margaret Mary team of Neenah will play the St. Mary of Oshkosh team in the 4 o'clock game Sunday at Oshkosh. The Neenah Saints have won three games and lost eight. Their opponents are in second place in the Oshkosh league with five wins and three losses. Their season record is six victories and five defeats.

In the 2 o'clock game at Oshkosh, St. Peter's, leaders of the Oshkosh division with six victories and one defeat, will play the cellar St. John team of Oshkosh which has lost 10 successive games.

Because of church services Sunday afternoon, the girls' games at Menasha will be played after the boys' games. At 5 o'clock the St. Margaret Mary girls will play the girls team from St. John parish. At 5:45 the Marygolds of St. Mary parish will play the St. Mary Scotics.

$17,188 Is Left in Courthouse Account

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau
Oshkosh—In a report filed today at the office of A. E. Hedke, Winnebago county clerk, the courthouse building committee showed that it did not spend the entire amount authorized for its use in construction of the county's new "million dollar" courthouse. The county board appropriated $850,000 for the job and the committee's report shows only $832,812 spent, leaving a balance of $17,188.40. The report will be presented to the county board by the clerk.

Kappa Beta society meeting at 6:30 this evening.

The session of the church will meet at 7:15 Tuesday evening in the manse. Mothers' Circle will meet at 2:15 Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. John Westberg conducting devotions. The Rev. Mr. Courtenay will speak. Mrs. Henry Ritten, Mrs. James Larson, Mrs. Louis Lipinski, Mrs. F. R. Proctor and Mrs. K. M. Robinson will be hostesses.

Chorus choir will meet at 7 o'clock Thursday evening and the intermediate and junior choirs will meet together at 8:45 Sunday morning. The nine Circles of Women's society will meet Friday after which a tea for all members will be held at the church. New members class for young people and adults meets at 7:30 Friday evening and for intermediates and third year juniors at 4:15 Friday afternoon.

The special topic for the 7:30 Wednesday evening lenten service, in keeping with the general theme "We Walk with Him," will be "He Teaches Us the Importance of the Home." The Rev. Mr. Courtenay will conduct the service.

Catholic Masses
Masses will be at 5:45, 7:30 and 10 o'clock Sunday morning in St. Margaret Mary Catholic church of which the Rev. Joseph A. Gluckstein is pastor. The lenten service and benediction will be held at 7:30 Wednesday evening and the stations of the cross at 7:30 Friday evening.

"A Three-fold Tableau of Life" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Henry Johnson, pastor, at the 10:30 morning worship service in First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning. The choir will sing "The Glory of God in Nature" by Beethoven. Mrs. Arthur McLeod and Clarence Peterson will present a vocal duet, "The Nearer the Sweeter" by Ackley. Sunday school will meet at 9:30. The senior and high school Epworth Leagues will meet at 6:30.

At 7:30 Sunday evening, Circle 1 of the Ladies society will present a lenten pageant, "The Life of Christ," with members of the Immanuel Lutheran and First Methodist churches participating. Mrs. Albert Struss will be in charge.

Young People's Meeting
"Peter Preaches to the Gentiles" will be the study subject of the Sunday school classes at 2:30 Sunday afternoon in First Fundamental church of Neenah. The young people's societies will meet at 6:30 Sunday evening.

At the 7:30 Evangelical service, the Rev. W. G. Wittenborn, pastor, will present a sermon message on "Beyond the Veil—What?" Monday afternoon and evening the church will entertain the Fox River Valley Christian Fundamental association.

The midweek Bible and Prayer service will be held at 7:30 Wednesday evening. Ladies Prayer band will meet with Mrs. Marian Orbert, 413 Church street, Thursday at 7:30.

Young People's Meeting
"Peter Preaches to the Gentiles" will be the study subject of the Sunday school classes at 2:30 Sunday afternoon in First Fundamental church of Neenah. The young people's societies will meet at 6:30 Sunday evening.

At the 7:30 Evangelical service, the Rev. W. G. Wittenborn, pastor, will present a sermon message on "Beyond the Veil—What?" Monday afternoon and evening the church will entertain the Fox River Valley Christian Fundamental association.

The midweek Bible and Prayer service will be held at 7:30 Wednesday evening. Ladies Prayer band will meet with Mrs. Marian Orbert, 413 Church street, Thursday at 7:30.

Young People's Meeting
"Peter Preaches to the Gentiles" will be the study subject of the Sunday school classes at 2:30 Sunday afternoon in First Fundamental church of Neenah. The young people's societies will meet at 6:30 Sunday evening.

POPE RECEIVES CARDINAL'S HOMAGE

This picture, sent to the United States by telephone and radio from Rome, shows Pope Pius XII on his temporary throne in the Sistine Chapel, receiving homage from a kneeling cardinal following the traditional march there from St. Peter's. Previous to this, he had been ceremoniously clothed by the Cardinals. The Pontiff addressed the world over the Vatican radio station for five minutes from the Sistine Chapel, pleading for peace.

Fiction Titles are Included in New Releases at Smith Library

Menasha—New books to be released at Elisha D. Smith library Saturday evening include half a dozen fiction titles, all of them current best sellers. Most popular of the group is Phyllis Bottome's "Danger Signal," a book with an exciting theme, how to prevent a murder. How Dr. Silla, famous woman psychiatrist solved that problem, is the basis of Miss Bottome's first psychological novel since her best-selling "Private Worlds."

Other fiction titles to be released Saturday include "A Good Home with Nice People" by Josephine Lawrence, "The Moon in the Water" by Ruby Ayres, "Wait for the Tide" by Edith Holton and "The Other Brother" by Clarissa Cushman.

"Then There Were Three" by Godfrey Homes is a zesty new mystery starring the reporter-defective, Robin Bishop, who won fame and a following in "The Man Who Murdered Himself," "Marble Face" by Max Brand is the story of a middleweight champion turned cowboy, a tenderfoot so tough he couldn't be counted out.

Non-fiction releases cover a variety of subjects including the biography of a world-famous University of Wisconsin professor, the personal story of Queen Victoria's five daughters, two books on home building and decoration and a book on raising dogs in the city.

Richard T. Ely, influential economist, teacher at Johns Hopkins, Wisconsin, Northwestern and Columbia, calls his autobiography "Ground Under Our Feet."

E. F. Benson is the author of "Queen Victoria's Daughters," a vivid authentic volume that makes absorbing reading for five marriageable daughters are a problem, even for a queen.

Elizabeth Gordon and Dorothy Ducas are co-authors of "More House for Your Money," a book which gives information that everyone planning to buy or build a home should know. "Home Decoration, Its Problems and Solutions" by Ross Stewart and John Gerald is intended to be a comprehensive guide to all the basic principles with illustrations and up-to-date suggestions.

"How to Raise a Dog, in the City—in the Suburbs" by James R. Kinney is a practical manual written with a sense of humor by a leading veterinarian. The illustrations by James Thurber are anatomically incorrect but are psychologically accurate.

Hilton Pacer in Fellowship Loop
Takes Top Honors With High Game of 273, Series of 630

Neenah—Harley Hilton cracked the setups for a season high single game of 273 and a 630 series at the Neenah alleys in the Goodfellowship league Friday night. M. Kraemer had the second high series with a 587 while N. Tesdorp rolled a 237 for second high single game.

Hilton Agencies rolled the high team game and series with marks of 945 and 2,703. The Valley Cleaners had the second high series with a 2,643 while the K. of P. No. 1 team rolled a 2,642 series.

Results last night:
K. of P. 2 (4) 221 555 765
Bergstrom 1 (3) 284 832 854
Wis.-Mich. (4) 336 787 803
Valley Cleaners (3) 828 926 829

Bergstrom 2 (1) 913 823 763
Studebakers (2) 857 824 853
Hiltons (2) 945 819 918
K. of P. 1 (4) 845 911 886

Quinns (1) 859 894 794
E.R.A. (2) 877 776 905

Be A Careful Driver

Trinity Church Of Menasha Will Hold Communion

St. Thomas Episcopal Congregation to Attend Similar Service

Menasha—Holy communion will be celebrated in St. Thomas Episcopal church and in Trinity Lutheran church Sunday morning at worship services.

As Reminiscence Sunday is observed in Trinity Lutheran church, German service will be at 8:45 and English service at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Paul Bergmann, pastor, presenting the second of a series of lenten sermons on "Christ-Made Men." The topic Sunday will be "The Zealous Man-James." Sunday school will be at 9 o'clock.

Membership class will meet at 7:45 Tuesday evening, Missionary Circle at 2 o'clock Thursday and Ladies society at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. The midweek lenten service sermon at 7:30 Wednesday evening will be presented by the Rev. Amos Schwerin, assistant pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Neenah, who will discuss "The Men Before the Cross."

St. Thomas Services
Holy communion will be held at 8 o'clock and again at the 11 o'clock service in St. Thomas church Sunday morning with the Rev. A. A. Chambers, rector, presenting the sermon at 11 o'clock. Church school will be at 9:30 Tuesday evening, the lenten candlelight service will be held and on Thursday morning holy communion will be celebrated. The candlelight service will be preceded by the first lenten supper. Lenten suppers will be held throughout March.

As last year, the lenten discussion groups for adults in homes of members of the parish, are being held. Last week two groups met, one at the D. L. Kimberly home and another at the E. J. Ayward home.

"What is Man?" will be the sermon topic for the 10:45 morning worship service in First Congregational church Sunday as the Rev. W. A. Jacobs presents the second of the series of lenten sermons on the general theme "Great Religious Questions." Franklin Le Fevre will present a vocal solo "The Voice in the Wilderness" by Chambers and the chorus choir will sing the anthem "Beautiful Saviour."

Lambda Tau Pi
Lambda Tau Pi members will meet at 7 o'clock Sunday evening to begin work on plans for the Eastern Sunrise service. Mrs. Hugh B. Sutton, Norman Michie, Ruth Duemke and Peggy Gear are in charge.

Junior Group will meet at 7:30 Monday evening. The Congo Men's club will meet at 7:30 Tuesday evening. Group 1 will hold a 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday and Group 2 will meet at 7:30 Wednesday evening. The B. B. B. society will hold a St. Patrick party Friday evening.

Sue Floyd, Alita Moon, Zella Erickson, Blanche Calder and Harriett Blomstrom will be in charge of arrangements.

The second of the Thursday lenten devotional services will be held at 7:30 in the evening. The Rev. Mr. Jacobs will speak on "Awareness—The Significance of Lent."

At St. Patrick's Catholic church Sunday morning, the celebration of the mass will be at 6 o'clock, 7 o'clock, 8 o'clock, 9 o'clock, 10:30 and 11:30.

Masses at St. John's church will be said at 5:30, 8 o'clock and 10:30 Sunday morning. At St. Mary's church, masses will be at 6 o'clock, 7:30, 8:30 and 11 o'clock. Lenten sermons and benediction are held at the Catholic churches Wednesday evening and stations of the cross Friday evening.

Assistant Chief at Oshkosh on Pension
Oshkosh—(U)—Assistant Police Chief Fred Selwanke, who had been acting chief the past three months following the death of Chief Arthur H. Gabbert, resigned yesterday and went on pension. He was a member of the force 33 years.

Marionette Club Makes Plans For Puppet Show Presentation

Neenah—Six more puppets were in the making at the Twin City Y. W. C. A. this morning as the Marionette club held its weekly work session under the direction of Miss Ada Forth, and plans for a puppet show were discussed. Rehearsals for "The Intruder," 1-act play to be presented by the Dabblers Club, were held this afternoon and will continue Sunday afternoon.

The Dabblers met Friday evening at the "Y" for reading and casting of "The Piper" after which a party hour was held. Four Girl Reserve clubs met at the "Y" Friday afternoon. The Teen Club, Marion Kitchin and Dallas Campbell, advisers, were instructed in making judges. The OOOO's had a hot dish supper with their adviser, Ethel Pearson, in charge and the Busy Bees conducted dramatized talks on courtesy. Evelyn Tews, adviser, assisting them.

Discuss Charm
Charm was the subject discussed by the Blackheads Club. Muriel Miller, adviser. A joint meeting of these clubs is planned for Tuesday afternoon as Mrs. Dale Vawter discusses "The Golden Goose."

Significant Sophomores continued work on a surprise project at the meeting Thursday evening. Evelyn Goehring is the adviser. The first meeting of the ring club was held Thursday evening with 15 sophomores hearing a discussion of the "Y" as a world-wide movement, by Miss Evelyn Seedorf, associate secretary.

Menasha seventh and eighth grade clubs who call themselves the Jolly Juniors went on tour of the Floral Center greenhouse Thursday afternoon. The visit will be followed next week by painting of flower pots and the following week by planting flower seeds. Miss Seedorf is adviser.

Study Personality
Other Girl Reserve activities held during the last week include a meeting

Commentator Tells Economics Club About Trends in Fashions

Menasha—"American fashion designers want to go where they ain't," Nancy Grey, radio commentator, told members of the Menasha Economics club and their guests Friday afternoon in the club room of the Elisha D. Smith library as she upheld American fashions as against Paris.

"Designers would rather take an ocean ride than a train or plane ride to the west coast," declared Nancy Grey as she quoted Adrian, Hollywood designer as saying that American enthusiasm coupled with practice can't hold American fashions down. Too long have American fashions been the daughter of the family who will also remain immature even if she is 40 years old to her more sophisticated mother.

Miss Grey emphasized the new approach, the new life and new in-appreciations that is thoroughly American and which no Farisian can understand in the question of fashions. "It is emphasized now 'what will clothes do for you?'"

Discusses Cosmetics
She discussed cosmetics as well as fashions in discussing the new technique and approach, adding a note of hilarity to her remarks when she commented on Helena Rubenstein and Elizabeth Arden's war, declaring "I'm betting on Helena because she recently has hired Arden's former husband as her general manager."

Miss Grey discussed travel and fashions and then told her audience where radio fits into the picture, describing radio as a new medium. In outlining what she considered the interests of women today, Miss Grey listed human relationships—the romantic phase of living, drama of people, events and trends, and the informational phase embodying what is going in the world of fashions, books, home decorations, music, flower arrangements, art, beauty, charm. A woman wants a lift too, be it purchase of a red hat or making a trip to Sun Valley.

The speaker discussed one of her day's activities in her travels to several interesting conversational themes for her program.

Tea was served after the meeting which featured open forum discussion.

O'Brien, Martens In Council Race

Only Contest Thus Far Is In Third Ward: Vote April 4

Neenah—The first contests in the Neenah aldermanic race for the April 4 election appeared today when nomination papers were issued for two incumbents, Richard J. O'Brien, third ward, and Robert M. Martens, second ward, by Harry Zemlock, city clerk.

The only contest so far is in the Third ward where Joseph Beisenstein, former alderman, has secured nomination papers and will oppose O'Brien. Two other aldermanic candidates have secured nomination papers. They are Carl Loehning, Fifth ward incumbent, and Knud Larsen, candidate in the Fourth ward.

Although seven other persons have secured nomination papers there are no other contests for positions. The other candidates include three supervisors, Gustav Kalfas, Sr., First ward; C. H. Pope, Second ward; J. P. Prebensen, Third ward. Two candidates have appeared for the two justice of the peace and two school commissioner posts. They are Gaylord Loehning, incumbent justice, and Chris Jensen, former justice, while the school commission candidates are Leo O. Schubar and John C. Simonsch, at present a member of the board of vocational and adult education.

RUBBISH WEDNESDAY
Menasha—Rubbish will be collected in the second district on Wednesday, according to H. O. Haugh, city health officer. The district includes Water street and the area up to, but not including, Second street.

Helen Meyers Hits 502 Series for High In Lakeview League

Lakeview Mill League
Standings:
Flat Foot Floogies 45 21
Jitter Bugs 40 26
Sling Shots 37 29
Susie Q's 34 32
Hi Hatters 27 39
Swing Ettes 26 40
Small Frys 25 41

Neenah—Helen Meyers was the high scorer in the Lakeview Mill league at the Neenah alleys Friday night with games of 182, 135 and 185 for 502. Second high was Eleanor Forth with a 499 count on games of 150, 189 and 160.

M. Eaus hit the high individual game with a 203 count while H. Koerwitz rolled a 202 game. The Sling Shots rolled the high team series with a 2,765 total. The Susie Q's rolled a 2,711 series.

Results last night:
Swing Ettes (3) 834 871 909
Small Frys (0) 827 864 877
Jitter Bugs (1) 895 903 943
Susie Q's (2) 853 951 902

Tipsy Pins (1) 819 836 846
Flat Foots (2) 936 810 948
Hi Hatters (1) 854 833 861
Sling Shots (2) 819 836 908

No Telephone Cost
To Residents of NEENAH or MENASHA
To Phone A
WANT-AD
Direct To The Appleton Office Of The Post-Crescent
PHONE
Appleton 543

where a specially trained Ad-Taker will help you prepare and schedule your ad for greatest results.

The Post-Crescent Will Pay For The Telephone Call by deducting the cost of it from the price of your ad.

A Want Ad In The Post-Crescent Costs as Little as 26c A Day

INDIAN SCOTSWOMEN
Bombay—The Association of Scotswomen of India has been formed following a muster of 61 women at a Lady St. Andrew's Dinner when Scott salmon and haggis was piped in with traditional ceremony.

Other Girl Reserve activities held during the last week include a meeting

Pelton Hits 612, Grove 243 to Top Commercial Loop

Funeral Home Returns to First Place in Menasha League

MENASHA COMMERCIAL LEAGUE
Standings:	W. L.
Pelton Funeral Home	46 32
Wisconsin Tissue Mills	45 33
Gold Labels	45 33
RCA Victor	43 35
International Wire Works	42 36
Grove Clothing	39 39
Horse Shoe Bar	38 40
Hub Hucks	37 41
Odd Fellows	37 41
Whitmore Machinists	36 42
Claude Mayer Agency	34 44
Larsen Bottling	24 52

Menasha—E. Pelton hit the top series in the Menasha Commercial League Friday night as the Pelton Funeral home went back into first place in the standings. Pelton rolled a 612 count on games of 189, 223 and 200.

A. Grove rolled the high single game with a 243 mark and also collected the only other honor series with a 601 total. J. Howley rolled consistent games of 204, 201 and 194 for a 599 series.

High single games included W. Raleigh 216, C. Axel 217, Frank Remmel 219, H. Landskron 238, R. Huser 217 and Ben Lewandolske 233.

Whitmore Machinists rolled the high team game and series with marks of 945 and 2,780. Pelton kepters rolled the second high series with a 2,754 total.

Results last night:
Whitmore (2)	945 908 927
Groves (1)	908 841 935
Peltons (3)	927 939 890
Hub Hucks (0)	895 881 887
RCA Victor (3)	823 851 801
Horse Shoe (0)	813 816 785
Gold Labels (3)	807 856 898
Larsens (0)	891 810 846
Odd Fellows (2)	857 858 838
Mayers (1)	847 856 831
Wire Works (2)	890 862 872
Tissue Mill (1)	799 857 910

Banta Girls Bowling League Championship Won by Beta Keglers

BANTA GIRLS LEAGUE
W. L.
Beta	39 24
Epsilon	35 28
Eta	34 29
Theta	32 31
Alpha	31 32
Zeta	31 32
Gamma	26 37
Delta	24 39

Menasha—Beta keglers finished the Banta Girls league season Friday night at the Hendy alleys with a four-game lead. Epsilon keglers won two games to take second place while the Eta team, which lost two games to the champions, fell back to third place.

E. Frigiborgs rolled the high game and series last night with scores of 216 and 547. Other high series included K. Kelly 527, and E. Beck a scratch 526 score.

High single games included K. Kelly's 203, a 201 by E. Heid, and a 205 by M. Omachinske.

Results last night:
Beta (2)	588 609 585
Eta (1)	542 597 599
Gamma (2)	650 587 594
Delta (1)	671 542 547
Zeta (2)	701 559 608
Theta (1)	552 688 606
Epsilon (2)	596 607 581
Alpha (1)	511 603 589

Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

ACROSS

1. Store

10. Take the principal meal

14. Note the speed

16. Ancient Roman official

17. Always

18. Sum

19. Cause to go

20. Sweet

21. Gets up

22. Minute orifice

23. Render unconscious

24. Have ambitions

25. Persons with very loud voices

26. Small roughly built house

27. Mark of a wound

28. Practice out

29. Ancient Irish capital

30. Read aloud

31. Long narrative poem

32. Skating arena

33. Cover with dew

34. One who lives in a place

35. Assault

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

1. RABAT

2. FIE

3. RABAT

4. FIE

5. RABAT

6. FIE

7. RABAT

8. FIE

9. RABAT

10. FIE

11. RABAT

12. FIE

13. RABAT

14. FIE

15. RABAT

16. FIE

17. RABAT

18. FIE

19. RABAT

20. FIE

21. RABAT

22. FIE

23. RABAT

24. FIE

25. RABAT

26. FIE

27. RABAT

28. FIE

29. RABAT

30. FIE

31. RABAT

32. FIE

33. RABAT

34. FIE

35. RABAT

36. FIE

37. RABAT

38. FIE

39. RABAT

40. FIE

41. RABAT

42. FIE

43. RABAT

44. FIE

45. RABAT

46. FIE

47. RABAT

48. FIE

49. RABAT

50. FIE

51. RABAT

52. FIE

53. RABAT

54. FIE

55. RABAT

56. FIE

57. RABAT

58. FIE

59. RABAT

60. FIE

61. RABAT

62. FIE

63. RABAT

64. FIE

65. RABAT

66. FIE

67. RABAT

68. FIE

69. RABAT

70. FIE

71. RABAT

72. FIE

73. RABAT

74. FIE

75. RABAT

76. FIE

77. RABAT

78. FIE

79. RABAT

80. FIE

81. RABAT

82. FIE

83. RABAT

84. FIE

85. RABAT

86. FIE

87. RABAT

88. FIE

89. RABAT

90. FIE

91. RABAT

92. FIE

93. RABAT

94. FIE

95. RABAT

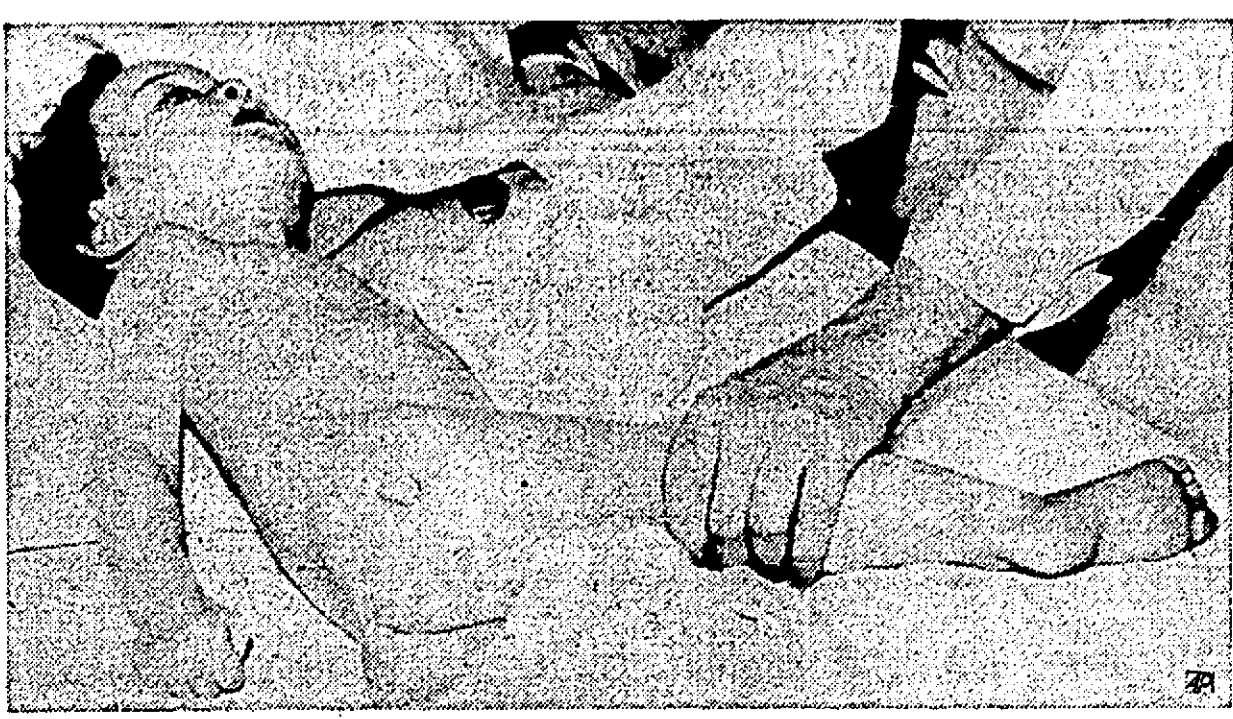

96. FIE

97. RABAT

98. FIE

99. RABAT

100. FIE

BABY DIES AFTER BEING BRANDED AND BEATEN

Nurses in a Sunbury, Pa., hospital show where tiny Miriam Wolf, 2, was branded with a stove lid-lifter. Five days after she was branded and beaten, she died. A former brickyard worker, Paul Barrick, 22, was held on a charge of beating her. State police said he told them she (the baby) "looked like that other man (her father)." State Police Corporal Richard Gray said he would charge Barrick with murder. The baby was called "Rosebud" because she was so tiny at birth.

Menasha Garden Club Meets Monday Night at Stine Home

Menasha—The Menasha Garden club will meet at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the home of Mrs. George T. Stine, 213 Elm street, to hear a talk on "Junior Garden Clubs" by Miss Mae Tucker and a paper on "Good Clean Dirt" which Miss Henrietta Hall will present. Members will respond to roll call with garden items of interest. Mrs. A. B. Jensen will be assisting hostess.

Mrs. A. Gley, 324 Abbey avenue, was guest of honor at a birthday anniversary party Friday afternoon and evening as friends gathered at her home to help her celebrate the anniversary. Cards were played during the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Gley was presented with many gifts.

Rebekah Lodge, No. 212, meeting Friday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall, made plans for an attendance contest and a card party in April. Ella Hoffman, warden of the lodge and Lucille Koffarnus, conducted the meeting last night.

Methodist Society Maps Plans For Mother, Daughter Banquet

Menasha—A mother and daughter banquet in the Fellowship hall of the church Friday evening, March 10, was planned by members of the Ladies Society of First Methodist Episcopal church at its meeting Friday afternoon. Mrs. Albert Rhoades will be toastmistress and vocal recitations will be presented by Celia Jensen and Juliette and Carol Peterson. Mrs. Emma Burnham and Mrs. Oscar Roux will participate in the program with readings. Janet Davis will present a musical selection on her Hawaiian guitar. The society also plans to sponsor a religious movie "Golgotha" which was made in Paris the evening of March 16.

Mrs. Harry Eberhard, 626 S. Commercial street, entertained for relatives at a 7:30 dinner party Friday evening at her home. Cards provided entertainment during the evening and Chinese checkers were played also. Guests included Mrs. William Andrews, St. James, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Reithwell, Minn.

Junior High Teams Will Play Tonight

Neenah, Menasha Squads To Meet in Preliminary Tilt

Menasha—Junior high school basketball teams of Neenah and Menasha will clash at 7 o'clock tonight in a preliminary game at the Neenah High school gymnasium.

Members of the Menasha squad will include William Grode, Frank Heckrodt, William Thompson, William Dorow, Robert Wideman, George Dorow, Buddy Geibel, Ed Calder, Robert Pomeranek and Frank Rosch. Several members of that group have been ill with flu this week and may not be able to play. Lawrence Block was also included on the squad selected by Leslie Ansoorge, physical education instructor, but he has been ill and definitely will not see action. Rosch and Thompson also are on the sick list.

The second preliminary game at 8 o'clock tonight will be between the reserve teams of the two schools. The Menasha reserves have won eight and lost three. The Neenah reserves have won 10 and lost one. Their only defeat was by the Jay bee squad 22 to 18 in a hard-fought game at Menasha earlier in the season.

Neenah High School Club Will Sell New Conservation Stamps

Neenah—Plans for the sale of the new conservation stamps are being formed by the Neenah High school Conservation club under the direction of Armin Gerhardt, faculty adviser. The books contain 80 stamps and sell for $1. Part of the proceeds will go to the club while the rest will be used for conservation work.

Conservation work is being emphasized during March. A program on conservation will be presented by the club. A committee will be named to sell the books of stamps.

ROAST CHICKEN

With All Trimmings

TONIGHT

OLIVE'S TAVERN

W. Wisconsin Ave.

HERB & VERN

Playing Tonight

CHICKEN LUNCH—25c

TONITE

FISH FRY — Friday

CHICKEN — Wednesday

Van Denzen's

KAUKAUNA

BLACK CAT

East Wisconsin Ave. BEER 5c

TONIGHT

FRIED CHICKEN 25c

With all the fixings

Maritime Tavern

338 W. WISCONSIN AVE.

ROAST CHICKEN

Served with all trimmings

SATURDAY NIGHT

Starting at 6:00 P. M.

WHEREVER YOU GO — DEMAND

BEER—That Is BEER

Walter's Eau Claire

Distributed by

WEST END BEER DEPOT

723 W. College Ave. TEL. 5562

TAVERN and HOME DELIVERY SERVICE

Service in Menasha, Phone 5657, Ralph's Beer Depot

Neenah & Menasha, Phone 1255

Island Beer Depot—

211 N. Commercial St.

You will like the new Eau Claire

FAMILY STYLE PALE BEER

Bandit Holds Up Filling Station

Armed With Gun, Man Forces Attendant to Give Up $7

Menasha—An armed holdup of the Fox Valley Oil company service station, 624 Racine street, that netted the hold-up man $7 Thursday night, was reported today by Police Chief Alex Slonski. Police suppressed news of the hold-up yesterday while carrying on an investigation. They questioned a suspect Friday but released him later.

Edwin Karlin, 7111 Appleton street, attendant at the filling station, reported that the masked bandit entered the service station about 8:20 Tuesday night and ordered the attendant to turn over the contents of the cash register. The bandit carried a small revolver. Karlin told police that the bandit appeared to be 19 or 20 years old, weighed 130 to 140 pounds, was light complexioned and wore a grey handkerchief over his face. He wore a blue jacket, overalls, and a railroad cap. After the holdup the bandit disappeared into the Soo line railroad yards.

Masonic Lodge Will Hold Social Meeting

Menasha—A social meeting of members of John A. Bryan lodge, F.A.M., and their wives will be held at 7:30 tonight in the Menasha Masonic lodge rooms. Mr. and Mrs. John D. Michie, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hela and Mr. and Mrs. Webb Chapman are members of the entertainment committee. A musical program and cards have been arranged.

Members of John A. Bryan lodge plan to enter two teams in the state Marie Goodfellowship bowling tournament at Sheboygan, according to Oscar Peterson, worshipful master. The tournament opened this Saturday and will run to April 2.

Twin City Deaths

Neenah — N. J. Burkel, 57, 400 Main street, died at 3:30 this morning after an illness of six weeks. He was born Nov. 3, 1881, in Appleton. He lived in Ohio 10 years ago before moving to Neenah.

Survivors are the widow; one daughter, Mrs. Victor Lauria, Neenah; three brothers, Charles and Henry Burkel of Green Bay and Mike Burkel of San Francisco, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Jim DeGroot, Galveston, Tex., and Mrs. Jack Landauer, New York.

Funeral services will be held at the Sorensen Funeral home and the First Presbyterian church Monday afternoon. The Rev. W. R. Courtney, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the services. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

10 Strike Leaders to Serve Contempt Terms

Waukegan, Ill. — Ten strike leaders in last summer's Chicago Hardware Foundry company strike notified Sheriff Thomas E. Kennedy yesterday they would surrender Wednesday to serve contempt of court sentences imposed by Judge Ralph J. Dady of Lake county circuit court. Robert Wirtz, one of the 10 involved in the CIO strike, received the longest sentence, 120 days.

WHERE TO GO

The Best Food Drinks and Entertainment

"THEY SERVE THE BEST"

"We serve the best — you make the test" Ulrich's Tavern slogan, contains the answer for the ever-growing popularity of its excellent food and tasty drinks. Ulrich's are known especially for its expertly prepared Frog Legs, Fried Spring Chicken, and Boneless Perch lunches which are served daily, and its Roast Duck and Roast Chicken lunches featured on Saturday nights only. Fresh Oysters, Shrimp and Homemade Soup are now served at all times during Lent.

"A GOOD PLACE TO GO"

Eddie Williamson's CHARMING BAR, Depot Street, Little Chute offers Friday night Fish Frys that are hard to beat in either quality or price. Cozy, comfortable, modern accommodations, in addition to a friendly atmosphere and efficient service combined with the tastiness of its fine foods make the CHARMING BAR a truly inviting place to go any time. Sandwiches and delicious soups are served daily. Enjoy a lunch here soon, you'll be back again and again.

THE WINTER SEASON OF GOOD TIMES IS HERE — JOIN IN THE FUN AT

the WAVERLY BEACH TAVERN

• FINEST MIXED DRINKS •

High Quality WINES and LIQUORS at popular prices

Your Favorite Brand of Beer on Tap or in Bottles

Tonite — Sat. Night

FREE MUSIC

FREE LUNCH

High Balls 10c—Beer 5c

LOUIS GOEHLER TAVERN

Combined Locks

Roast CHICKEN LUNCH

TONITE—with all trimmings

Serving starts 6:00 P. M.

Barrel Verbelten's

154 E. 3rd St. KAUKAUNA

RHYTHM VANS, Playing TONIGHT

ROAST CHICKEN and CHICKEN SOUP

AL'S TAVERN

1705 N. Richmond St.

ROAST CHICKEN

with all fixings

EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

JOE KLEIN'S Tavern

129 E. Third Kaukauna

Tonite — Music by Boots & her Buddies

25c-ROAST CHICKEN 25c-Tonite

FISH FRY EVERY FRIDAY — Seating Capacity 125

RITZ TAVERN

Trunk Line Z—301 W. 7th St., So. Side, KAUKAUNA

MUSIC!!!

ENTERTAINMENT!!!

Every Night

Featuring

LIBBY REARDEN

Blues Singer

SLIM'S MEADOWS

Waverly Beach Road

TONIGHT

by ART SCHULTZ and Heinie

Entertainment, Sunday Nite

by OZZIE, ROY & CHIP

EMERY'S BAR

W. Wis. Ave. Tel. 1515

ELMER DEFFERDINGS ENTERTAINER

TONIGHT AT

GEN'S TAVERN

E. Wisconsin Ave. Gen. Powers

Fried Chicken Lunch 25c

With all trimmings every Saturday Nite

Chicken Booyah At All Times!

JAKE'S TAVERN

516 W. College Ave. Beer 5c

CHICKEN LUNCH 25c

TONITE

Card Party, Sat. 5:30 P. M. and Wed. Nite. Lunches at all times.

CHICKEN LUNCH TONIGHT!

BEER—5c

PLOGER'S TAVERN

266 SO. ONEIDA ST.

Lawrence Women's Honorary Society Fetes Five Highest Ranking Coeds in Each Class

THE Lawrence college chapter of Mortar Board, college women's honorary society, entertained a "party" Wednesday night at Russell Sage hall in honor of the five girls in each class who had attained the highest scholastic rating during the last semester.

Debate Squad Performs for Church Club

ANON-DECISION debate on the question, Resolved, that the federal government should not engage in "pump-priming," was put on by Lawrence college students at the first anniversary banquet and program of the Mr. and Mrs. club of Mt. Olive Lutheran church last night in the church basement. Those who took part were Wesley Feischbacher, Quentin Barnes, Margery Smith and Betty Schoonmaker, while Edith Guitman was time-keeper. Brief talks on the accomplishments of the club during its first year were given by the Rev. R. E. Ziesemer, pastor, also W. O. Gruett, A. H. Pahl, J. D. Reeder and Donald Gerlach. Miss Myrtle Lecker sang a group of vocal numbers. Miss Caroline Stroetz gave a clarinet solo and Robert Stroetz a trombone selection, with Donald Gerlach playing the accompaniment and also leading community singing. H. D. Purdy entertained with a demonstration of magic. Lloyd Doerflinger was toastmaster.

Six new members were admitted last night, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wettstein, Mrs. Louise Doerflinger and Mrs. Ida B. Knoke. Ninety-six persons were present. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Myer will be co-chairmen of the next meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Lohn, 1107 S. Mason street, will be hostess to the Altar Guild of All Saints Episcopal church at 7:30 Tuesday night at her home instead of Monday night.

"Religion and Economics" is the title of the lecture to be given by the Rev. Gerald H. M. Cap, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, at 8 o'clock Monday night in St. Joseph's hall. Father Gerard will answer the questions, Is Capitalism Christian? and How does religion enter business and labor? This is the sixth of a series of lectures and open forums on religious problems of today being sponsored by the Catholic evidence committee of Father Fitzmaurice council, Knights of Columbus.

Christian Mothers' society of St. Joseph's church will receive communion at the 6:45 mass Sunday morning. The business meeting will take place next Tuesday night.

25 Men are Attending Monte Alverno Retreat

About 25 men are attending a retreat at Monte Alverno Retreat house which opened this afternoon and will close Sunday evening. A feature of the closing service will be the formal presentation of a stained glass window in the chapel by Father Fitzmaurice council, Knights of Columbus, to the retreat house. The Rev. C. B. Vanden Borne, chaplain, will make the presentation. The Rev. Gerard Hesse, O.M. Cap, is retreat master for this retreat.

the Lyon. Miss Ruth Cope and Miss Charlotte Lorenz, faculty advisors of Mortar Board, were guests. Place cards were decorated with little Mortar Board hats.

Because of a tie there were six seniors instead of the usual five in the group of honored guests. They were Miss Annabelle Wolf, Appleton, who had a rating of 2.813 for the semester; Miss Ruth Barnes, Appleton, 2.8; Miss Janet Weber, Winnetka, Ill., 2.8; Miss Jean Doerr, Lake Forest, Ill., 2.6; Miss Elizabeth Hoh, Oak Park, Ill., 2.6; and Miss Sally Johnson, Whitewater, 2.6.

Junior girls honored were Miss Mary White, Appleton, who had a perfect 3 average; Miss Beth Arveson, Milwaukee, 2.8; Miss Helen Phillips, Milwaukee, 2.8; Miss Janet Blumer, Monroe, 2.563; and Miss Andrea Stephenson, Evanston, 2.412.

The five high ranking sophomore girls were Miss Joan Keast, Elmhurst, Ill., 2.875; Miss Margaret Banta, Menasha, 2.765; Miss Jane Gilbert, Glen Ellyn, Ill., 2.75; Miss Marian Cooley, Oshkosh, 2.75; and Miss Audrey Galpin, Appleton, 2.688.

Freshman girls were Miss Janet Fullinwider, Appleton, 2.938; Miss Joan Glasow, Fond du Lac, 2.75; Miss Jeanne Bennison, Evanston, 2.625; Miss Betty Linguist, Oak Park, 2.625; and Miss Elizabeth Sewall, Racine, 2.563.

Miss Jean Wallens entertained at a dinner party Thursday evening at her home on N. Union street on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. Her guests were the Misses Peggy Boyer, Mary Ellen Pomeroy, Mary Ann Galpin, Constance Vaughn, Miss Sally Rothchild and Miss Ann Holzer.

Mr. Ole Johnson, Shioccon, observed her eighty-second birthday anniversary Tuesday at her home. An afternoon luncheon was served to the immediate family and relatives, and in the evening a few neighbors called to celebrate the occasion with her. Mrs. Johnson received flowers and plants.

Mrs. Peter Ebben, 922 W. Summer street, gave a surprise party Thursday night in honor of her son, Merlin Kimball, who was 15 years old. Games were played and a gift was presented to the guest of honor. Those present were John Otto, Francis Rechner, Jerry Arndt, William Nack, Robert Stadler, Lillian Ebben, Catherine Filz, Aletha Terry, Bernice Hennes, Jeanette Kuenzel and Dolores Horrig.

Twenty-five couples attended the hayride party given by John F. Rose chapter, Order of De Molay, last night in place of the sleighride originally planned. After the ride the group returned to Masonic temple for Chinese checkers, dancing and refreshments. Chester Davis acted as chaperon, Bruce Grossman and Robert Dettman were co-chairmen of the party.

Mrs. A. B. Fisher will entertain at a dinner party tonight at Consequa lodge. Fourteen guests will be present.

An open card party will be given at 8 o'clock Monday afternoon at Odd Fellow hall by Deborah Rebekah lodge. Mrs. Dennis Sharpe and Mrs. George Gauslin will be in charge.

Sigma Alpha Iota alumnae will entertain at their annual party for the active and pledges at 7:30 Monday night at Pen-Hellenic house. Hostesses will be Miss Ruth Roper, Neenah; Miss Anna Sieg, Miss Jane Dresely and Mrs. David Fulton.

A birthday party was given Wednesday evening at the Adolph Schultz home in Seymour, in honor of Lloyd Hegner. Prizes at cards were won by John Krueger, Mrs. Herbert Blohm, and Mrs. Seldon Powell. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hegner, Mr. and Mrs. William Klitzke, Mr. and Mrs. Selma Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hegner, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Schultz, the Misses Alice Werner, Alice Klitzke, Ruth Powell and Orpha Schultz, Melvin and Merline Hegner, Melvin Muck, Charles Peterson and John Krueger.

Fraternal Order of Eagles will receive an open card party at 7:30 Sunday afternoon at the Eagle hall. Schafkopf and dice will be played.

Adults and juveniles of Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will receive holy communion at the 8 o'clock mass Sunday morning at St. Joseph's church. They will meet at the parish hall at 7:45 to receive their badges and march into the church together.

To "steam-bake" means to place a pan of food in another shallow pan of hot water and then bake. This method is used for cooking difficult, dumplings and other dishes requiring slow cooking.

The committee in charge of the social hour was composed of Mrs. Ralph Hubbell, chairman, Mrs. Harold Helbing, Mrs. John Goodrich, Mrs. A. Koch, Mrs. Willis Elmer, Mrs. Orrin Hoh and Mrs. H. E. Dahl.

The auxiliary's monthly card party will be given March 13 at the Appleton Women's club. On the committee are Mrs. Max Elias, Mrs. C. J. Rockstroff, Mrs. Arthur Benson, Mrs. Joseph Allier, Mrs. Kent Hecht, Mrs. Ida Goodrich, Mrs. Wilbur Reick and Mrs. Walter Steens.

Bride, Four Brides-to-be Busy With Household Plans, Preparations for Weddings

C. B. Peterman To Preside at Vets' Reunion

C. B. PETERMAN, Appleton, fourth district commander of United Spanish War Veterans, will preside at a reunion of the district camps tomorrow at Green Bay, Manitowoc and Appleton, and the auxiliaries have been invited also. It is expected that if the roads are in good condition a number of Appleton people will attend.

The meeting will be called to order at 2 o'clock in the Fern room of Columbus Community club. Joseph Meurer camp of Green Bay will be host.

Standing committees for the year were named at the meeting of Charles O. Baer auxiliary of United Spanish War Veterans Friday night at the armory. The by-law committee includes Mrs. Emma Montgomery, chairman; Mrs. Joseph Hassmann and Mrs. Aaron Zerbel; the auditing committee consists of Mrs. C. B. Peterman, chairman; Mrs. Patrick Gerarden and Mrs. Orrin Defferding; the home and employment committee is composed of Mrs. Metha Petran, chairman; Mrs. John Pottel, Mrs. Elizabeth Stip and Miss Barbara Stip; and the battleship Oregon committee includes Mrs. Ray Feavel, chairman; Mrs. Minnie Davis and Mrs. Wilbur Kuborn.

The auxiliary accepted an invitation to attend the Grand Army ball April 6 at Neenah to be sponsored by H. J. Lewis Women's Relief corps of Neenah. Plans were made for an open card party to be held March 17 with Mrs. Feavel as chairman. Hostesses for the social hour last night were Mrs. Arthur Knoll, Mrs. Carl Schwendler, Mrs. Ervin Werner and Mrs. Christina Schaefer.

The meeting of Pythian Sisters at 7:30 Monday night at Castle hall will be preceded by a 6 o'clock dinner for the degree staff and a practice session. Hostesses for the social hour include Mrs. Walter Greiner, Mrs. W. F. McGowan, Mrs. A. G. Koch, Mrs. C. C. Nelson, Mrs. Emmer Greunke and Mrs. E. E. Cahill.

Adults and juveniles of Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will receive holy communion at the 8 o'clock mass Sunday morning at St. Joseph's church. They will meet at the parish hall at 7:45 to receive their badges and march into the church together.

To "steam-bake" means to place a pan of food in another shallow pan of hot water and then bake. This method is used for cooking difficult, dumplings and other dishes requiring slow cooking.

The committee in charge of the social hour was composed of Mrs. Ralph Hubbell, chairman, Mrs. Harold Helbing, Mrs. John Goodrich, Mrs. A. Koch, Mrs. Willis Elmer, Mrs. Orrin Hoh and Mrs. H. E. Dahl.

The auxiliary's monthly card party will be given March 13 at the Appleton Women's club. On the committee are Mrs. Max Elias, Mrs. C. J. Rockstroff, Mrs. Arthur Benson, Mrs. Joseph Allier, Mrs. Kent Hecht, Mrs. Ida Goodrich, Mrs. Wilbur Reick and Mrs. Walter Steens.

These girls have developed a sudden interest in kitchen curtains, household linens and interior decorating, for one of them is a recent bride and the others are planning their weddings for this spring or summer. Miss Bernice Hoh, upper left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hoh, 1212 W. Spencer street, will be married shortly after Easter to Le Roy Breitenbach, Appleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Breitenbach, Black Creek.

Miss Mary Lou Delrow, top center, has set Sept. 3 as the date for her wedding to C. Francis Ertmer, son of Harlo Bremner, Stevens Point. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Delrow, Jr., 619 N. Mason street. The marriage of Miss Eleanor Fahley, upper right, 508 N. Durkee street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fahley, Oshkosh, to Ben Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fischer, route 3, Appleton, is planned for this summer. The couple will live in Appleton.

Bride of a week is Mrs. Robert O. Kunitz, lower left, who was Miss Verdi Stewart, daughter of Mrs. W. H. M. Stewart, Proctor, Minn., before her marriage last Sunday. Mr. Kunitz, who is physical education instructor at Roosevelt Junior High school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kunitz, 114 W. Washington street. After April 1 he and his bride will be at home at 513 N. Superior street.

In a ceremony at Moses Montefiore synagogue on Sunday, March 12, Miss Betty Lee Cohen, lower right, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cohen, 844 E. North street, will become the bride of Leo Lurie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lurie, Milwaukee. (Delrow photo by Post-Crescent; Fahley photo by Harwood)

'Pageant of Esther' Will Follow Supper

"The Pageant of Esther" by Elma Erich Levinger will be presented by a group of children of Moses Montefiore congregation Sunday evening in the social center following a Purim supper to be served by Montefiore Ladies Aid society. The play will be given for the most part in pantomime with Dan Zussman reading the story. It is directed by Rinert Wenzel under the supervision of Mrs. Hazel F. Bannister. Those taking part include David Blacher, Alvin Blinder, David Balin, Teddy Slater, Betty Meyers, Bobby Meyers, Harold Chapintzky, Benjamin Rosenthal, Helen Balin, Bessie Blacher, Audrey Winer, Shirley Golper and Sylvia Chapintzky.

The supper committee includes Mrs. Abe Hamilton, chairman; Mrs. Edward Bahall, Mrs. Edward Nadel, Mrs. E. Ficklow, Mrs. Abraham Sigmam, Mrs. J. Wolf, Mrs. John Alper, and Mrs. J. Malotsky, Appleton; and Mrs. Ben Goldin, Kaukauna.

A questionnaire on lent and its meaning and use will be conducted at the meeting of Young People's society of All Saints Episcopal church at 5:30 Sunday evening at the parish hall. Miss Barbara Graham will be in charge of the program. Supper will be served after which a short service will be held under the direction of William Baker. Miss June Kuehnmstedt will be in charge of entertainment after the program.

Mrs. George Lausman led devotions at the meeting of Women's Christian Temperance Union Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Ida Hopkins, 820 E. North street.

These girls have developed a sudden interest in kitchen curtains, household linens and interior decorating, for one of them is a recent bride and the others are planning their weddings for this spring or summer. Miss Bernice Hoh, upper left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hoh, 1212 W. Spencer street, will be married shortly after Easter to Le Roy Breitenbach, Appleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Breitenbach, Black Creek.

Miss Mary Lou Delrow, top center, has set Sept. 3 as the date for her wedding to C. Francis Ertmer, son of Harlo Bremner, Stevens Point. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Delrow, Jr., 619 N. Mason street. The marriage of Miss Eleanor Fahley, upper right, 508 N. Durkee street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fahley, Oshkosh, to Ben Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fischer, route 3, Appleton, is planned for this summer. The couple will live in Appleton.

Bride of a week is Mrs. Robert O. Kunitz, lower left, who was Miss Verdi Stewart, daughter of Mrs. W. H. M. Stewart, Proctor, Minn., before her marriage last Sunday. Mr. Kunitz, who is physical education instructor at Roosevelt Junior High school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kunitz, 114 W. Washington street. After April 1 he and his bride will be at home at 513 N. Superior street.

In a ceremony at Moses Montefiore synagogue on Sunday, March 12, Miss Betty Lee Cohen, lower right, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cohen, 844 E. North street, will become the bride of Leo Lurie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lurie, Milwaukee. (Delrow photo by Post-Crescent; Fahley photo by Harwood)

Hedy Lamarr and Gene Markey Will be Wed This Afternoon

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—(AP)—Glamorous Hedy Lamarr, star of "Algiers," and Gene Markey, associate producer for Twentieth Century-Fox studios in Hollywood, will be married this afternoon in Calcutta, Calif. Markey disclosed today.

"Yes, it's true," Markey said when he was located at a hotel where he and the dark-haired European beauty had stopped for a few hours rest on their drive from the movie capital.

He said the wedding would climax a friendship of "about a year," since they met at a film party.

Markey was divorced in June, 1937, by Joan Bennett, youngest of the Bennett sisters of the screen. In addition to his production activities, he has long been a top-flight writer.

Miss Lamarr, who has tried to forget that when she was 17 she starred in "Ecstasy," which was banned for a time in this country, then later released, achieved immediate stardom in "Algiers," with Charles Boyer.

Such a stir was created by "Ecstasy" when censor boards saw it that Miss Lamarr's wealthy movie producer-husband, Fritz Mandl, bought up all available prints. She divorced him shortly after coming to this country.

A few weeks ago, students at Columbia university decided that Hedy would, if they had their choice, be the most desirable companion if they were stranded on a desert island.

Until she came to Hollywood in 1937, Hedy had spent most of her life in Vienna.

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Be A Careful Driver

Mrs. L. Wolfe New President Of Sisterhood

MRS. LEIGH WOLFE was elected president of Chapter B of the P.E.O. Sisterhood at its annual business meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph V. Landis, 18 Bellaire court. Mrs. Guy Carlson was named vice president; Mrs. J. R. Whitman, treasurer; and Mrs. Ben Wadsworth, guard. Three officers, Mrs. Landis, recording secretary; Mrs. George Nixon, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Homer Gebhardt, chaplain, were re-elected.

Mrs. A. H. Wickesberg, retiring president, entertained the officers who worked with her during the last year and the committees she had appointed at luncheon at her home on E. Alton street before the meeting. The chapter's next meeting will take place March 17 at Mrs. Roy Marston's home, at which time Mrs. Elmer Root will present the program.

Service circle of Appleton King's Daughters will meet Monday night at Miss Lola Mae Zuelke's apartment in the Irving Zuelke building. The meeting is to begin at 7:30.

Fiction club will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julia Reineck, 215 N. Oneida street, instead of at Mrs. George Wood's home, as scheduled earlier. Mrs. Helen Mason will read the play "American Landscape," by E. L. Rice.

Auxiliary to the Appleton Junior Chamber of Commerce will have a dinner meeting Monday night at the Hearstone Tea room. After the dinner the members will work on two quilts which will be given to needy families.

Clio club will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Herbert L. Davis, 620 N. Meade street. Mrs. J. Ross Frampton will read from "Fifty Years a Country Doctor," by W. N. Macartney, M. D.

Novel-History club will meet Monday night at the home of Miss Annette Buchanan, E. College avenue. Miss Buchanan will read.

Mission Scheduled for Next Week Is Postponed

Because of the prevalence of flu and colds, the men's mission scheduled for St. Mary parish for next week has been postponed until a later date. The Rev. John A. Costello, Ft. Wayne, Ind., who has been conducting the mission for women this week at St. Mary church, will return to Appleton to continue the mission when it is deemed advisable.

CLEANING WINDOW SHADES

To clean a washable window shade, spread it on a table or floor and rub it gently with a soft sponge frequently dipped in lukewarm mild soap suds. Clean off the suds with a damp cloth, then wipe the shade dry with a soft, clean cloth. See that shade is perfectly dry before hanging it again.

University banquet of the Gospel Fellowship club Monday night at the Medinah club at which Vaughn Schaefer, cartoonist for the Chicago Daily News, demonstrated his Shooscope, an instrument he invented which reflects on a screen his cartoons as he draws them. This instrument, which is equipped with a voice attachment, is used by the cartoonist in his lecture tour. Thursday night Mr. Goudie preached at his home church, the Stone church, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Killoren, 330 W. Seventh street, and their daughter, Patricia, returned Friday afternoon from a 5,000-mile trip to New Orleans, Texas and Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. E. John Goodrich, 824 E. Franklin street, are spending the weekend in Milwaukee.

Be A Careful Driver

JOHNSON SAYS:- WE LEAD - OTHERS FOLLOW!

WARNING!

Be careful folks, don't discard your rubbers until your shoes have had a spring overhauling at Johnson's. Let us clean your spring hat, too!

Hot Cleaning and Reblocking — Shoes Shined

Expert Shoe Rebuilding

JOHNSON'S SHOE REBUILDERS

Appleton—Tel. 4310      Neenah—Tel. 617

THE CREAM MILK

THE BOTTOM IS AS RICH AS THE TOP!
EASILY DIGESTIBLE
"BEST FOR BABY — BEST FOR YOU"

NUTRITIA

SOFT CURD MILK
Exclusive Product of The APPLETON PURE MILK CO.

PHONE 834
Individual Ice Cream Molds for Every Occasion at low prices.

Announcing ....

The Opening of

Ada's Beauty Nook

MONDAY — MARCH 6

OPENING SPECIAL
Ten Days Only

Eugene Permanent Wave .. $3.50
Reg. $5.95
Other Permanents $2.50 up

ALL PHASES OF BEAUTY CULTURE AT POPULAR PRICES.
This new shop is owned and operated by Mrs. C. W. Kornely.

1119 N. Bennett St., Appleton
Call Mrs. Kornely for appointment!

New Officers To be Named at Guild Session

OFFICERS of St. Agnes Guild of All Saints Episcopal church will be elected at a meeting following a luncheon at 12:30 Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Beebe, E. College avenue. Plans will be made for the next two cake sales, the first on March 10 with Mrs. Lawrence Pierce and Mrs. Sue Loessly in charge and the second March 24 with Mrs. Charles Seaborn as chairman. The guild will adjourn in time to attend the Women's Auxiliary meeting at the parish hall that afternoon.

Dr. John W. Wilson will lead the discussion at the meeting of the Men's Bible class of First Congregational church Sunday morning. The subject will be "A Faith That Breaks Down Racial Barriers."

Mrs. James B. Wag and Mrs. G. C. Cast entertained 22 guests at a vanishing luncheon Friday afternoon at the home of the former, 902 E. College avenue. The afternoon was spent informally. This was one of the series of luncheons being sponsored by Circle 2 of the Social Union.

Miss Elaine Carlson will be devotional leader at the meeting of High School Epworth League of First Methodist church Sunday evening at the church. A recreational hour will be held at 5:30 and the meeting will open at 6:30.

Mrs. Ben Rowland To be Hostess at Meeting of Club

Mrs. Ben Rowland, W. Parkway boulevard, will be hostess to the Cadence club at its meeting Monday afternoon at her home. Mrs. J. W. Robson will discuss the second act of Wagner's opera, "Twilight of the Gods."

While F. J. Gist showed movies of a trip to Mexico, Mrs. Gist explained and discussed them at the meeting of Appleton Delphian club Friday afternoon at Appleton Women's club. For the next meeting a citizenship program will be under the direction of Mrs. Stanley Staidl, chairman; Mrs. S. C. Shannon, and Mrs. W. F. McGowan.

Miss Mildred Hess will give a talk on "Color in the Home" at the meeting of Phi Alpha alumnae following a 6:30 supper Monday night at the home of Mrs. Forrest Muck, 805 W. Prospect avenue. Miss Bernice Brown will be co-hostess.

Mrs. Frank Young will discuss "Danish-German Relations Since 1850" at the meeting of the Tourists club Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Wood, E. John street.

Phi Mu alumnae will meet Monday night at the home of Mrs. Eugene Pierce, S. Fairview street.

Building permits in Padenah, Ky., in January, 1939, totaled $20,850 compared with $750 for the same month of 1938.

WOMAN'S CLUB COMMITTEE MAPS PARTY PLANS

Following rehearsal of Appleton Women's club chorus Thursday afternoon at the club house, the committee shown above met to complete arrangements for the last public card party of the group for the season which will be in the form of a 1:30 dessert-bridge Monday afternoon at the club house. Seated at the piano is Mrs. Charles C. Hervey, while other committee members, 1 to right, are Mrs. E. F. Schultz, Mrs. L. J. Boyle, Mrs. M. O. Knokke, Mrs. F. H. Richmond and Mrs. Fred Bendt. Not present when the picture was taken were Mrs. F. J. Leonard and Mrs. Ray Peeters. (Post-Crescent Photo)

WILL SING HERE

Edward Dudley will be the featured soloist when the Lawrence Symphony orchestra gives its annual concert at Memorial chapel Wednesday night, March 8. Dudley is one of America's most promising young tenors.

Eunice Benjamin's Marriage Revealed

Announcements have been received in Neenah of the marriage on Feb. 20 of Miss Eunice Betty Benjamin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Benjamin, 210 Hewitt street, Neenah, and Forrest B. Landreth, Picher, Okla. Mr. Landreth works the Blue Bonnet mine at Picher. The bride is a graduate of the Neenah High school.

Methodist Guild Has Meeting at Church

Clintonville — Methodist Ladies Guild met Thursday afternoon at the church parlors. Following the business session Mrs. Arthur Gierbach gave a report on the non-fiction book, "Grandma Called It Carnival," written by Bertha Damon. Mrs. Walton Johnson contributed pipe organ music after which a luncheon was served by Mrs. F. C. Welch and Mrs. J. B. Nims.

The Ladies Aid society of Salem Evangelical church and a number of guests were entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Kieckhefer at her home in Bear Creek.

Christian Mothers society of St. Rose church held its March meeting Thursday afternoon at the Knights of Columbus hall. The business was followed by a contest in which the first and second prizes were won by Mrs. Wilfred Schwalder and Mrs. Frank Joswiak. A special prize went to Mrs. Fred Meisenholder. The serving committee included: Mrs. Charles Laux, Mrs. Frank Helwig, Mrs. Carl Folkman, Mrs. V. L. Joswiak, and Mrs. Charles Zerels.

Robert McLaughlin arrived home Wednesday evening from Milwaukee where he was attending Marquette university. He recently submitted to an operation at St. Joseph's hospital and has been absent from his studies for the last month because of illness.

Miss Emma Schroeder of Nicholson suffered a fracture of the left hip Wednesday afternoon when she fell while walking from her home to the Kasper cheese factory. She was brought to the Clintonville Community hospital, where she will be confined for some time. Miss Schroeder is a sister of Harvey Schroeder, Eighth street.

Mrs. Arthur Wittmann Is Hostess to Club

Darboy — Mrs. Arthur Wittmann entertained the Homemakers club at a 12:30 dinner at her home on Tuesday. These present were: Mrs. Henry Probst, Appleton, Mrs. George Schaefer, Sherwood, Mrs. Hugo Wittman, Mrs. John Dietzen, Sr., and the Meses Hildegarde and Angela Wittmann. Darboy, Mrs. John Dietzen will be hostess to the club on Thursday, March 19.

Steve and Leo Mader, George and Paul Schwalbach, John Dietzen, Jr., Joseph Palm, Andrew Sprangers and Henry Fahrback enjoyed a stag party at the Anton Sprangers home Wednesday evening. Cards were played and a pike lunch was served.

John Dietzen, Jr., Joseph Wittmann, Henry Hupfahl and George Schwalbach, Jr., spent Friday at Green Bay on business.

Mrs. Hugo Wittmann was hostess to the Neighborhood Croquet club at her home Thursday afternoon. All members were present. Mrs. Joseph Van Groll will entertain the club at her home next Thursday.

Students from here who attend Kimberly High school had a two-day vacation as a result of the school being closed on Tuesday and Wednesday on account of the influenza epidemic.

The Banner school closed Wednesday noon and Holy Angels school closed Friday until Monday morning because of too many absences caused by influenza.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mielke, Milwaukee, is spending some time here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sprangers.

Mock Broadcast Is Held at Meeting of Black Creek Society

Black Creek — The Women's Union of St. John Evangelical church held a meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Louis Wehrman led the devotionals and the Rev. A. F. Grollmus read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Grollmus led the topic, "No East, No West," which was presented in the form of a mock broadcast. Seven members took part.

A thank offering was taken which was in charge of Mrs. H. J. Brandt and her committee.

It was announced that an officer's school would be held at Ripon March 17 and that the annual convention of the Women's Union of the Fond du Lac Federation will be held May 17 at St. Paul church at Oaksho. It was also decided to have a mother and daughter bazaar in May.

Plans also were made for an interdenominational May luncheon to be held May 4. Other churches will be invited. "Can Christian Be the World Together?" is the theme for the luncheon.

Mrs. Fred Weishoff was made an honorary member of the society. Hostesses were Mrs. Louis Blake, Mrs. George Duhm, Mrs. Charles Hemming, Mrs. Henry Dietrich and Mrs. John Haus.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the church. Plans were made for a bake sale to be held March 11 at the W. P. Hahn meat market. It was voted to participate in the May luncheon to be held May 4 which is being sponsored by the Women's Union of St. John Evangelical church.

Several readings were given by Mrs. R. H. Droeger and following the social meeting which was in charge of Circle 4, a supper was served in the church dining room by Circle 3.

The Christian Mothers' society of St. Mary Catholic church held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anna Braun. New members will be taken in March 20. The next meeting will be held April 13.

Hostesses were Mrs. M. Breitenbach, Mrs. William Brick, Mrs. John Felton and Mrs. Andrew Erbe. Mrs. C. A. Baucumstead was hostess Tuesday evening to the Neighborhood five hundred club. Prizes were taken by Mrs. Henry Hartsworm, Mrs. Herman Schmalling and Mrs. I. J. Wiekensberg.

Prize winners Wednesday evening at the schafkopf party at Jake's tavern were Mrs. George Schwister, Nester Reitz and Mrs. George Stingle. The parties will be held Tuesday evenings.

A daughter was born Feb. 28 to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Barth. Taxes of the town of Black Creek have been extended to March 14, without penalty. Edwin Sassman, town treasurer, is at the Black Creek State bank each Tuesday and Friday.

As soon as you take a sponge cake from the oven invert the pan on a cake rack until the cake is cool. This lets air circulate under the cake, helping to prevent gathering of moisture in the pan. When cake is cool, loosen the sides with a spatula and slip the cake out.

Primary Election Notice Tuesday, March 14, 1939

COUNTY OF OUTAGAMIE } SS
CITY OF APPLETON

Notice is hereby given that a city election will be held in the several wards of the City of Appleton on the 14th day of March, A.D., 1939, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following wards and city offices, viz: ALDERMEN for the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth Wards; SUPERVISORS for the First, Second, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Seventeenth Wards and SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the polls of said primary election will be open from seven o'clock in the morning until seven o'clock in the evening at the following polling places:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1st WARD—CITY HALL                              | 10th WARD—JEFFERSON SCHOOL                        |
| 2nd WARD—ARMORY                                 | 11th WARD—GUENTHER'S GARAGE1318 W. Second St. |
| 3rd WARD—ROBERTSON WOOD-CRAFT, 803 N. Union St. | 12th WARD—McKINLEY SCHOOL                         |
| 4th WARD—FRANKLIN SCHOOL                        | 13th WARD—RICHMOND SCHOOL                         |
| 5th WARD—COLUMBUS SCHOOL                        | 14th WARD—EDISON SCHOOL                           |
| 6th WARD—REHFELDT'S GARAGE, 1525 N. Clark St.   | 15th WARD—APPLEBAKER'S GARAGE, 1028 E. Vine St.   |
| 7th WARD—WASHINGTON SCHOOL                      | 16th WARD—SR. HIGH SCHOOL Auditorium              |
| 8th WARD—WATER DEPARTMENT                       | 17th WARD—WILSON SCHOOL                           |
| 9th WARD—COLUMBIA HALL, 403 S. State St.        | 18th WARD—ST. DEPT. BLDG. 924 W. Spencer St.      |

LIST OF CANDIDATES ALDERMEN

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| FIRST WARDArnold MillerF. John HarrimanRichard LatimerLeland R. FeavelEarl W. Bates                                    | ELEVENTH WARDRichard W. GuentherSimon Van GorpMax BauerFred LutzClarence A. Kasten            |
| THIRD WARDReno S. DoerflerHerman F. GoldbeckHarold A. Finger   | TWELFTH WARDLawrence KampfRay KneiceWalter NissenJoseph MautheEdward M. Knuijt                |
| FOURTH WARDAllen SolieRudolph H. KubitzCarl A. Rehfeldt  | THIRTEENTH WARDGeorge BrautigamEdward G. GustIgnatius Bourassa  |
| FIFTH WARDHenry R. FolkCharles H. BauernfeindJoseph J. FranzkeAlfred W. Neumann  | FOURTEENTH WARDWilliam FalaticLouis J. StarkDonald M. DuShaneRobert D. DeLandGeorge F. Werner |
| SIXTH WARDWilliam RammerHarold GrammeLeslie GebheimAlfred WetzelHarvey G. KittnerRichard H. KottkePeter DeLain | FIFTEENTH WARDFrank BartzHarold L. HamiltonFrank C. Weinkauf  |
| SEVENTH WARDErnest H. MuellerRichard T. GrothWm. H. VanderHeyden   | SIXTEENTH WARDDwayne H. LarsonCarl J. FoseJohn FroehlichErvin BoganJoseph A. Kohl             |
| EIGHTH WARDRonald N. SchomischMax KoenigsederOliver KrullCharles F. HartHenry WichmannEdward C. Nabbefeld          | SEVENTEENTH WARDLyman B. ClarkGeorge LeemhuisLawrence McGillanAlbert H. Schumann                  |
| NINTH WARDGustave KellerA. Lester KochLeonard Zehren   | EIGHTEENTH WARDArnold KrautkraemerWilliam A. GritzmacherHarold DouglasCharles Captain             |
| TENTH WARDWalter F. FountainEphraim P. GrignonPeter P. VollmerHarry Michael Kerrigan                                       |  |

SUPERVISORS

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| FIRST WARDCharles C. NelsonFred W. MuellerOtto W. Rogge               | SEVENTH WARDAndrew M. RiesGustave E. TeschMarcus Baumgartner                                |
| SECOND WARDLawrence H. DillonThomas J. LongLouis Bonini               | TWELFTH WARDEdward C. GrishaberMichael JacobsJohn E. SmithHerbert E. Lutz               |
| FIFTH WARDFred W. KluessHenry C. VoelzJohn H. HegnerLouis C. Jens | THIRTEENTH WARDJohn M. HartEdward G. GustPaul GelbkeFred Krause                         |
| SIXTH WARDHarold GromseSylvester EslerFrank Kositzke                  | SEVENTEENTH WARDFlorian F. HoelzelGeorge WehlingGeorge P. MillerHerbert C. Kirschenlore |

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS

- |  |   |  |
|--|---|--|
| William J. GeenenSeymour GmeinerEmmery A. Greunk | Joseph HantschelGeorge T. HegnerFred J. Leonard | Margaret E. St. ClairWard O. Wheeler |
|--|---|--|

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 1st day of March, 1939

(SEAL) CARL J. BECHER
City Clerk

Sunday at the Churches

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, corner of West Lawrence and South Oneida streets. The Reverend John B. Hanna, D. D., pastor. 9:00 — Junior high choir rehearsal. 9:30 — Church school — all departments. Adult Bible classes will meet at usual. 10:30 — Morning worship. Choral praise. Luke, Come, God, Creator, Holy Ghost! Singing to the cantata, "I stand with one foot in the grave." Bach, "Amen." Sermon: "The Ideal of God." 4:15 — The preparatory class will meet at the Missionary room. 7:00 — The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kunkle, 804 E. W. Way. There will be a candlelight investiture of members and officers of the group. Program: "Eloise in Exile." 8:00 — The Women's Union of the Methodist church. President Barrows will lead the discussion, "What Is Preparedness for Democracy?"

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH, corner of Franklin and Drew. H. C. Culver, D. D., minister. Sunday school at 9:45, all departments. Morning worship at 11:00. Sermon: "The Virtue of Simplicity." Ministry of music. Organ prelude: "Ardantine." Anthem: "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." Shelley. Miss Gerlach, Mr. Nixon and choir. Offering by Dorothy. John West. Postlude: from Finale of First Symphony, Brahms. Curis Daniel, organist and director. United Nations, director of junior choir. High school league social hour at 5:30. High school league devotionals at 6:30. University Life at 7:00. St. S. club in Fireside meeting at the parsonage, 34-Bellvue Court at 8:00.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, Appleton and Franklin sts. R. H. Spangler, pastor. 9:45 — Church school. Classes for all age groups. Mrs. Harold Thuermer, sup. 11:00 — Morning worship. Communion service. Choral service. Service hymn by the choir. "Take Time To Be Holy." Communion day message. Jesus Service by Rev. R. Y. P. Meeting in charge of group. Mrs. Melvin Trentice, cant. 7:30 — Evening service. Planned and sponsored by the Mrs. R. E. Schaefer. Informal in spirit. Communion singing of old favorite hymns. Special music. And a short message. The pastor.

MEM. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Rev. Robert Bell, minister. Cantata, "The Drunken Director of Music." Miss Freda R. Kopp, organist. 9:30 a. m. Sunday school. 10:30 a. m. church service. Her minute organ. Cantata, "The Drunken Director of Music." Organ solo by "Andante" — Third Organ Solo by "Andante" — First Organ Solo by "Andante." Precedential hymn at 11:00 a. m. Anthem: "Hear My Prayer" by Jones and "Oh, Saviour Sweet" by Dickinson. Sermon by Dr. Thomas Kepler. League service. "The Ecumenical of Science." Organ postlude "Largo" by Bach. 7:00 p. m. Tuna club in the church parlor.

NEW APPLETON TABERNACLE, corner of Barratt and College. Rev. G. C. Lege, pastor. 9:30 a. m. Bible school. Classes for all ages. 11:00 a. m. church service. Communion service and Missionary Sunday. Rev. Lege's will speak on "The Kingdom of God." 7:30 p. m. Young People's service. 7:45 p. m. Young People's service. Rev. Lege will speak on "The Present Unemployment Situation in the Light of Bible Prophecy."

MOUNT CALVARY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH, Kimberly, W. F. Wichmann, pastor. "Christian Pilgrims in the World, set free by the Word of God." 10:30 — 12:15 will be the sermon theme in the services held in the village hall at 5:30 a. m. Sunday school services will begin at 10:30. The Rev. P. Bergmann of Menasha will conduct the Lenten services on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Sermon topic: "Men Beside the Cross."

ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH, cor. N. Oneida and E. Winnebago sts. Rev. Theodore Marth, pastor. The Passion time of the church year. Remembrance Sunday. 8:15 English high communion. First service at 9 (English). O woman, great is thy faith. At 10 in the auditorium Bible instruction for the young. Second service at 10:30 (German), followed by Holy communion.

MT. OLIVE EV. LUTHERAN CHURCH, (Wisconsin Synod), The Christ Centered Church, N. Oneida at W. Franklin R. E. Ziemann, pastor. The 2nd Sunday in Lent (Reminiscence). Bible school at 9:30 a. m. Divine service at 10:15 a. m. sermon by Rev. Carl True. Christian Faith Exemplified by The Canaanite Woman." St. Matthew 15, 21-28.

EMMANUEL EV. CHURCH, cor. Durkee and Franklin sts. C. H. Rium, pastor. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning worship 10:30 a. m. Sermon theme: "Tomorrow Is Forever." Special selections will be sung by the choir: "Blessed Jesus, Thou art with us," by George Steh. "Christ the Son of God," by Geo. Steh. Christian endeavor meeting 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST, at Seventh Day Adventist church, corner of 4th and Wisconsin sts. C. D. Heas, pastor. Sunday school at 9. Church service at 10:30 a. m. Preaching service 2 p. m. Young People's meeting 7:15 p. m. Evangelistic service 7:45 p. m.

TRINITY ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH, Northwest Synod of the L. C. A., corner of E. Kimball and S. Allen. D. F. Boeserman, pastor. Sunday school at 9 a. m. Worship service at 10:30 a. m. Sermon subject: "The Sure Foundation."

GOSPEL TEMPLE, Durkee and Harris streets. C. D. Gould, pastor. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Classes for all ages. Morning worship 10:45. Christ's Ambassadors Service 4:30 p. m. Evangelistic service 7:45 p. m.

ST. JOHN EVANGELICAL REFORMED CHURCH, West College Ave. Rev. A. Guenther, pastor. Sunday school begins at 9:30 a. m. English worship at 10:30 a. m. The sermon topic: "The True Bread of Life."

ST. MATTHEW EV. LUTHERAN CHURCH, Mason street off College avenue. Selvester Johnson, pastor. Sunday services: German service 8:30 a. m. English service 10:30 a. m. Sunday school 10:30 a. m.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, KIMBERLY, L. C. Smith, pastor. 9:30 church school. 10:30 worship service. Sermon by Rev. L. W. Johnson. 7:30 Senior Young People. Wednesday, 7:30, Lenten service.

FIRST ENG. LUTHERAN CHURCH, E. North and N. Drew sts. F. C. Reuter, pastor. 9:30 a. m. English subject: "Qualities of a True Christian." 10:30 a. m. English subject: "Qualities of a True Christian." 7:30 p. m. English subject: "Qualities of a True Christian."

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIEN- TIST, corner 2nd and Harris at Sun. day services at 11 a. m. Subject: "Man."

20 Tables in Play at Parent-Teacher Party

Clintonville—Twenty tables were in play at a public card party given Thursday evening at the high school gymnasium by the Parent-Teacher association. There were six tables of schafkopf, in which high prizes went to Edward Thies and Mrs. Frank Manser. Auction bridge was played at 14 tables, honors going to John Ewer, Lyle Elsbury, Miss Leola Knudson, Mrs. W. L. Gould and Mrs. Nick Geiger. Special prizes after the card games were awarded to Miss Fern Schoenfeld and Mrs. Albert Mielke. As general chairman of the event, Mrs. George Graff was assisted by Mrs. George McCutley, head of the lunch committee; Mrs. R. A. Greb, tables; Mrs. August Block, prizes; and Mrs. Joseph Leyrer, publicity.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Dahm, Jr., met Thursday evening at their home on S. Bennett street to celebrate the former's sixty-eighth birthday anniversary. A supper was served, after which the time was spent informally.

St. Martin Lutheran Men's club held its regular meeting Thursday evening at the school auditorium. After the usual order of business, vocal selections were rendered by a high school boys' ensemble and by a high school girls' quartet. A "Professor Quiz" contest was conducted, after which a lunch was served.

Tuesday evening a group from the local club plans to go to Green Bay to attend a meeting of the Lutheran Men's club there.

The March meeting of St. Martin Lutheran Ladies Aid society was held Thursday afternoon at the church basement.

Waupaca Pair Due Back From Long Trip Sunday
Waupaca — Mr. and Mrs. Phil Teisberg are expected to return from a six weeks western trip through the south and west Sunday. Their trip included the world's fair at San Francisco.

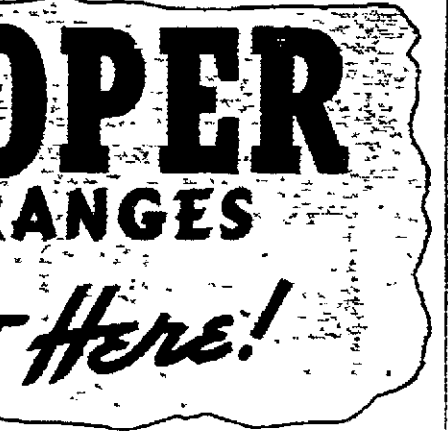

A. E. Woody will spend Sunday and Monday in Madison on business.

William J. Rouch left Friday for Rochester where his wife has been a patient for nearly two months at the Mayo hospital after an emergency operation of a nature that has never before come before the attention of specialists of the clinic. An attack of influenza has continued since the hospital for an additional length of time.

Miss Eleanor Zitzler, Madison, is a guest at the home of her sister Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Johnson She expects to return to her home Sunday.

L. W. Johnson spent Friday in Shawano on business.

George W. Whalen, Waupaca county conservation warden, is spending the weekend in Woodruff.

Style

Performance

Economy

The "Commodore"

They're smarter. They offer unequalled performance. They save money by saving time, food, and fuel. When you see them, you will readily agree these new ranges are the finest gas ranges ever built by Roper—maker of America's leading gas ranges for over 54 years.

Prices start at $39.50

Lo-e down payment—

Balance Easy Terms!

Pleats for Children

Pleats appear in juvenile as well as grown-up fashions this spring. Miss Ten-Year-Old's dusty blue frock, striped in white and darker blue, is stitched to make a plain front panel, releasing unpressed pleats below. It's made of spun rayon, woven to resist wrinkling during a school day or a long ride in the car. Miss Six-Year-Old's white-dotted pink dimity frock is pleated, too, and is trimmed with white ric-rac braid.

Principal of School Changes Mother's Mind About Her Son

A somewhat breathless lady entered the principal's office soon after the beginning of the afternoon session.

"I've come in to complain about the treatment my son received at the hands of a young ruffian this noon. Disgraceful! My son is in bed after a beating. It is a nice how-de-do when boys and girls cannot go to school in their own town without being beaten up by foreigners. If they can't be made to behave they ought to be sent back to where they came from."

"Who is the boy? What class? And your boy's name, please?" The ruffian was sent for and appeared promptly, a good-looking, healthy boy in the senior class. He was clean as a whistle and his clothes were neatly brushed and pressed.

"Victor, did you get into a fight with a boy on your way home to lunch today?" "Yes, sir."

"Telling me about it?" "Not at all. Only I would like him to hear what I say. I would rather say it before him. Can I call him?"

"He isn't here, is he?" "Yes, sir. He is in class now. I'd rather he heard what I say about him."

He was back in a few minutes with another boy, his own age and size, but his kind. This had lacked the sureness, the candor of the first. "Now then."

"I was walking down F street, and Montgomery was just behind me. An old clothes man, a wreck of an old man, bent over and crippled with sickness—old age, too maybe—and dirty, and all that, was coming up the street and calling, 'Old clo. Montgomery called to me and said, 'That your old man?' And I said, 'Yes. Don't you like him?'"

And he said, 'No more I do you. You're both dirty so and so. I reached for him and punched his nose. That's all.'"

"Montgomery?" "That's about right." "Thank you. You may both return to your classroom."

"Do you mean to tell me that you are going to allow that boy to punch my boy in the nose and get away with it? No wonder we have young gangsters. I'll have him arrested. I'll see whether or not a decent American child is going to be beaten up by foreigners."

"Mrs. Montgomery. Do you know that the old clothes man was no relation whatever to that boy save that they were of the same race? Do you know that this boy struck to defend old age, and the honor of his people? Don't you see he is an American citizen and quite as much entitled to his citizenship as your boy is? And entitled, too, to walk the streets without being insulted? Do you think your boy showed good manners? The manners we would like to believe an American boy used in associating with his companions? What would you expect your son to do if another boy insulted him, his family and his people?"

"Punch him in the nose," she said. "He didn't look like a bad boy, I must admit. But I was mad. I'll talk to Montgomery. They'd better get along with each other. Though I must say—Well, Good-bye."

Mr. Post will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write him in care of this paper, enclosing a three-cent stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

(Copyright, 1939)

My Neighbor Says—

Slow germinating and tender seeds can best be started indoors in a seed box and later transplanting to a cold frame or another box.

Because the minerals found in some vegetables are soluble in water, those vegetables should be steamed or cooked in a small amount of water. A number of cooks add soda to heighten the colors of green vegetables. Such a practice is not advisable, however, since soda destroys part of the vitamins.

Cottage cheese mixed with water-cress makes a good filling for graham bread sandwiches. Other tasty combinations include cream cheese with orange marmalade, minced ham and lettuce, hard-cooked egg mixed with nuts, chipped peanuts added to celery and salad dressing, sliced tongue spread with horseradish, and salmon combined with sliced sweet pickles.

The soda taste commonly found in foods in which that leavening agent is used is often the result of the use of too much soda or the fact that it is not properly mixed with the other ingredients. The soda first should be dissolved in a small amount of liquid called for in the recipe. Or it may be thoroughly stirred into the rest of the dry ingredients before they are added to the liquids.

If dirt becomes ground into a waxed floor, moisten a cloth with turpentine and rub the turpentine well into the floor until the wax is removed, then wash the floor anew and polish it.

When milk has turned sour allow it to stand until it wheys, then turn into a cheese cloth bag and bark up to drain until dry. You will then have cottage cheese.

(Copyright, 1939)

ing from 10 x 14 inches to 11 x 21 inches; illustrations of stitches; materials required; color chart and key.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to Appleton Post-Crescent Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly, pattern number, your name and address.

LILAC BEDSPREAD PATTERN 1718

Like a breath of spring are these lovely shaded lilacs. And they're quickly stitched on an old or new spread—easy-daisy stitch in two shades of one color for the flowers—the rest in other simple stitches. Don't lose a minute in getting started on this fascinating embroidery. Pattern 1718 contains a transfer pattern of 6 motifs rang-

Extra Trick Gives Player Winning Points

BY ELY CULBERTSON

It has been truly pointed out that a player may never relax for a moment at match-point duplicate. At rubber bridge, when the declarer can see that his contract is iron-clad, he cannot be greatly blamed for being casual about overtricks at twenty or thirty points each. At duplicate, however, these overtricks may be, and usually are, the crucial factor in determining top scores. In a recent New York eight-table duplicate game seven declarers competently bid and made four hearts on the following hand. Only one declarer made an extra trick. This gifted individual received seven match-points on the board, the others had to be satisfied with three points each. Thus, as will be seen, a difference of four match-points resulted from a mere over-trick.

North, dealer. Both sides vulnerable.

NORTH
♠ 8 7 6 5
♥ A 9 8 2
♦ A K 6 4
♣ A

WEST
♠ K Q 10
♥ 6 4
♦ Q J 9 8
♣ Q 7 6

EAST
♠ 9 4 3
♥ 7 5 3
♦ 10 7
♣ 10 9 5 3

SOUTH
♠ A J 2
♥ K Q J 10
♦ 5 3 2
♣ 8 4 2

At all tables the contract was four hearts, the bidding usually proceeding:

North East South West
1 diamond Pass 1 heart Pass
2 hearts Pass 3 no trump Pass
4 hearts Pass Pass Pass

Strangely enough, the opening lead was the same at all eight tables, namely, the spade king. In most cases the South players permitted this to hold, hoping for a Bath coup—a spade continuation up to the A-10, but invariably, at the second trick, West shifted to the diamond queen. Seven declarers promptly put up dummy's king, cashed the club ace, entered the South hand with a trump, and ruffed a club. They repeated this process a second time and then had to use the spade ace for entry to their own hand in order to draw the outstanding trumps. At the end they were left with another spade and a diamond loser, hence had to be content with exactly four-odd.

Top score was won in the following manner: The spade king was permitted to hold the first trick and when West shifted to the diamond queen, this was ducked. Declarer saw that if the diamond suit were to break 3-3, the ducking play would be valuable in that he could later discard a spade on dummy's fourth diamond.

There might, however, be an additional value in passing the diamond queen. West had shown the king and queen of spades by his opening lead. If he also had four diamonds, an interesting situation might develop.

After West held the second trick with the diamond jack, he shifted to a low club. Dummy's ace won and declarer entered his own hand with a trump to the ten, to ruff a club. The nine of hearts was overtaken with the jack and declarer's last club was ruffed with the trump ace. Now, the spade ace was utilized for an entry and declarer cashed the king and queen of hearts. On the first of these, West safely discarded his last club, but on the second was in deep water. He could not give up the spade queen without establishing declarer's jack, nor could he let a diamond without presenting dummy with three diamond tricks. Not being sure who held the spade jack, and feeling that it was more important to guard the diamond suit, West let go the spade queen. Declarer cashed the jack of spades and then collected the ace and king of diamonds for fulfillment of the contract and an extra trick.

The positing of the second diamond trick had been the crucial point in this play. It had resulted in a squeeze on West between spades and diamonds.

Write your bridge troubles and problems to Ely Culbertson, care of this paper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Copyright, 1939)

ors of green vegetables. Such a practice is not advisable, however, since soda destroys part of the vitamins.

Cottage cheese mixed with water-cress makes a good filling for graham bread sandwiches. Other tasty combinations include cream cheese with orange marmalade, minced ham and lettuce, hard-cooked egg mixed with nuts, chipped peanuts added to celery and salad dressing, sliced tongue spread with horseradish, and salmon combined with sliced sweet pickles.

The soda taste commonly found in foods in which that leavening agent is used is often the result of the use of too much soda or the fact that it is not properly mixed with the other ingredients. The soda first should be dissolved in a small amount of liquid called for in the recipe. Or it may be thoroughly stirred into the rest of the dry ingredients before they are added to the liquids.

If dirt becomes ground into a waxed floor, moisten a cloth with turpentine and rub the turpentine well into the floor until the wax is removed, then wash the floor anew and polish it.

When milk has turned sour allow it to stand until it wheys, then turn into a cheese cloth bag and bark up to drain until dry. You will then have cottage cheese.

(Copyright, 1939)

ing from 10 x 14 inches to 11 x 21 inches; illustrations of stitches; materials required; color chart and key.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to Appleton Post-Crescent Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly, pattern number, your name and address.

LILAC BEDSPREAD PATTERN 1718

Like a breath of spring are these lovely shaded lilacs. And they're quickly stitched on an old or new spread—easy-daisy stitch in two shades of one color for the flowers—the rest in other simple stitches. Don't lose a minute in getting started on this fascinating embroidery. Pattern 1718 contains a transfer pattern of 6 motifs rang-

Beauty and You

by PATRICIA LINDSAY

Good posture and deep breathing are conducive to developing a voice which pleases.

"A woman is as beautiful as her voice!" states Amy Ellerman, famous American concert singer and teacher of voice to such stars as Irene Dunne and Lynne Carver.

"It's how you say it, as well as what you say that impresses your listener," Miss Ellerman continued. "Fascinating conversation and important news to impart must be yours, but they will reflect no honor upon you unless you deliver them well."

"Any person who wishes to succeed in business and social life must cultivate a pleasant voice. Men and women in the business world know the value of the first impression. But so often in the rush of daily work, they forget that speech plays a most important part of that impression."

"Many men and women seeking positions have lost out because of unattractive voices. Young women particularly, depend too much on youth and beauty to 'get them by.' And the unfortunate thing is that they never know why they didn't get the job. Your voice can be the first indication of your background and training. And all employers want their employees to have those assets."

Practice Makes Perfect There are a few fundamentals necessary to develop a resonant, interesting voice and you should pay as much attention to those as you do to your facial and physical appearance.

All voice teachers stress the primary importance of proper breathing. Too little breath taken into your lungs will make your voice shallow and rasping. You should acquire the habit of breathing deeply by consciously filling your lungs to capacity. Soon you will notice that your voice is richer and more beautiful in tone.

Practice Voice Control You should also learn to control your voice by speaking slowly. Many people gush forth their words in a hurry, fearing their listeners will not wait to hear what they have to say. The more rapid your speech the less coherent it is, and any listener is provoked when he cannot understand what you are saying.

"Last of all, but very important, learn to adjust your voice. A gay, lifting voice is charming for social life, but it can be extremely boring if used continuously in a business office. Select the proper tone color for your environment. Keep your voice flexible so the right pitch may be used for the current occasion."

Test Your Voice "And," counsels this thorough voice instructor, "before you advise your friends how to speak, test your own voice. Listen to yourself speak! You may have your voice recorded at one of the shops which have machines to reproduce your words as quickly as you speak them. Such a test is not costly and it is invaluable in determining what correction your own voice needs. If you carefully note the faults and then try to correct them, you have taken a big step in possessing a voice which will charm."

There are some deep breathing exercises in my leaflet "How to Banish the Dowager's Hump." You may have it by enclosing a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp with your request.

(Copyright, 1939)

CASE RECORDS OF A PSYCHOLOGIST

By Dr. George W. Crane

Psychologist, Northwestern University

Children view adulthood as the promised land, so they like to imitate their father and mother, either in dress, speech, or even mannerisms and slang. Children absorb their liking for culture, as well as their religion and politics, without formal instruction therein from their parents.

CASE M-166: David, aged 22 months, is our fifth and youngest child.

When the telephone rang a moment ago, and I stopped typing to answer, I found that my chair and typewriter had been usurped.

"My first!" David said with a mischievous roll of his brown eyes, and then he reached out to strike the space bar on this typewriter.

Whenever I leave my chair he always runs to get here ahead of me ers, then habits become taskmasters, and should be broken.

Inasmuch as I don't get to spend as much time at home as I should like, especially while the children are young, I feel that my habit of writing Case Records here is a constructive one. The children know I am around all day, and it seems to please them.

Sometimes, too, I stop for a few minutes to romp with them and be their horse while they ride on my back. When my knees get sore, I suddenly develop an urge to write again, so I tell them I must get back to my typewriter.

When I grow tired of writing, or my ideas don't flow properly, I rationalize by thinking I ought to play with the youngsters for while. In this manner I finally am driven back to the typewriter sufficiently often that I get my six Case Records written.

Other writers have just as peculiar literary habits as I. Some like to write just before going to bed. Others get their daily clint out of the way before 11 A. M. Some must smoke a cigar or pipe before they can get started. Others dictate all their material. I pound out every Case Record by the famous "hunt and pick" method.

(Dr. Crane will give personal attention to questions on psychological problems. Write him, in care of this newspaper, enclosing a 2-cent stamped, addressed envelope for reply. Letters and readers' names are never published.)

(Copyright, 1939)

and keeps singing out, "My first! my first!"

He picked up that phrase from Danny, a year older than himself.

Of all the choice places I could select for transcribing these daily Case records, I seem to have chosen the most noisy. My files and data are at my downtown office.

But from years of habit, I seem to be able to write better when I am at home, so I always bring my case notes here. Even though I have a very cozy private room here at the "apartment," I don't feel comfortable while in that study.

Writers Peculiar Instead, I carry my typewriter into the dining room where the children are wont to play. It always necessitates several trips for paper, carbon, eraser, dictionary, and paper clips, and any other materials that I deem essential before I can settle down.

But invariably I go through this routine week after week, and have for the four years I have been writing this psychology series. Despite the noisy clamor of the five youngsters and any other visiting children, I still feel most comfortable here.

All letters and such casual compositions I dictate downtown, but when it comes to original or creative writing, I feel most natural in my accustomed haunts. My wife marvels at my supposed power of concentration above the usual din around me, but it isn't as great as it seems. Habit explains my behavior.

In fact, it irritates me to write letters at home, for they are associated with my downtown office from years of habit. Likewise, I vaguely resent composing this newspaper series while downtown. It has always been linked up with my home, so I feel more natural and comfortable while writing it here.

Slaves Of Habit Most of us are slaves of habits. As long as the habits are constructive, they serve as an asset. When, however, they subvert our intelligence, waste time and money, or cause undue annoyance to others, then habits become taskmasters, and should be broken.

Inasmuch as I don't get to spend as much time at home as I should like, especially while the children are young, I feel that my habit of writing Case Records here is a constructive one. The children know I am around all day, and it seems to please them.

Sometimes, too, I stop for a few minutes to romp with them and be their horse while they ride on my back. When my knees get sore, I suddenly develop an urge to write again, so I tell them I must get back to my typewriter.

Advices Girl of Methods To Use in Getting Her Man

BY DOROTHY DIX

Dear Miss Dix—I am very much in love with a man who has been coming to see me regularly for several years and who seems to enjoy being with me, but I do not know how he feels toward me. He has never mentioned love or marriage. Sometimes I think he loves me, because I see a yearning look in his eyes, but I am not certain. Shall I tell him that I love him?

DOROTHY DIX

Lady Disdain instead of the girl who will fill a blind date and whom they can pick up and put down as they please. But, alas! it is only too sadly true that in these unromantic days the ardent Romances who are willing to risk their necks climbing to a lady's window for a kiss are very scarce.

The Weary Willies who let the girls do all the petting are very plentiful.

Besides this, woman's status in marriage, as it all else, has changed. In the past when a husband had to support his wife it was, of course, manners to wait until she was asked before burdening a man with her board bill and shopping ticket. But now, when a competent business woman can not only provide her own bread and butter, but feed her husband on cakes and ale, there is no reason on earth why she shouldn't put the matrimonial proposition up to a man if she wants him for a husband.

Of course, there are those who favor a girl hiding her love and letting it gnaw upon her damask cheek. They contend that when a man knows that he has a woman's love he loses interest in her. That the girls who have many dates are not those who keep the telephone hot and the postman overworked. But the maidens who are hard to get. Furthermore, that there are no such indifferent husbands as those who are virtually dragged to the altar by the hair of their heads.

But others, with equal logic, point out that we just naturally love those who love us, that nothing attracts a man to a girl so irresistibly as seeing her eyes light up at his approach and that nothing convinces him so surely that a woman is of high intelligence, great discrimination and unusual taste as for her to set her affections on him and consider him superior to any other man in the world.

Observation backs up this latter point of view, for there are hundreds of men who marry women that they didn't have the slightest intention or desire of marrying simply because the lovelorn ladies wept upon their breasts and sobbed out that they would die if they didn't get them.

And the final argument in favor of a woman telling a man that she loves him and asking him how about it is that it gets out of her system and clarifies the situation. If he responds to her affection and has only been too dumb to mention it, well and good. If he doesn't care for her and tells her flatly so, also well and good. She knows where she stands and does not need to go on pursuing a hopeless love quest.

Dear Dorothy Dix—When my husband comes home from his office of an evening sometimes he grunts by way of greeting. Sometimes he says nothing at all. He opens his paper and reads until I set before him a dainty dinner that I have prepared. When that is over—and the meal is eaten in silence—he repairs to his study room, settles in a big easy chair to finish his paper. Then he dozes off to sleep and snores until time to go to bed. After being alone all day I feel the need of some companionship, but when I start chatting with him he tells me to shut up, that he is not interested, and says that after a man is out at business all day all he wants is a clean, neat home, good cooking and perfect peace and quiet. Just what can be done to correct this attitude?

THE MUTE ONE.

It is easier for the leopard to change his spots than it is for a middle-aged husband to alter his habits. I don't think that there is much that you can do that will be entertaining to him. But there is a lot that you can do to better the situation for yourself and keep yourself from becoming one of the peevish, fretful, neurotic wrecks into which so many unhappy wives degenerate.

You will go to pieces as sure as shooting if you continue to live as you are doing, shut up alone all day in a house, doing domestic work which gives you too much time to think about yourself and your grievances, with nothing interesting or new or exciting ever happening and with a husband who regards you as nothing but a part of the household machinery.

The remedy for you is to make a life for yourself. Join club that meet in the afternoon. Learn how to play bridge. Go to the movies. Step out one or two evenings a week with a woman friend. Of course, this will make your husband as mad as fury, but you can tell him that as long as you haven't any companionship at home you are compelled to seek it abroad. If that doesn't jolt him into trying to do something to make marriage tolerable for you nothing will.

But your letter—and I get many like it—makes one wonder that so few women instead of so many get divorces. When one sees the vast number of husbands who seem to think that just being married to them is joy and entertainment enough for any woman, and who never do anything to make their wives happy, one marvels that so many women have the strength and courage to endure them.

To spend forty or fifty years working, striving, pinching pennies to make a husband comfortable and help him to get on in the world and have one who never rewards one with a kind word or even a bit of conversation takes the stuff of which martyrs are made.

Dear Miss Dix—Is a child better off in a home with real parents or with foster parents?

Answer: Depends on the parents. A child should be better off with real parents, but just bearing children doesn't give men and women the mother or father heart, and many children would be better off with kind foster parents than they are with their own.

(Copyright, 1939)

ess von Gratz, I don't think should have discovered that he moved you here, from the Mohr Krankenhaus. And they would have refused to let me see you. But this friend impressed upon me the fact that we knew you were not too seriously wounded to see me, because of your wife, Peter, was lucky you sent that! How do you?

"A true friend, called Hans, sent it for me. He saw me arrested."

"It helped. So did the publicist about you. Anyway, at last then" plane, Rene Howard, Petrel is allowed to see Peter in prison.

Continued on page 16

Chapter 19 Plan for the Future

PETER'S one arm hugged her, marveling. Her hands touched his rough clothes. Her eyes were shocked. Their lids were red and swollen with weeping.

"I didn't think I'd ever get to you. How is your shoulder? Painful?"

"Not too bad. However did you manage it? I was only juggled last night."

"By air, from Croydon this morning. Martin Rowdon saw me off. Peter. He says—" He pulled her over to the window.

"Careful that man speaks English. He's spying on me and he's listening." She dropped her voice to a whisper. "He thinks he can get you released, if you play 'mad English'."

"Lucky I thought of that, too. You'd be surprised at the way I'm forgetting my verbs."

"James and Marigold saw me off. They sent their love. She had read about it in the papers. She telephoned after I left, and drove straight to Croydon. She was awfully upset."

Their eyes met. "Send the sweet a wire, for me. Something light, and cheerful, and my love."

"Yes, I will." He could not understand why Petrel did not smile. Was there something else she had to tell him? He was not surprised they had let her in. She looked about fifteen, in that rather creased linen suit, that broad-brimmed hat, which had decided to turn back from her wobegone, rounded face. Nothing less like a dangerous spy's accomplice could ever have gained admission into the Fortress of Gratz. "Did you get in easily?" She shook her head.

"No. It hadn't been for the help of someone called Rene Howard, whom I met in the plane coming over, and his aunt, the Baron-

According to conventional usage, a hostess receives alone and her husband assists by looking after the guests whom his wife has received at the door.

Office Manners Dear Mrs. Post: Please describe proper behavior in this business situation. I am secretary to a very busy man who has a great many people coming to see him all the time. I do not sit in his office but have a small cubicle just outside. Often, however, I have to go in and out of his office while some one is seeing him to take in telegrams that need immediate answer, to get him information that he wants at the time, or to ask him to take a telephone call that is long distance in fact, as many of our secretaries will tell you, it is not possible to interrupt a busy executive if he is occupied very long with a visitor. What I want to know is whether I should excuse myself every time I have to interrupt their conversation. It seems abrupt and ill-mannered to go in and stand there without saying anything, on the other hand, perhaps it may seem impertinent to some people if such interruptions are generally accepted as part of the duties of a secretary.

Answer: You would quietly place a telegram or written memorandum or papers beside him on his desk. When it is necessary to interrupt him, you just stand facing him and wait until his attention is free, and he looks at you. You then give him the message. Of course, if you have a message that is urgent, then you would have to say, "Excuse me, Mr. Jones. Long distance calling."

the friends you are visiting.

GUEST GIVES PARTY

Dear Mrs. Post: For some years my husband has gone off hunting with a friend while I have visited his wife and every year she has shown me a perfectly wonderful time. Her lovely friends have given on a round of parties in my honor, in return for which I have never done more than say thank you. This year our husbands are going hunting again and I am staying with the other wife, and I'd like to give some kind of party while I am there. My husband thinks it would be nicer to make the occasion a dinner and include the husbands, but I feel that perhaps, because their parties are luncheons and bridge parties for the wives alone, it would not be suitable for me to return their hospitality by giving a dinner and asking the husbands. Will you give me your opinion, and also tell me if we ought to ask our hosts to receive the invitations. (We are of course giving the party in a hotel.)

Answer: I agree with your husband that it would be very nice to include the men and give a dinner. It will be simpler, I think, to give this party on their return, because you will be able to talk over your list of guests and other plans for your dinner with your hostess, and to send out your invitations from her address. Send handwritten notes of invitation as soon as you can after you arrive. If it is customary in this particular community to have any one receive with a hostess at a dinner, then you would of course invite the friends you are visiting.

CHILD'S CAPE

BY ANNE ADAMS

THE NEBBS

Take Your Time

By SOL HESS

YOU USED TO GET OUT OF JAIL ON A WIT OF HEPPIS CORPUS. WHY DON'T YOU GET YOURSELF OUT?

WON'T YOU PLEASE KEEP QUIET? WHEN YOUR BRAIN DIED, YOU SHOULD HAVE GOT TONGUE TO WORK IN JAIL TIED. (EVERY TIME YOU EVEN THINK ANYTHING WRONG!)

IF YOU EVER GET OUT OF HERE, BIG MOUTH, FIND A DIED, YOU SHOULD HAVE GOT TONGUE TO WORK IN JAIL TIED. (EVERY TIME YOU EVEN THINK ANYTHING WRONG!)

I WANT A HEARING! I KNOW MY RIGHTS!

YOU'LL GET YOUR HEARING, JUDGE NIBLUCK DON'T OPEN COURT EARLY CAUSE HE DON'T GET UP EARLY AN THEN HE HELPS HIS WIFE WITH HOUSEWORK.

I WANT A HEARING AND I WANT IT RIGHT NOW!! I WANT TO GET BAIL TO GET OUT OF HERE! DO YOU UNDERSTAND?

I UNDERSTAND. I CALLED UP JUDGE NIBLUCK AND HE SAID WED OPEN COURT AT 2 P.M. USUAL TIME. HE SAID HE WAS GLAD TO HEAR WE HAD DISTINGUISHED VISITORS!!

TILLIE THE TOILER

Mac Feels Guilty

By WESTOVER

THE IDEA OF MY FALLING ASLEEP IN THE BOSS' OFFICE—BUT HOW COULD I HELP IT WHEN I NEVER SLEPT A WINK ALL NIGHT?

OH, MAC, I DIDN'T SEE YOU

NEVER SLEPT A WINK, TILLIE? HOW COME?

NO, MAC—I DIDN'T. I WAS ALL UPSET

GOSH, SHE WAS WITH ME LAST NIGHT TILL TWELVE! WHAT DID I DO OR SAY TO UPSET HER THIS TIME?

THE LONE RANGER

Oil on Troubled Waters

By FRAN STRIKER

THE LONE RANGER POINTS TOWARD THE EAST AND SAYS: "SEE A SIGN OF MY OLD HOME? I'VE BEEN HERE WITH ALL KINDS OF BOLLING TOWNS AND MACHINERY."

THE LONE RANGER SAID YUH KEEDED US, JIM

THE BEST OIL DRILLER IN THE STATE!

AND MEN AND MACHINERY

THESE MEN WILL FINISH THE JOB FOR YOU IN THE STATE! OIL AND OIL OF THE CHANCE TO GET WIT AGE

NOW YUH'D WE CAN RIDE TO A NEW ADVENTURE

JIM, OIL WELL COMES IN ON TIME, THANKS TO THE LONE RANGER, WHILE ABE GOES TO PRISON FOR HIS SCHEMING WORK.

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE

We're Having a Heat Wave

PRAPS I'AM WRONG, KIDS, BUT I THINK WIMPY HAS GONE TO GET SPINACH JUICE TO MAKE YA GROWN AGIN

YAS?

THAT WILL BE NICE

YOU HAVE BEEN IN MY SPINACH JUICE

WHO?—ME?

SUSIE, MY DARLING, HOW COULD YOU THINK OF SUCH A THING?

WHAT HAVE YOU IN YOUR HAT?

IN MY HAT?

OH, IT'S ONLY PERSPIRATION, MY DEAR

BLONDIE

Come Out of the Kitchen, Dagwood Darling

BY CHIC YOUNG

HOW LONG IS A PIECE OF STRING, DADDY?

DON'T BOTHER DADDY, DEAR, I'M MAKING SOMETHING REAL GOOD FOR SUPPER

BLONDIE, WHERE DO YOU KEEP THE ONION JUICE? THIS CHOCOLATE SOUFFLE RECIPE CALLS FOR ONION JUICE AND TOMATOES

YOU DON'T PUT ONION JUICE IN CHOCOLATE SOUFFLE

YOU SURE DO—HERE IT IS BLACK ON WHITE IN YOUR COOKING RECIPE SCRAPBOOK

YOU TURNED THE PAGE WRONG—THE SOUFFLE IS CONTINUED HERE—THAT'S ANOTHER RECIPE

I THOUGHT THE CHOCOLATE TURNED A FUNNY COLOR WHEN I ADDED THAT CAN OF TOMATOES

DICKIE DARE

The Rivals!

By COULTON WAUGH

—YES! IT IS A SMALL ANIMAL OF SOME KIND!

AH, I SEE SOMETHING MOVING, NOW. CAN'T RISK GETTING CLOSER—BETTER TAKE A THROWN AT IT FROM HERE...

BUT DAN IS NOT THE ONLY HUNTER WHO IS BEARING DOWN ON THE ANIMAL UNDER THE BUSH—FROM THE OPPOSITE SIDE, A LEAN YELLOW SHAPE IS SLIDING ALONG A TREE TRUNK—

DIXIE DUGAN

Courage

By STREIBEL and McEVOY

IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE YOU'RE MARRIED, DENNY.

SOMEHOW I CAN'T BELIEVE IT MYSELF, DIXIE!

YOU WERE THE ONE WHO MADE UP MY MIND FOR ME, DIXIE!

I?—BUT HOW?

REMEMBER THAT NIGHT WHEN I ASKED YOU IF YOU'D MARRY A POOR MAN? WELL, YOUR ANSWER GAVE ME THE COURAGE TO PROPOSE TO BETTY.

OH! AND I THOUGHT HE WAS PROPOSING TO ME!

BETTY WILL BE GOOD FOR ME!—WHEN I GET TO SEE FAMOUS SHEN WON'T LET IT GO TO MY HEAD.

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

JOE PALOOKA

A Lesson

By HAM FISHER

NICE BOXIN' MISTER BERGLE.

YOU'VE GOT TO ADMIT THAT'S A BEAUTIFUL MAGNIFICENT! COULDN'T BOXER IN SPIKE OF HIS CROOKED CHARACTER.

HE'S REALLY AT LEAST LIKE A CHEAP TANKER!

HRMPF! AT LEAST I'M NOT A CHEAP TANKER!

ELEGANT MISTER BERGLE. WE'RE GIVIN' THEM A NICE EXABISMUN.

OH—OH—WHY MISTER BERGLE, I THINK YOUSE MEANT THAT.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

A Little Saturday Talk

SALE

SURPLUS STOCK

JALL

America's Finest Appliances at Sharply Reduced Prices! Buy the Best—Right Now—at Easiest Terms

New 1939 Electric Refrigerator $119.50
Large 6 Cu. Ft. Model — A Sensational Value!

$89.50 Detroit Star Gas Range $69.95
Beautiful Table Top, All Porcelain Model!

Save Now! New Model Electric Range $79.95
4 Burner—All Porcelain! A Marvelous Bargain!

$99.50 Coleman Gasoline Range $69.00
Brand New Model at Sensational Savings!

Look! Ivanhoe Perfection Oil Range $49.95
An Unusual Low Price For Recognized Quality!

New RCA Cabinet Radios—Save! $49.95
Every Radio a Smashing Value—at Neenah Store

Premier Special Cleaner BOTH For ONLY $29.95
Premier Hand Cleaner With Trade

Vals. to $74.95 Philco Cabinet Radios $29.95
Special Bargain Group! They'll Go Mighty Fast For Only Appleton Store

WICHMANN

Furniture Company

APPLETON 513-17 W. College Ave. Phone 6610

APPLIANCE DIVISION

NEENAH 125 W. Wisconsin Phone 544

ALL IN A LIFETIME Popular People By BECK

EVER SINCE YOUR FATHER STARTED COLLECTING FUNNY EPITAPHS ON TOMBSTONES, OUR TOUR HAS DEVELOPED INTO A ROUND OF CEMETERIES

ROOM and BOARD By GENE AHERN

THANK OF IT, EMERSON—I HAVE INVENTED A SIMPLE DEVICE THAT WILL QUICKLY END MISPLACED EYEGLASSES. HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF WEAPERS WOULD GLADLY PAY $5 FOR SUCH AN ARTICLE—AND THE PROBLEM WOULD BE SOLVED. BUT EVERYONE I APPROACH TO INVEST MONEY TURNS ME DOWN LIKE THE CORNER OF A RAILROAD. THE NETTLEHEADS WOULD MAKE A FORTUNE FROM MY INVENTION—BUT PEOPLE WILL NOT INVEST IN A NEW DEVICE BEFORE THEY WILL OWN A HAT!

SAY—LOOK HERE, JUDGE—YOU'RE PULLING A FAST ONE. MAKING YOUR $5. BUT YOU ARE ADDING 'EM AS $3!

You Get a Finer Grade of Fuel and Extra Protection When You Burn Van Dyck's

STOKER COAL

Huge magnets remove any scrap iron that may be present in this coal to harm your stoker. Order this SUPERIOR, SAFER Stoker Coal Now!

VAN DYCK COAL CO.

1905 W. Wis. Ave. Phone 5900

Many Social Affairs Are Conducted at

Chilton—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ma ler entertained the members their contract club at bridge an supper Wednesday evening, his scores being made by Mr. Madl and Mrs. Carl Hofmeister.

Mrs. Anna Kirk entertained the bridge club Wednesday afternoon, high scores being made by Mr. John Anhalt and Mrs. Wilb. Winch. The club will meet next with Mrs. August Hingiss.

their bridge club Tuesday evening high scores being made by Lu

A community card party was held at the Wagner school at Haystack Thursday evening, winners at "C"

Thursday evening, winners at all hundred being Mrs. A. L. McMath, Alice Geiser, Mrs. Theo Steudel and Mrs. John Dhein; at schafskop, Kenneth Wagner, and at skat, Gu Horst and Theodore Steudel. Mr. Martin Geiser was the hostess.

The Service Guild of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. J. Ayers Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Merle Mortimer entertained.

her bridge club Tuesday afternoon honors going to Mrs. Ray Pfeiffer and Mrs. Arthur Keuler. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. William Herman.

Mrs. Henry Kroll entertained her bridge club Tuesday, high score being made by Mrs. I. I. F.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ricker and Miss Esery Schink were at Kauna Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Fred Ricker and Mrs. Fred Larsen. The children will meet next with Mrs. Joseph McHugh.

Mrs. Frank Tesch entertained bridge Thursday afternoon, the tables being in play. High scores were made by Mrs. H. J. Voss, Mrs. Belle Broderick and Mrs. Frank Anderson. In the evening Mrs. Tesch entertained five tables prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindner entertained at cards at their home Wednesday evening, in honor of the 82nd birthday of the former's father, Oswin Lindner.

Mrs. Joseph Dhein entertains her bridge club Thursday afternoon, high scores being made by Mrs. Louis Siegrist and Mrs. Herman Winkel. The club meets next with Mrs. Al Lawonn.

Mrs. Wilson Eldridge entertains her card club Tuesday afternoon.

high scores being made by Mr. Philip Roll and Mrs. Math Steiner. The club meets next with Mr. Clem Kampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gasch entertained at 500 Thursday evening honors going to Mrs. Arno Ammann. Miss Elizabeth Moyer and Mr. Vincent Gerner.

Mrs. Thomas Flatley entertained the Queen of Hearts club Tuesday. afternoon, honors going to Mrs. James Millay, Mrs. J. J. Grimm and Mrs. L. P. Laughrin. The club will meet next with Mrs. Anton Hoffmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aebisch entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner Tuesday in honor of their guests, Mrs. R. Bucholz of Two Rivers, Wis.

guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Buehler, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Buehler, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aebischer and daughter Margaret. The Ladies' Aid society of the Ebenezer Reformed church met in the church hall on Thursday afternoon, the hostesses being Mrs. Otto Voigt and Mrs. Frank Schneider.

Ladies Aid Society in Meeting at Shiocton
Shiocton—The Lutheran Ladies Aid society conducted its March meeting at the church parlor Thursday afternoon with the following ing committee in charge: Mrs. P. A. Sielaff, Mrs. William Kroeger, Mr. Kenneth Andrews and Mrs. Donald Andrews.

Members of St. Ann's society are planning a lunch Saturday noon at the continued auction of the estate of the late George Lonkey.

Myron Ames has moved his family from Clintonville to the North ern farm east of the village, where he will be employed. Miss Ardy Ames has entered the local high school as a junior and Glenice Ames is a fourth grader in the Shiloh octon State Graded school.

Mrs. Leitzke and family, who have been occupying the Harvey Pooler residence, have moved into the Wallace Durkee residence and will occupy the lower floor.

Mrs. Carl Heiser, who has been spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Mathilda Pederson, who is ill, returned to her home at Enterprise Thursday morning.

Mrs. Anna Nelson of Eau Claire is at the Pederson home at present. Mrs. Nelson is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Pederson.

Mrs. Mac Poole of Appleton is making an extended visit at the

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Knorr, Jr. returned Monday from a month's trip to the south and west. They visited various points along the way going as far south as El Paso, Texas and then continuing on west. Their first stop was at Los Angeles, Calif. From there they went to Santa

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Knorr, Jr. returned Monday from a month's trip to the south and west. They visited various points along the way going as far south as El Paso, Texas and then continuing on west. Their first stop was at Los Angeles, Calif. From there they went to Santa

Monica, Long Beach, and Venice. At Venice they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maas, former residents of New London. At San Francisco they attended the Exposition opening. From there they left for Portland, Ore., where they stopped to visit Mrs. Gust Mann, former resident of Shocott. They continued home by way of Idaho, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa and then on to Chicago. In all their trip covered about 8,000 miles.

---

Plan Variety Program At Roosevelt School

Plans for a ninth grade variety program are being formulated at Roosevelt Junior High school.

Roosevelt Junior High School. A call for pupils to participate was issued yesterday by Charles Herzog, who is in charge of production. The program will be presented in about six weeks.

Week-end Digest of Business Activity In Appleton and Vicinity

Design, Hardware And DeLux Finish Mark Coolerator

Air Conditioned Refrigerator Noted for Service, Beauty

When you see the new Coolerator, the latest in modern ice refrigerators, its beauty is the first thing that strikes your eye. The exceptional beauty of the Coolerator is attained, explains Lutz Ice Company officials, Coolerator dealers, as a result of design, hardware, and the white Dulux finish. Every Coolerator of course, today, boasts the Dulux superlative white finish and special bonderizing of the hardware portions.

In appearance, Dulux looks like porcelain. It is a great deal more than that, however, for it is a pure, glowing white, full of life substance, that resists deterioration and yellowing. It has been called by many the outstanding development of all time in refrigerator finishes. It combines the two essential qualities of a perfect finish for any product which is beauty and durability. Bonderizing is an extra value offered by Coolerator. It is really an expensive process to bonderize every piece of steel which goes into the making of a Coolerator but it means added years of satisfactory service and at no additional expense to the purchaser. It is a patented process of treating metal to insure permanency even under the most severe conditions.

Convenience Beauty plays its part in Coolerator but its most outstanding feature is found in its operation. Food flavors do not mingle and dishes need not be covered. The food odors are picked up by a continual flow of air and are passed through a patented air-conditioning chamber where they are completely absorbed and washed away. Cold, healthfully humidified air returns to the food chamber several times each minute. A constant cold air temperature between 42 and 50 degrees Fahrenheit is maintained which is recognized as being the only safe temperature range in keeping foods edible.

Lutz's will welcome the opportunity to explain all features in detail of the Coolerator without the slightest obligation on your part to buy. All that is necessary is to stop in at the N. Superior street display headquarters and office and ask to have the Coolerator shown to you. Remember too, that you may try the Coolerator in your home for 10 days free trial and let it alone prove its merits to you and your family.

Appleton Has 17 Traffic Accidents During Last Month

Seventeen accidents, 14 involving property damage and 3 injuries to persons, were reported in Appleton during February, according to a report of Sergeant Carl Radtke, head of the police traffic division. In February of 1938 there were 22 accidents in the city, 19 involving property damage and 3 injuries to persons.

The three persons injured last month were pedestrians. Since Jan. 1 there have been 37 accidents in the city, 11 causing property damage and 3 injuries to persons.

Of the drivers involved in the traffic mishaps, 20 were residents of Appleton, 4 residents in the Appleton area, six living elsewhere in the state and 1 out-of-state resident.

Twenty drivers' tests were given and the license applications granted during the month.

Be A Careful Driver

Factory Methods Feature Bieritz Instrument Work

Band Members Find Firm Fully Equipped and Very Capable

Student band members of the Fox River Valley school who are not already acquainted with the factory method musical instrument servicing featured by the Bieritz Musical Instrument Repair Service are urged to personally visit and investigate the possibilities of its reputable firm. Considerable savings in time and money is made possible for students, the Bieritz firm explains, through taking advantage of its local factory method repair service without sacrificing in any way the quality of the work.

Every effort is made, the Bieritz firm insists, to constantly secure latest equipment for its repair work, making possible more exacting and time-saving jobs and the guarantee of quality repairs at lowest prices. Since its location in the new and larger headquarters at 223 N. Appleton street even better application of its widely known factory repair methods is made possible. Lothar Bieritz, head of the firm states, Exclusive Fox River Valley agency for the famous Martin and Indiana line of band instruments is a feature of the instrument sales department of the Bieritz firm. Both types are built by having a feature recognized throughout the country as being a superior method of construction.

Dollar for dollar, either line of the Martin instruments, Martin, its first line instrument, or Indiana, its second line, offers great value. Handcraft quality gives infinitely more playing satisfaction, owners report. In spite of the extra cost in construction, prices of these handcraft instruments compare favorably with most any of the top quality line of instruments manufactured on a quantity basis, rather than by the slower, but more careful handcraft method.

All instruments purchased from the Bieritz firm are sold under easy payment plans if desired, with liberal trade-in allowance for old instruments.

Insurance Firms Guard Interests Of Crash Victims

Company Carries Service To Greater Lengths Than Realized

While the majority of automobile owners realize the importance of carrying automobile liability insurance, few appreciate the service and help that an insurance carrier gives them when an accident occurs. This service is amply demonstrated when injuries necessitate the heads of families to be in hospitals after a highway mishap.

The Home Mutual Casualty Company is equipped to furnish nationwide claim service, and immediately after an accident, trained courteous adjusters will investigate the accident and protect your interests and also keep you informed on important developments while you recuperate. It is gratifying to injured ones and their families to know that their interests are being safeguarded by persons specializing in accident investigation work. Your casualty company shoulders your worries at a time when you most need a helping hand.

Files of insurance companies contain numerous cases where husband and wife met death in an auto accident leaving behind one or more young children. The children must depend on some guiding hand to protect the estate left them against jury verdicts. Such help is received under a policy of insurance. The foresighted person, who has been thrifty to build up a sizeable estate and who has added to his life's savings by carrying life insurance, cannot afford to destroy his life's work by putting off getting the auto insurance protection he and his family need.

The next time you are downtown in Appleton, stop at the home office of the Home Mutual Casualty Company, 4th floor, Zuelke Building, and inquire about rates for automobile liability insurance. Rates will be given without obligation to buy. Or, call 4600.

Jury List Is Drawn at Calumet Courthouse

Chilton — The county jury commissioners, A. P. Baumann, Chilton, Edgar Lanke, New Holstein, and Theodore Kersten, town of Brill, met this week and drew the jurors for the 1939 term of circuit court, which convenes here March 20. Brill town, Louis Rank, Hilbert Radloff and William Fritz; Brillville, Edward Keller, Peter Hansen; town of Brodsworth, Mrs. Agnes Mueller, John Kern, Robert Lacey; town of Charlestown, Alfons Reiser, George Lemke; Chilton city, Mrs. Elizabeth Minahan, Arno Endres, Henry Stoenpott, August Hingis; Chilton town, August Prosen, Otto Moerkke; town of Harrison, Reuben Stadler, Mrs. Hildegard Wittmann, Mrs. Florence Sparcliff, Clifford Bishop; town of New Holstein, Arno Martin, Clemens Riehl, Mrs. Martha Schmidt; New Holstein city, Walter Mathes, Ruben Kuehl, Nick Kees; town of Rantoul, Arno Albers, Carl Oim, Oscar Hillmann; town of Stockbridge, William Gaezer, Alex. Bodiger; Stockbridge village, Mert Haevel; town of Woodville, Harry Loefler, Mrs. Susan Reiter.

MODEST MAIDENS

Trademark Registered U. S. Patent Office

"That's nothing. I saw a robin yesterday!"

Accordions Gains Approval; Is Versatile, Unique Instrument

The Van Zeeland Music company, through its many years of successful teaching, has found that music can be learned and appreciated on a number of different instruments; each instrument having its own peculiarities and advantages. Possibly no other instrument has enjoyed such a universal acceptance and wide appeal as that of the piano accordion. It contains more desirable features wanted by the average person studying music than any other single instrument. It provides a sound foundation for the study of music and learning the fundamental harmony necessary to musical advancement and to a real appreciation of the art of music in general. We might say that this is learning the technical side of music.

On the other hand, the piano accordion offers such abundant opportunities for self expression and enjoyment that it is desired by everyone. It gives young people a chance to create favor with fellow companions, and to stand out from the crowd. Here's a chance for them to get recognition and an opportunity to build self confidence.

The accordion is unique in that it is the only portable instrument that produces and provides for the melody part and also has the possibility of harmony in either its simple or most intricate forms. It is a real pleasure to study such a musical instrument. The piano accordion reminds one of a person with good breeding. It can fit into and become a part of any group or occasion. It is beautiful and untiring as a solo instrument, but it blends artistically and adds rich color to any ensemble group. It makes itself at home everywhere, in the home, at school, at church, at parties, banquets, dances, — on formal or informal occasions.

The piano accordion can either be the center of attraction or the background. It is truly versatile. It is enjoyed by all and can be played by all. The Van Zeeland Music company, 106 N. Oneida street, invites you to inspect their easy payment plan on lessons and instruments. It costs so little to learn and you'd be surprised how easy the piano accordion is to play.

DANGEROUS SERVICE

by GRACE ELLIOTT TAYLOR

Continued from page 12

were two forms to fill in, and I was inside."

"You marvelous girl. Where is this Rene?"

"Waiting for me." But still she did not smile, but buried her head against him. "I've got to tell you something so awful, Peter."

"What is it? I knew you had. Go on—shoot."

"Dead!"

"Aunt Maisie. She died two hours after I left. James telephoned."

"Dead! I didn't even know she was really ill." He gripped her very tightly.

"And Peter, she knew, but she sent me to you, sent me away, and died all alone." Petronella was sobbing.

"You poor kid. You've had a terrible time. Two shocks like that. I wish I could get out and keep you company. You must go home."

"Yes, when I know you're to be released. I'll be all right. Rene is taking me to see the Palaces."

"Dead!" she tried to smile. "I'll go home in time for the funeral. The Randalls and Dr. Harris are arranging everything. Afterwards I'll come back, if you're not free. Then we'll mend your shoulder, wherever you like — but not at home, just for a little while. It is too awfully sad. It was cancer. She had known for three months. I must tell you the things she said. Peter, it is almost as if she died to help us."

He listened to her. "Wonderful Aunt Maisie — she was a top-notch girl right," he said gruffly. "But she was wrong. You ought to stay at home and marry James."

"I can't. The day you left England I met Tony Lance again. At Mike's party."

"What did he say? Did he explain?"

She shook her head. "No. He didn't say much. But it was just the same, Peter. I'm more likely to meet him, if I'm with you. He has some government job. He is in Moscow by now. From the way he looked at her, she knew that, in his opinion, her love was infatuation. It awakened his pity."

"In that case you'd better stick along with me, old girl. I'll be glad to have you. You know that. Once I get out of this dump."

"You will. I'm sure of it. We'll go anywhere you like."

"Petrol. I've got an idea —"

"Tell him I hope his intentions are honorable," he joked. Bending his sandy-red head, he kissed her forehead. Petronella clung to him. She felt that he would soon be free to accompany her. But her heart experienced a moment of panic. You could never be sure. Charges of spying were frightening, incalculable. Sometimes they ended in smiles, bows, compliments. You were released within two or three days. But sometimes they ended in scolding, false evidence against you, scars, headlines, and, at the end, a rain of bullets for your heart.

"Aufwiederschen, darling," she breathed.

"Aufwiederschen."

A week after Maisie Mason was laid in her deep grave in Ballfield churchyard, the telephone summoned Petronella from upstairs. She was busy preparing for her move to the cottage. At first, she could only part with one thing in ten. She had reached the despairing stage of discarding all but one in twenty. Hodgson and his wife were forced to live in the village. The "Forest House" was to be sold by auction. The furniture Petronella was taking to the cottage was to be stored until the reconstruction of Mr. Hodgson's former home was finished.

She ran to the phone, and answered it.

"Berlin wants you, Miss Malone," said Elsie at the exchange. It was Peter.

"That you, Petrol? I'm being escorted across the frontier in ten minutes by a couple of fellows who look like they might burst their uniforms, if I told them they were made them. Understand? I'm coming home!"

"Peter! I just can't believe it. Free! You'll be met by Movietone, and Gaumont British, and half London at Victoria Station. Your very worst photo has been in every paper."

Not On The Program

For a moment there was silence. Look here, good Lord, that's terrible! Look here, I'm not coming. I can't face a show like that. Call Rowdon. Tell him bad food and mild excitement have given me spots, and I can't face my public. I'll go to Vienna. Lie low for a week or so. By that time there will be a good murder to fill the headlines. I'll send him my complete story. If he wants to get in touch with me, he can write or wire. Got to go now. The boys are here."

"Peter!" she cried to recall him. "How is your shoulder?"

"Better. Are you bearing up, dear? Sorry I couldn't be with you."

"Peter, she left you — but his gay goodbye cut her short."

A few days later, Petronella sat in Simpson's, in the Strand, lunching with Mrs. Rowdon. She had commenced this lunch by balancing on the edge of her chair and mutilating her roll of bread, from nervousness. Now she sat back, at ease. Martin Rowdon, meeting her clear eyes, with friendly, appreciative understanding, listened to her news. She did not need his job; she had inherited about seven hundred a year. Peter was still shy of his publicity. "Last time we met, it didn't look as if all your troubles would end so happily," he reminded her. "As it happens I'm not sorry Peter has decided to stay in Vienna. I'm going to give him another chance, abroad. Of course, he's crazy, but a lot of the

Good Printing Is Needed to Reduce Selling Expenses

Roemer Printers Show Ways of Adding Sales At Low Cost

Selling expenses can be reduced considerably by using good printing, according to Chris Roemer Estate Printers, 119 S. Appleton street. For printing, this firm maintains, that is carefully planned and widely distributed is not an expense. While it does cost something to produce, the right kind of printing brings back in sales far more than its original cost.

You can use printing to cover prospects, so far scattered that you cannot afford to have salesmen call on them. In addition, printing will keep you in touch with former customers and perhaps make their accounts active again. Customers and prospective customers can be informed too, of special offers, newly arrived merchandise, easily, promptly, and effectively, all at little cost.

Such promotion, Roemer Estate printers continue, brings sales at lower costs. Therefore printing which brings results actually reduce the percentage of selling cost to the volume of sales. The right kind of printing such as this firm produces daily for many local business men, actually saves money rather than costs money.

Good printing, cleanly and attractively done at moderate prices is what counts in the opinion of the Chris Roemer Estate printers.

Customers say that you will be completely satisfied with every bit of printing which you trust to this firm, no matter what it may be, letterheads, invoices, personal or business stationery, calling cards, handbills, circulars, promotion pieces, and the like.

Concrete suggestions as to printed matter calculated to increase your volume of business await your request at Roemer's. The telephone number is 1790.

Church Society Meets At Leeman Residence

Leeman — Mrs. Roy Cook entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church at her home Wednesday. Dinner was served and the afternoon spent socially. Hymns were sung and the regular business session was held. Announcements have been received of the birth of a son Feb. 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jahnke in Milwaukee. Mrs. Jahnke was formerly Miss Evelyn Spaulding of this place.

Sons were born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Wright Allen and to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwandt. The latter formerly was Miss Faye Leeman.

Miss Esther Olson left the first of the week for Green Bay where she is employed at the Bellin Memorial hospital.

Arthur Allen, who has spent the last several months at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Marx in Appleton, has returned to his home here.

Miss Maxie Webb has returned home from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Fayetteville, N. C., and Swainsboro, Ga.

Miss Edith Thornton, teacher at Sunset school, has reported the following pupils to have had a perfect attendance record for February: Phyllis Bergsaken, Bernard Winsen, Shirley Peterson and Arlene Grant.

Those on the A honor roll are Myrtle Novoski, Phyllis Bergsaken, Luella Strong, Russell Young, Shirley Peterson, Ruth Gunderson and Rosemary Young.

B honor roll: Gordon Poole, Gordon Cummings, Janet Poole and Arlene Grant.

best news getters are that I believe he'll be all right. I shall tell him to stay there till his shoulder is really mended, and then I'll see what he's up to. "What's happening in other places. What about you, my dear? You'll miss him."

Mischievously, gaily, she pretended to misunderstand. "Oh, I don't think so. Vienna must be quite a small city. If I leave a note at the post office, Peter will be round at my hotel within a few hours."

"So that was the plan they had for the future," he frowned, smiling. He had half expected this. He could not prevent it. It might be a good thing. But not for long. "Take care you don't get restless to settle down in Ballfield with that fair haired young man of yours. Europe is apt to get into one's blood, under one's skin. Peter. Then, you can't stay at home."

"The fair-haired young man isn't on the program at all."

"So? I'm sorry. He ought to be. You won't want to racket around indefinitely, you know. And Peter won't be able to take you. Suppose your friend finds some other girl, while you're away?" Her answer surprised him. He had expected flippant incredulity, or a shade of fear.

"I rather hope he does. It might be happier for both of us," she said thoughtfully. He was watching her fair, lightly freckled face. So there was someone else? Women didn't give their men friends away, or unless they had substitutes handy. Or was this girl different? The thought disturbed him. If her accompanying brother was to continue indefinitely, it would be unsuitable.

"I don't like the idea. If Peter makes good on the foreign staff, he'll become an official war correspondent; he'll be sent to some hot spots. I don't trust him to look after you."

"What you are going to discover is that I can be trusted to look after him," she laughed. "You'll see."

(Copyright, 1939)

Monday: Letter from Russia.

Nehls Paint, Wallpaper Co. Marks 35th Anniversary

Celebrating 35 years in the decorating business, William Nehls and Son, headquarters for wallpaper, paints and varnishes, 224-28 W. Washington street, will next week mail out a "model home" selection book of wallpaper samples that will be highly interesting to every home owner.

Consisting of two sections, one devoted to moderately priced papers and another to the highest quality line, the selection presents scores of samples measuring 54 by 84 inches — big enough to give a good idea of the various patterns. Included also are many suggestions and illustrations, all of which combine to make this a book that everyone will want to keep on hand for future reference.

The Nehls company, which has one of the largest selections of wallpaper in this vicinity, will hold an open house showing of its beautiful new lines, many of which are obtainable for as little as 5 cents a roll. There is no obligation to buy in connection with this open house showing, and everyone is invited to come in and inspect the 1939 offerings.

Nehls also present a spring showing of Benjamin Moore paints, and varnishes, and anyone who contemplates redecorating of one or more rooms, or of exterior painting, will be money ahead to visit Nehls. Estimates on any painting job will be given without cost and with no obligation. The quality of the reasonably-priced Moore paints and the high standard of Nehls' workmanship, assure a long-lasting, beautiful finish.

The Nehls telephone number is 452 should you want a representative to call at your home for estimates and advice.

Card Party Given by Couple at Sugar Bush

Sugar Bush — Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thoma entertained their card club Wednesday evening. Schafkopf was played, high score going to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peter's, low to Mrs. John Ruckdahl and Theodore Ruckdahl. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ruckdahl, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ruckdahl, Mr. and Mrs. John Ruckdahl and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peters.

Mrs. Lizzie Hoffmann left Wednesday for Duane, Ill., to visit her new grandson, Donald Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Landwer. Mrs. Theodore Ruckdahl accompanied her as far as Fond du Lac.

August Flunker has returned from Chicago and is now with the John Galloway family.

Deeds Office Receipts Last Month Were $597

Receipts at the office of Stephen Peeters, Outagamie county register of deeds, in February amounted to $597.10, a slight increase over the February 1938 receipts which amounted to $564.15.

During last month 431 chattels were filed and 416 recordings made, as against 381 chattels and 398 recordings in February a year ago.

IRON PIPE—PIPE FITTINGS

New and Used — All Sizes
ALL WOOL PAPER MILL FELT BLANKETS
BELTING — Rubber and Canvas
Structural Steel

I. BAHCALL INC.

975 N. Meade St. Appleton, Wis.

Auto Insurance

see
HOME MUTUAL CASUALTY CO.

409 Zuelke Building
Phone 4600

"Big Enough to Serve You, But Not Too Big to Know You."

WE ARE NOW SERVING
TURKEY DINNERS
EVERY SATURDAY
LA VILLA
Restaurant and Candy Shop
130 E. College Ave.

Petersen Press
Printing of All Kinds
Phone 1384
604 W. COLLEGE AVE.

GEENEN'S
LAY-AWAY SALE
FUR COATS
MAKE YOUR OWN TERMS
NO CARRYING CHARGE
Take Until Next Winter to Pay!

PHONE 1021
For Spring Decorating
Estimates
LELAND FEAVEL
403 N. Oneida St.
Competent work by experts!

Complete Itineraries for
WORLD'S FAIR TOURS
We Have Particulars:
"Our service is complimentary"
Erbach Travel Service
128 N. Oneida St. Phone 2355

Plan Now for Your Spring
PAINTING and INTERIOR
DECORATION
NEHLS
Interior Decorator
226 W. Washington St. Phone 432

WHEREVER YOU GO
—CALL FOR—
BERLINER
The BEER of QUALITY
Distributed by
SAM MADER
TEL. 3029
204 N. Bennett St.

COMMERCIAL PRINTING
Chris. Roemer Estate
119 So. Appleton St. Phone 1790
Printers Since 1857

PRESCRIPTIONS
FILLED
Day or Night
BELLING'S
DRUG STORE
Phone 131 204 E. College Ave.
Appleton, Wis.

DIVIDEND PAYING
Auto Public Liability Fire
Compensation
INSURANCE
EMPLOYERS
MUTUALS
Richard J. White
204 Zuelke Bldg. Phone 6708

Appleton's Musical Headquarters
BERNARD PIANO STORE
KIMBALL — WINTER
STORY & CLARK
Tel. 3263-W 288 N. Appleton St.

Exclusive Agency for Martin-
Indiana Band Instruments
B I E R T Z
Musical Repair, Sales, service
Tel. 3214

MORE THAN ANY OTHER FOOD

You'll find more of the essentials in bread than any other food you eat. Bread aids digestion and helps build tissues. Eat more bread because it's the food that serves you best!

HOFFMAN BAKERY

We Deliver Phone 423
423 W. College Ave.

LET US PLAN YOUR SPRING DECORATING
Sherwin-Williams
PAINTS & WALLPAPER
Retail and Wholesale
302 E. College Ave. Phone 6880

AUTO LOANS
NEW LOWER RATES
INSURANCE
SEE US FIRST
NOLAN & DOHEARTY
128 N. Appleton St. Phone 6969

KOCH PHOTO SHOP
It's easy to develop your own films and make your own prints! We have full equipment, moderately priced!
231 E. College Ave. Phone 366

You Are Invited To Attend
Meetings Every Monday Night
Technocracy, Inc.
Basement of Wettengel Bldg.
317 E. College Ave.

See the New 1939
CORONADO ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS

Complete Itineraries for
WORLD'S FAIR TOURS
We Have Particulars:
"Our service is complimentary"
Erbach Travel Service
128 N. Oneida St. Phone 2355

Plan Now for Your Spring
PAINTING and INTERIOR
DECORATION
NEHLS
Interior Decorator
226 W. Washington St. Phone 432

WHEREVER YOU GO
—CALL FOR—
BERLINER
The BEER of QUALITY
Distributed by
SAM MADER
TEL. 3029
204 N. Bennett St.

COMMERCIAL PRINTING
Chris. Roemer Estate
119 So. Appleton St. Phone 1790
Printers Since 1857

PRESCRIPTIONS
FILLED
Day or Night
BELLING'S
DRUG STORE
Phone 131 204 E. College Ave.
Appleton, Wis.

DIVIDEND PAYING
Auto Public Liability Fire
Compensation
INSURANCE
EMPLOYERS
MUTUALS
Richard J. White
204 Zuelke Bldg. Phone 6708

Appleton's Musical Headquarters
BERNARD PIANO STORE
KIMBALL — WINTER
STORY & CLARK
Tel. 3263-W 288 N. Appleton St.

Exclusive Agency for Martin-
Indiana Band Instruments
B I E R T Z
Musical Repair, Sales, service
Tel. 3214

Complete Itineraries for
WORLD'S FAIR TOURS
We Have Particulars:
"Our service is complimentary"
Erbach Travel Service
128 N. Oneida St. Phone 2355

Plan Now for Your Spring
PAINTING and INTERIOR
DECORATION
NEHLS
Interior Decorator
226 W. Washington St. Phone 432

WHEREVER YOU GO
—CALL FOR—
BERLINER
The BEER of QUALITY
Distributed by
SAM MADER
TEL. 3029
204 N. Bennett St.

COMMERCIAL PRINTING
Chris. Roemer Estate
119 So. Appleton St. Phone 1790
Printers Since 1857

PRESCRIPTIONS
FILLED
Day or Night
BELLING'S
DRUG STORE
Phone 131 2